—Mr William F. Cook, of Greensborough, has on hand for the Christmas holidays a large stock of toys and Christmas presents. If you cannot come yourself send in your orders.

—The Whitelocks, father and son, who were recently tried at New Castle, Dela., for the murder of a colored man and acquitted, have returned to Middletown and again engaged in the sale of rum.

—At the election of officers for the Dorchester and Delaware Railroad, held on Wednesday of last week, W. Wilson Byrn, Esq., was unanimously re-elected President, and Mr. Thomas W. Anderson Secretary.

—Almost every county in Maryland presents a candidate for the Speakership of the next House of Delegates. Candidates for the Presidency of the Senate are also quite numerous, and among others spoken of, the Hon. Daniel Fields of this county is named.

—On Wednesday morning last, James Hall, 19 years of age, while at work on Mr. John Burchinal's farm, near Chestertown, was suddenly killed by being caught under the body of a falling tree while he was engaged in digging around it.

—Petitions protesting against the repeal of the Local Option Law are now in circulation in all parts of the county. The friends of the law should be active in procuring signatures as the time is short and those in favor of its repeal are very assiduous in their efforts to accomplish their purpose.

—The new year is close at hand and now is the time to subscribe for your county paper. There are a number in this county who take no paper and are consequently ignorant of what is transpiring in their midst. Send us $1.50 for next year's subscription. We will guarantee the worth of your money.

—Mr. P. A. Morgan, of Talbot county, has proposed to Mr. Denny, his colleague for the House of Delegates at the November election, both of whom were defeated by decided majorities, to contest the election of the successful candiates, on the grounds that each of them held office at the time of their election. Mr. Denny declines to contest.

—In another column our readers will find a call for a county convention of all those opposed to the repeal of the Local Option Law. A general attendance is requested of those opposed to repeal. An effort is being made by a few men to secure by petition, its repeal and the friends of the law must go to work to thwart their designs by sending to Annapolis a protest containing the names of fifteen hundred of our citizens. These protests are now in circulation all over the county and should be signed by every friend of the law.

The pier is being constructed by the railroad company, and the earnings, the people interested are subscribing a sufficient interest to make up the enterprise. The pier will extend [illegible] into the river, and has already been built out 300 feet in the most substantial manner.

A Father Kills His Son.

On Sunday last, Samuel Butler, an old colored man, about seventy years of age, was committed to our county jail for shooting his own son on Saturday night last. He resided near Preston, in the 4th district in this county, and has several grown up children. He has also grand children who have reached the years of majority. The difficulty occurred between father and son about 11 o'clock on Saturday night last and originated about a horse his son, Kelley Butler, aged about 23 years, had rode off and remained away until about the hour named above. The father remonstrated with him about his conduct and the son, who was at the time under the influence of liquor, which it is said he obtained of a colored man who distills apple brandy in that neighborhood, named Joshua Jones, when he became enranged and rushed for an axe and made for his father, who seized a gun which he kept in the house. The grand sons just at this time, closed in with refractory son and took the axe from him, when he immediately rushed upon his father and attempted to wrest the gun from him. It was during this struggle that the gun was dischargad, the load passing into the abdomen of the son, and inflicting a mortal wound. Medical aid was summoned speedily, but the wounded man died on the next day.

Baltimore Weekly Sun.

This deservedly popular weekly journal still continues to flourish and prosper despite the hard times. For the year 1876 its proprietors will spare no expense to insure its permanence in the proud position of the very best home journal in the United States. They have made an offer of Twelve Hundred Dollars in prizes for stories which will undoubtedly attract attention from the best literary talent of the country, and will afford the readers of the Weekly Sun an excellent literay banquet throughout the year. The proffer will also, it is hoped, be an incentive to the development of much scholary ability now lying dormant in all parts of the country.

In future, as in the past, the Weekly Sun will contain "the very age and body of the time." The news of the day from all over the world will be epitomized, or, if of stirring importance, will be spread at length before the public. Editorials of a rational and independent character will be given on all current topics. The markets of this country and Europe will be carefully statted. An agricultural editor of great knowledge in his department will contribute valuable information to farmers. And, generally, the columns of the Weekly Sun will be replete with whatever of interest that may transpire. Its tone, too, will be, as it always has been, of so high a standard in every particular as to make it an honored and welcome visitor in ever household.

Large Hogs.

We gave last week the weight of some of the heaviest hogs which had been slaughtered up to the date of our last issue. We add a few more this week.

Mr. Thos. F. Garey slaughtered six this week, about fifteen months old, weighing 394, 390, 376, 276 and two weighed 350 lbs each. Total weight 2076 pounds.—Mr. Chas. Shields' heaviest hog weighing 515 lbs. Mrs. T. F. Garey slaughtered four, 6 months old, which averaged 168 lbs each—total weight 712 lbs. Mr. R. J. W. Garey slaughtered four, eleven months old; total weight 1100 lbs. Capt. Wm. B. Stephens, at Burrsville, slaughtered on Monday last, three hogs, which weighed each 479, 402 and 380—total weight 1261 pounds. These hogs were only 16 months old.

[Communicated.]

To the Editor of the Union:

For some weeks past an item has been going the rounds of the Peninsular papers, to the effect, that an unfortunate young lady of Laurel, Del., belonging to a respectable family, had given birth to twin children, who had been deserted in an adjacent woods, etc. But one paper, as far as we are aware, has given any word of censure for the guilty scoundrel who seduced this young woman. The Editor of the print referred to simply inquired, "what share of the guilt attaches to the seducer of this young girl?"

Now, Mr. Editor, we have been led to query, why is it that in almost every instance similar to the above, the female is censured and ostracised by society; her character blackened for life, and only the grave hides her from the finger of scorn and contempt—while the male fiend who was a party to the criminal act is permitted, virtually, to escape all condemnation? He has accomplished his hellish purpose, in all probability, through base deception—given false promises, taken advantage of pecuniary necessities, or made cruel threats. And yet, society in general has no word of condemnation; virtuous ladies will cordially greet him, and associate as though there was no blemish upon his character. Even christian mothers, who would believe their daughters forever disgraced to associate with the fallen young woman, will welcome her seducer to their parlors, and without hesitancy permit their innocent and unsuspecting children to promonade the public streets with him and spend hours alone in intimate sociality. This is the strangest feature of the case—that woman will thus reproach and condemn her deceived and terribly wronged sister while smiles, and welcomes and friendships are freely bestowed upon the really guilty one—the one who not only richly deserves to be an outcast from society, but incarceration in the penitentiary and consignment to hard labor.

Mr. Editor, is it not time the press had spoken out emphatically upon this point? On questions of morals generally the pulpit can unite with the press in cultivating public sentiment; but the delicacy of this subject must confine it chiefly to the latter. Let its voice be heard in thunder tones in condemnation of the vile wretch who would rob the innocent of their chastity and consign them to a life of shame and reproach.

Dec. 5th, 1875. JUSTICE.

President's Message.

In another column we present a synopsis of the President's Message, which is admitted by all well informed men to be the most sensible and statesmanlike document which has ever been written by Gen. Grant. It commends itself to candid minds because of the boldness of its utterances and the soundness of the views presented upon national questions. We regret that our limited space prevents us from giving the document entire.

Denton Grange.

The regular meeting for the election of officers in Denton Grange, No. 43, P. of H., will be held on Tuesday December 28th, 1875, at 2 o'clock, P. M. All the members are particularly requested to give prompt attention at that time as busines of the utmost importance to the order will be laid before the Grange.

J. J. FISHER, Sec'y.

The Third Term Question.

The action of Bishop Haven of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in urging the nomination of General Grant for a third term as a measure of public safety, at a public meeting of about 200 Methodist ministers in Boston on the 6th inst., has been a subject of much discussion, the point at issue being whether or not Bishop Haven expressed the views of the Methodist Church. Bishop Hanes, the senior bishop of the M. E. Church, was visited by a representative of the New York Sun on Friday, who represents him as saying:

"The action of Bishop Haven bears with it no official weight, from the fact that the sentiments he advanced were not uttered in an official meeting. The meeting was the regular morning meeting of the Boston ministers, but is not recognized in our Discipline as an official meeting. I havn't an idea that Bishop Haven expected his remarks to be made public. They were simply the utterances of his views in what he considered a social gathering. Neither do I imagine that in passing a vote of thanks to the bishop for his remarks the ministers meant to put it on record that they fully endorsed his resolution. The bishop, to be sure, is a representative man among us;—but he cannot represent us in any such action unless authorized, and certainly he was not authorized. He is a fine man, an earnest, conscientious man, who pursues what he undertakes with great zeal and energy. It is not possible that the Methodist denomination should take part as a denomination, in politics. We would not consider it wise nor right for any other denomination to become a political denomination, and we would not do what we condemned in others. Besides, we have much difference of political belief among us as any other denomination. Many of our best and most influential men are strongly opposed to General Grant."

The Philadelphia City Item states that one of its representatives called upon Bishop Simpson, on Friday in order to ascertain his opinion in regard to the nomination of General Grant for a third term by Bishop Haven, when the following conversation ensued:

Reporter—I suppose, sir, you have already seen the report of the meeting in Boston (which appeared in the Item of Wednesday,) at which Bishop Haven nominated President Grant for a third term?

Bishop—Yes, I have seen that and also what the New York Tribune has to say.—I have not yet received any communication from Bishop Haven upon the matter, but the reports that have been given of that meeting through the public press differ somewhat from what I have heard from other sources.

Reporter—Is not any inteference in politics at such a meeting contrary to the discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church?

Bishop—Certainly, and I should deprecate any eclesiastical body making utterances either for or against any candidates;—that is to say, of course, as a church.

Rep.—Is the President a member of the M. E. Church, as has been represented?

Bishop—He is not; he is simply an attendant at one of our places of worship.—The Methodist denomination neither ask nor expect anything of him.

Rep.—In the event of his being nominated, do you think he would get the support of the Methodist clergy as a body?

Bishop—Not as a body, certainly. Even among ministers there is a difference in politics, some being republicans and others being staunch democrats, the latter being rather, I should say, in the majority. The church, however, would be much opposed to any of its members leading it into a political contest.

Rep.—From your standpoint, do you think that the Methodists as a people are in favor of a third term?

Bishop—That I cannot say: I never made any inquiries leading to that point.

A "riot between whites and blacks" is reported to have occurred at Rolling Fork, 35 miles above Vicksburg, in which seven of the negroes were killed, while "no whites were hurt." At last accounts all was quiet, the negroes having "fled to the woods in fright." The "riot" is said to have grown out of an attempt by the blacks to rescue one of their color who had been arrested "on account of a difficulty with a white man."

All over the world Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is making its way, and every place it reached consumptive people are more seldom met. It is truly a blessing to humanity, and only costs 25 cents.

YOU HAVE NO EXCUSE.

Have you any excuse for suffering with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint? Is there any reason why you should go on from day to day complaining with Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Costiveness, palpitation of the Heart, Heart burn, Waterbrash, Gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the Stomach, Yellow Skin, Coated Tongue and disagreeable taste in the month, coming up of food after eating, Low spirits, &c. No! It is positively your own fault if you do.—Go to your Druggist. Dr. Fisher, and get a bottle of Green's August Flower for 75 cents your cure is certain, but if you doubt this, get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you.

REMEMBER THIS.

Now is the time of the year for Pneumonia, Lung Fever, Coughs Colds, and fatal results of predisposition to Consumption and other Throat and Lung Disease Boschee's German Syrup has been used in this neighborhood for the past two or three years without a single failure to cure. If you havenot used this medicine yourself, go to your Druggist, Dr. Fisher, and ask him of its wonderful success among his customers. Two doses will relieve the worst case. If you have no faith in any medicine, just buy a sample bottle of Boschee's German Syrup for 10 cents and try it. Regular size bottle 75 cents. Don't neglect a cough to save 75 cents.
