Thursday Morning Jan. 11 1877

THE Orphans' Court of Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, 23rd of Jan., 1877.

The Editor's Hash.

—Mr. Ezekiel Fleming, of Harrington, is erecting a saw mill near Felton.

—Mr. S. C. Beckwith has retired as associate editor of the Cambridge Chronicle.

—The Delaware House of Representatives "can boast of a Bird, a Martin and a Crow."

—How to make corner-loafing unpopular—Call it work, and pay young men wages for doing it.

—The citizens of Milford are already looking up homes for the preachers during Conference.

—Gold was lower in New York on Friday than at any time since 1863; selling as low as 106¾.

—A St. Michaels blacksmith shod 135 horses in four weeks. He nailed on 60 shoes in one day.

—The late assessment in Queen Anne's county shows an increase of $600,000 over the old assessment.

—Mrs. Hester Arthurs, aged over one hundred years, died near Slaughter's Station, one day last week.

—Rev. J. H. Caldwell, of the M. E. Church, was elected Chaplain to the House of Representatives, at Dover, Del., last week.

—Wm. Carmichael has been appointed school commissioner of Queen Anne's county, in place of Hon. R. B. Carmichael, resigned.

—Mr. John T. Comegys desires all persons indebted to him for blacksmithing up to December 30th, 1876, to make immediate settlement.

—Kent county, Del., is short of funds and the county treasurer needs money to pay the interest on account of the indebtedness of the county.

—Wescott Faithful, of Queen Anne's county, was on horseback last Saturday, when his horse slipped and fell, breaking Mr. Faithful's leg.

—Mrs. Martha J., wife of Dr. F. T. [illegible]ny, died at Crisfield on the 15th of De[illegible]ber. She was the daughter of the late [illegible]as. Carter of this county and was aged about 31 years.

—A frame house, near Frederica was burned one night last week, and a man named Coleburn, who was sleeping a in room where there was no window, being unable to escape, was burned to death.

—The Newtown Record, Worcester Co., says it is rumored that a negro dredger on a pungy in Annamessix river, Somerset county, was recently found dead on the vessel, and a coroner's jury found that he died from ill-treatment of the pungy's captain, and from hunger.

—Charles G. Fisher, of Milford, son of Geo. P. Fisher, was convicted in the criminal court in Washington last week of stealing papers from the clerk of the court of the district and sentenced to eleven months imprisonment in the Washington jail.

—Personal—Should this meet the eye of the individual who created a disturbance in church last Sunday by his continued coughing, he will confer a favor on the congregation by procuring a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, which will cure him.

—The Centreville Observer tells this mule story: "Capt John Griffin, of Piney Neck, lost a mule last week under peculiar circumstances. The mule slipped on the ice and its fore legs spraddled open, and split the mule in two, killing it in a few minutes."

—The local option law went into effect last Monday in Princess Anne and Hungary Neck districts of Somerset county. The law permits the sale of homemade wine, beer and cider, which will necessitate a change in the name of sundry intoxicating fluids.

—Now is a good time to pay old debts provided you have the money. Will all those indebted to us pay up so that we may pay those to whom we are indebted. We do not want our creditors casting wistful glances at us; as much as to say, "pay what you owe."

—The forgeries of Gen. Daniel Woodall, of Middletown, Del., noticed in these columns several weeks ago, are not so numerous or extensive as at that time reported. The entire amount is little more than $5,000, nearly all of which has been paid by his friends, and the remainder will be paid in a short time, and no one will lose a dollar.

—C. D. Sentman, editor and proprietor of the Sunday School Worker, published at Wilmington, Del., every alternate week, has greatly improved and enlarged his paper of late. It now has a temperance department, conducted by Rev. A. D. Davis, formerly of the Rescue, who is a zealous advocate of the cause and has done noble service in the past. Subscription price on 55 cents a year.

—The People have been so much imposed upon by several worthless Sarsaparillas, that we are glad to be able to recommend a preparation which can be depended on as containing the virtues of that invaluable medicine, and is worthy of the public confidence. Doct. Ayer's Sarsaparilla cures when anything can cure the diseases that require an alterative medicine.

—An election for officers of the M. E. Sabbath School held at the M. E. Church in this place on Sunday afternoon last, resulted in the choice of the following officers to serve the present year. Superintendent, T. C. West. Assis't. Superintendent, Jas. I. Ledaum. Female Superintendent, Mrs. A. P. Hudson. Treasurer, Richard T. Carter. Secretary, Geo. T. Melvin. Librarians, R. Ernest Comegys and Chas. H. Blackiston.

—Miss Rejina D. Pritchett desires all persons indebted to her up to January 1st 1877, to call and make immediate settlement as I need and must have money, to continue my business.

—The Denton Cornet Band, organized but a few weeks ago, are becoming quite proficient in the acquirement of musical knowledge. They have procured the services of Professor Scull, of Philadelphia, and having been under his instructions only a little more than a week past, can now execute several tunes very creditably. Prof. Scull appears to be master of his profession, and gives the most unremitting attention to his pupils. If the members of the Band continue thus rapidly to acquire a knowledge of music, it will not be long before Denton can boast of a first-class Brass Band, unsurpassed by any of the towns on this Shore.

The School Fund.

The Comptroller of Maryland has completed the January distribution of the State school fund, showing the amount due Baltimore city and each county in the State. The amount due this county is $ 2,181 36. Of this amount the white schools of the county receive $1,616 61—The colored schools $ 564. 75.

Moody to the Sunday Schools.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Bliss, the latter author of "Hold the Fort," having perished in the Ashtabula railroad disaster, Mr. Moody makes the following appeal:

To the Sunday Schools of America:

I would suggest that every Sunday school in this country take a penny collection on Sunday, January 14th, for the maintenance, education and benefit of the children of Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Bliss, and for the erection of a monument to the memory of the sweet singers to whom all our Sunday schools are so deeply indebted. Send money to Henry Field, Treasurer, care of Field, Leiter & Co., Chicago.

(Signed) D. L. Moody.

A collection for the object above stated will be taken in the M. E. Sunday School in this place on Sabbath afternoon next.

The Bennett-May Affair.

The following statement is given as the true version of the cause which led to the difficulty of the Bennett-May duel which occurred a few days ago near the borders of this county:

It seems that Bennett is not only eccentric, but that he is fond of wine when it is red, and a number of times lately has very imprudently ventured into society while under its influence, and in several instances went to the house of his fiancee while in this condition. Once while there he slapped Miss May's cheek, and this was attributed to wine and eccentricity altogether. Another time he was so boisterous and abusive that Dr. May, the father of Miss May was compelled to show him into the street, but the young lady as soon as the back of the parent was turned, let him in again by the basement window. Under all these circumstances her love for Bennett has never failed her, and she has plead with her parents for him time and again. His last offence was to break a costly mirror in the parlor, besides destroying furniture and using language to the household, especially Mrs. May, that was highly insulting; and, when thrown into the street by the father, acted in a manner before the house that was not only disgraceful to himself but to the family.

The engagement was broken by the father, who wrote Mr. Bennett that his daughter could not marry him, and it was for the insult to his mother that principally induced young May to attack upon him on the very day that the wedding was to have taken place, after the bridal trosseau had arrived, at a cost of $7,000 dollars, and Bennett had ordered the most extravigant bridal presents

It is stated that Bennett had wearied of the engagement, and this was the cause of his drinking and acting as he did; also that he had publicly offered in the club room $ 100,000 to any one who would take Miss May off his hands.

Miss Carrie May is a very attractive woman, possessed of fascinating manners, and sufficient beauty to have rendered her a belle both in New York and Washington, of which latter city her father is a native. She is slightly above the medium height and of rather delicate physique

The South Carolina Committee.

The House Committee which went to South Carolina to investigate the recent election in that State returned to Washington last week, and most of the members were in their seats in the House on Friday. None of them hesitated to speak of their visit and to comment upon the result, therefore it can be stated authoritatively that the committee will make a unanimous report that upon the face of the returns the Hayes and Wheeler Electors are chosen.—The report will not touch upon the result of the election as to State officers, as the committee was not authorized to investigate as to them by the resolution under which they acted. The testimony taken by the committee will make about 600 printed pages, and cannot be written out for the printer, for ten days yet, and the committee is not expected to meet for consultation for a week at least. Mr. Sayler, Chairman of the committee, says that the investigation has been conducted with a view of ascertaining the exact facts in relation to the condition of affairs in South Carolina, and that there is no difference of opinion among the members of the committee as to the main points to be reported upon; that all agree that Hayes has carried the State, as well as that there has been a good deal of unfairness in the conduct of the election on both sides. He says things are in a deplorable condition in the State. While he does not say directly that he deprecates the action of his party associates in the State, he gives expression to enough of disgust for the condition of things to show very clearly that he has not gained an abiding faith in the South Carolina Democracy by the short stay he has made among them. Several of the other Democratic members of the committee also speak freely of their disappointment at the attitude of the Democracy in South Carolina, and not one member of the committee can be found who does not tell a pitiful story of the condition of affairs. What recommendations will be made by the committee are matters for future consideration, but there is no doubt that in addition to a unanimous report in favor of Hayes, there will also be a statement of facts not very creditable to either party there that will have approval of the full committee.

An inteligent looking colored man walked into a Buffalo office the ot her day with a slate in hand, on which he wrote: "I am deaf and dumb. Please help me." But there happened to be a sharp pointed tack, end up, in the chair on which he was invited to sit, and, as he jumped about five feet into the air, his speech was suddenly restored, and he went out uttering language totally unfit for publication.

"Old Reliable."

There are many reputed remedies for that prevalent disease, Chronic Nasal Catarrh, but none which have given general satisfaction and become acknowledged standard preparations, except Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It continues to enjoy an unprecedented popularity. This reputation has been earned through the permanent cures which it has wrought, having proved itself a specific in the worst form of the disease. Pierce's Pocket Memorandum Books are given away at drug-stores

PERISHED IN THE SNOW.—The employes on the early train going North on Worcester railroad on Tuesday morning last, when some four miles south of Berlin, noticed the body of a man beside the track in the snow. Running to the next station the conductor of the second train was notified, who on coming up took charge of the body, which proved to be (or reported) that a white man by the name of Melvin. Whether he perished from the severity of the storm of the previous night, or was injured by the down train of monday evening is not known

HUTCHINS.—On Monday morning last, ORMAND, son of J. T. Hutchins, aged about 13 years—disease, pneumonia supervening upon rubeola.

Joints and Muscles, Stiff and painful with rheumatism and gout, are promptly relieved by Glenn's Sulphur Soap. Local diseases of the skin and defects of the complexion are also remedied by this standard article. Depot Crittenton's No. 7 Sixth Avenue, New York. Hill's Hair & Whisker Dye, black or brown, 50 cents. [jan4-4w.

Scarcity of Money.

There is no doubt but the present condition of all kinds of business and industry is fearfully depressed, and it behooves every family to look carefully to their expenses.—Winter is coming on when children are liable to Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. Coughs and Colds will prevail everywhere, and Consumption, with other throat and lung diseases, will carry off many. These diseases should not be neglected. Doctor's bills are expensive, and we would advise our people to use BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP. It never has failed. One bottle at 75 cents will keep your whole family well during the winter.—Two doses will relieve any case. Sold in all towns in the United States, and by your Druggists, Dr. Fisher or Chas. Stevens.

MANY thousands of dollars has been spent in distributing, free of charge, Sample Bottles of BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP to all parts of this country, to those suffering from Coughs, Asthma, Hemorrhages, Consumption, and other Throat and Lung Diseases, that the afflicted might satisfy themselves, that this remedy would save them from those fatal diseases. No person has ever used this medicine without getting immediate relief, yet there are a great many poor, suffering, skeptical persons going about our streets with a suspicious cough, and the voice of consumption coming from their lungs, that will not try it. If you die, it is your own fault, as you can go to your Druggists, Dr. Fisher or Chas. Stevens, and get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it; three doses will relieve any case. Regular size only 75 cents.

DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS.—If this axiom is true respecting the ordinary affairs of life, still more obviously so as regards the exigencies of approaching disease. Unquestionably! Yet how many neglect to practically recognize this plain truth when health is in the balance. Of the many premonitory symptoms of disease a hacking cough is the most prophetic of peril. Arrest it at the outset with Dr. WISHART'S PINE TREE CORDIAL, and so avoid Consumption, Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Coughs, Colds, and, indeed, all Affections of the Respiratory Organs are entirely cured by this sovereign remedy, which also eradicates Dyspepsia, Gravel, Piles, Nervous Debility, Torpidity of the Liver, Urinary Difficulties, Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart, Scrofulous Affections, and the infirmities peculiar to the gentler sex. This Cordial derives its virtues from the vegetable kingdom, and is infinitely to be preferred, both on account of its superior efficacy and freedom from nauseous and injurious properties to the officinal drugs so often administered with no other effect than to offend the palate and disorder the stomach. The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL can always be relied on to do what is claimed for it. Sold by all druggists. Principal Depot No. 916 Filbert St., Philadelphia.

THIS standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and as satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color.

It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff. It gives the head a cooling, soothing sensation of great comfort, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing, nothing has been found so effectual or desirable.

A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."
