American Union

Thursday Morning April 19 1877.

THE Orphans' Court of Caroline county will meet on Tuesday 24th of April 1877.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

This is to give special notice to those of our subscribers who are more than two years in arrears for subscriptions due this office, that if their accounts are not promptly paid within one week from the date of the present issue they will no longer receive the Union. We cannot afford to purchase material, pay for labor, keep up family and other expenses connected with our business, and give away our labor. If those who are thus indebted to us are laboring under such belief, they will find themselves after this issue without the pleasure of longer perusing our columns, and their accounts, will forthwith be put in a train of collection. A large number of our subscribers pay up promptly, but there are some, so far as payment is concerned, we had as well have dead men on our list. In fact, in the way of payment, they are dead—dead weights to every business enterprise in our midst. If such desire to read our paper they must pay up now or in the future impose on some other newspaper editor who has had less experience than ourself.

The Editor's Hash.

—Peach trees are in bloom.

—Shad are worth 40 cents a pair in this market and scarce at that price.

—Kent county Circuit Court commenced its April term at Chestertown on Monday last.

—Col. George Davis, a prominent citizen of Smyrna, died suddenly in that place on Friday last of apoplexy.

—Mr. J. W. Bryant, Esq., is making preparation for laying a new pavement in front of his residence.

—There is one Postoffice in Maryland that goes begging. It is located at Lindseyville and pays $6 per annum.

—John O'Brian's circus and menagerie will not visit Denton this season. So boys you need not save up your pennies.

—The steam saw mill of Mr. Joseph Tunis, at Clayborne, Talbot county, was destroyed by fire last week. Insured for $3,000.

—The Rev. B. F. Price has been appointed to the charge of the M. E. Church, at Delaware City, in place of Rev. J. W. Weston.

—Eight hundred Delaware shad were offered in the Wilmington market one morning last week. They sold at $40 per hundred.

—Mr. Luther Whitby has commenced the harness business at Hillsborough. New sets made and repairing done at short notice. Give him a trial.

—The marriage license fee in Delaware has been reduced from $4 to $2. No more leaving the State now to get hitched up in double harness.

—"Facts are stubborn things," and so are coughs and colds. but the latter will invariably yield to Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, which costs but 25 cents.

—The Journal says ladie's "bustles are now made with hinges." Has the editor been constituted a committee of one to make a personal examination?

—Capt. W. C. Bryan, of the sloop Mary Compton, of the Maryland Oyster Police Force, has resigned his position to give place to a better man.

—The Baltimore Annual Conference of the African M. E. Church met at Cambridge yesterday. Bsbop J. M. Brown presides.

—A Queen Anne's county farmer, residing in Spaniard's Neck, finished planting his corn crop on Wednesday of last week. He is an early bird on the corn crop.

—Rev. Adam Stengle, pastor of Immanual Church, at Crisfield, has been presented by the friends of that church, with a handsome silver watch.

—Asbury Church at Easton was burned to the ground on Friday morning. The foundation for a new church had previously been laid.

—The party of Wilmington mechanics who recently went to Caracoas, South America; are very much dissatisfied and wish themselves home again.

—Plundering the Eastern Shore Railroad depots is becoming frequent. The two at Berlin were robbed on Wednesday night, but the thieves got very little money.

—W. T. Beck, a well-known young man of Smyrna, is charged with having committed a number of forgeries in that community, and has disappeared.

—The steamer Highland Light made her first trip for the present season to this place last week. She is fresh from the hands of the painter and is the very model of neatness.

—Two new hotels have been built during the winter at Ocean City. The four now there will accommodate 1,200 people, and a brisk business for the coming season is anticipated.

—Rev. Herman Carter, son of Mr. Edward Carter, of Henderson, Md., who graduated last year at Drew's Theological Seminary, has joined the Southern Kansas Conference of the M. E. Church.

—John A. Dix, the Author of a letter from Deal's Island to the Balt. American has been ajudged guilty of libel by the Somerset County Court for statements made therein and fined $50 and costs.

—The steamer Olive, Capt. Dodson, is about to make a trial trip through Kent Narrows, and if there are no impediments in the way will open up a regular line from St. Michael's to Baltimore in the future.—A wharf is to be built on the north side of the bridge, constructed at the Narrows, from which the steamer will receive freight and passengers.

—William H. Wharton's residence, near Ocean View, Sussex county, was burned to the ground with all its furniture and contents during the high gale of Monday night last. Loss $3,000.

—Moses Young, a colored boy, of Cambridge, laid down on the track of the Dorchester and Delaware Railroad for a nap. He woke in the next world, and the train hands had considerable cleaning up to do.

—Caroline county was first made a circuit of the M. E. Conference in 1791.—Who was the first regular minister of the Conference sent to the circuit we are not informed. Asbury was the presiding Bishop at the time.

—The article entitled the "Demon of drink," being the experience of the late Rev. J. J. Talbott, sent us by a friend, was published in our paper not long since, but as it will bear reprinting, we will publish it next week on first page.

—Wm. A. Bunningham, cashier of the new bank at Centreville, Queen Anne's county, has resigned. When he accepted the position it was understood that he did so merely for the purpose of assisting in the organization of the bank.

—Rev. Jas. M'Carter, well-known to many of our citizens, has been preaching to the good people of Milford recently.—The Milford News pronounces his discourses as unusually brilliant and eloquent, as well as orthodox and spiritual, and to have drawn large audiences.

—The American Basket Company's large factory at Milford, was entirely destroyed by fire on Saturday morning. The building contained a large stock of manufactured goods, which is a total loss. The fire originated in the engine room. The loss is about $30,000, upon which there is only an insurance of $8,500.

—Amongst the reverend gentlemen recently sent to this county by the Annual Cuference of one of the Methodist denominations is a divine who stands about six feet in his boots and turns the scale at about 300 pounds. He ought to be able to minister to his parishoners solid chunks of wisdom.

—Jacob H. Hawker, of Ocean View, Sussex county, has recently, by the death of a father and brother, inherited an estate of $250,000, in Philadelphia. He was a poor man, working a small farm and living in a one story-house. He has bought a handsome property near his late residence, and will continue the business of farming.

—Messrs. Thompson & Kersey, merchants at Easton, keeping pace with the improvements of the age, have issued a new paper entitled the "Illustrated Bulletin." It is devoted chiefly to their own mercantile interests, published monthly and circulated gratuitously amongst their customers.

—The Denton Cornet Band will give a concert to-night at the Court House for the benefit of the Band. Our citizens will be entertained with the "Ticket of Leave Man," and with vocal and instrumental music. This entertainment will present unusual attractions to our citizens and will be liberally patronized. Tickets 25 cents.

—The recent expose of the Dorchester Alms, house by a correspondent of the St. Michael's Comet has stirred up the authorities of that county and caused some inquiry as to the facts. Although the Cambridge News declares that the correspondent lied, still the reading public are not quite ready to be believe the entire statement a falsehood. Where there is so much smoke there is evidence of some fire.

—We have received several letters making inquiry as to the loan of $4,000 published in another column. We will here state for the information of all that this money will be loaned in sums of $1,000 on real estate for one year or perhaps longer if needed, the interest to be paid in advance. None but first mortgages will be accepted. Applications must be accompanied with full description of property.

—The steam saw mill, owned by Stayton & Fleming, near Hillsborough, was destroyed by fire on Thursday morning last. The fire originated from burning saw dust which caught to a box of shavings. The engine and boiler received but little damage. The house which was merely a temporary structure, built of rough boards, was entirely consumed.—The loss will scarcely exceed $300.

—The Annual meeting of the stockholders of the Citizens' Building and Loan Association was held at their office, in Denton on Tuesday, 17th inst. The following Directors were elected for the ensuing year: R. J. Jump, R. C. Carter, S. F. Liden, J. R. Fountain, J. W. Bryant, Henry Wilson, W. W. Lowe, W. G. Horsey and Josiah White. The Board organized by the election of R. J. Jump, as President; Wm. G. Horsey, Vice-Pres't; R. C. Carter, Treasurer; Josiah White, Secretary; H. Wilson, S. F. Liden and J. R. Fountain, Finance Committee.

The Stock was well represented and the affairs of the Association seem to be prospering.

Land Sales.

Mr. Jas. G. Redden, as agent of H. S. Mancha, has effected the sale of the following parcels of real estate recently, in this county.

The Lank Farm, near Greensborough, containing 190 acres, sold to Geo. A. Stephens, of Westchester county, New York, for $2,500.00.

The Chas. E. Jarrell farm, containing 187 acres, located in the same neighborhood, to a Mr. Stevens, of New York, for $1,260.

The Hunter farm, containing 70 acres, of Mr. Boyle, of New York, for $1,000.

To Mr. Williams, a part of the last named farm, for $900.

The Elijah Towers farm, three miles from Denton, 133 acres, to Owen Grimes, of New York, for $2,800.

A small tract of land containing 51 acres to George Tibbet, of New York, for $1,400.

Moulding the Future.

BY R. M. TYLOR.

"The future is more present than the past. For one look back, a thousand on we cast, And hope doth ever memory outlast."

What more genuine employment can befit the hun an mind than that of "moulding the future?"

We who are actors on the present stage must see to it that our parts are well played, ere we criticise others, who perhaps are striving earnestly as we, to fill up the measure allotted them.

I find in an article headed "Women in the Pulpit," published in the Baltimore American, dated March 2d, that a rather disgusting debate had ensued in the city of New York in regard to the subject; and the man who had the effrontry to say that "If the mother of our Lord were on earth I should oppose her preaching here," bore off the palm, amid the "amens" of other "poor deluded critters" like himself. Who is the mother of our Lord? "He that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven the same is my brother, and sister and mother."

I would ask "Brother Mac," which denomination of professing christians has the ascendency in Denton, and is most largely represented by pastors?

Certainly not the Catholic. Then where, I ask further, does the blame attach of evils extant? Are we not all accountable, to a certain extent, and can we not write as one people to "Ring out the false and the true," in a kindly spirit, "without building upon anothers fame?"

I am glad to welcome our young brothers, as a fellow worker; and believe we shall all see more clearly, as we allow the beam to be taken out of our own eyes.—The Methodist ministers have done a good work, but let them beware lest they too become a mere body of Ecclesiastics.

"Is it the" Altar that sanctifieth the gift, or the gift the altar? It is folly to say that a pulpit is too pure and sanctified for a woman's fee', when men so often have defiled it. Away with such stuff, as beneath the dignity of man. If a woman can preach she has as much right to occupy her place, as one of the other sex.

Does your inspiration come from your own powers, or from the assistance given you by God? By answering you will confer a favor on a traveller.

COMMUNICATED.

The statement in Federalsburg items of March 29th, "That it was rumored here that the Preston people did not intend to receive the junior or any other preacher," was true as to the rumor—and if the Methodist is reported correctly he was one of the good people that said he did not want the junior preacher nor the senior either, and it was but natural to suppose that he, at least, had taken a high degree in piety. The balance of his epistle is intended to strike the Pastor of the Circuit and is in bad taste from a brother minister. He says "they feel under obligations from (to) those who are called of God, &c." Who are they that are called of God? "Methodist" for one, and—well he knows. I am not a judge in such matters. "Having suffered for want of attention." What kind of attention? Sometimes people suffer for want of attention to their own business and meddling with other peoples.—"The friends of the Church and cause of Christ are hoping, trusting and praying." Now all this is good enough if performed in the right spirit—and the friends he refers to might add to the list of virtues named; another and important grace—that of giving their ability to sustain the Gospel among them and to relieve their new church from debt. If they will do that then those "dark clouds" will pass away and the sunshine of a good conscience will take the place of the spirit of grumbling and fault finding. Try it friends.

Notice.

The books belonging to the Denton Literary Association will be removed to the Court House again on Saturday next.—Meeting at half past 7 o'clock. Members who are in arears for dues will bear in mind the Rules of the Society, and not expect to have use of the Library until payment is made in advance.

Books can be returned to R. M. Tylor during the week by persons who cannot attend the regular meeting, but no member can have more than one book a week, as the exchange is attended with too much trouble to the Librarians.

By order of the Executive Board of Managers, the thanks of the Society are tendered Mr. and Mrs. Luther Gadd for their kindness in taking care of the Library during the Court session, showing thereby their willingness to assist even to a personal inconvenience. As our Association is in its infancy, and our determination is to increase our books as fast as our means will allow, it can readily be seen, that we have no money to pay rent or employ Librarian.

A strict account will be kept, and any book not returned in good order, and at the proper time will be looked after.

We have selected as judiciously as our limited means and knowledge extended, and if on perusal, any member shall see cause to censure any book as unfit for circulation, he or she can upon applying to the Association and stating grounds for objection, and substituting another less offensive in its place withdraw the same and consign it to oblivion; where many of the popular writings of the day are fast going.

In behalf of the Society,

R. M. TYLOR, Treas'r.

Fire at Milton, Del.

A fire occurred at Milton, Del., on Sunday night last, which destroyed Ponder's saw mill and the lime sheds adjacent to the mill, and a lot of cord wood belonging to Capt, J. C. Atkins. The granaries near by were saved.

N. B.—By instructions received from the Treasury Department, at the Clerk's office, all persons applying for a license of any kind (except marriage licenses, which are the same as heretofore,) will hereafter have to pay the fee of fifty cents for issuing the same making a total of sixty cents as stated above. Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous, and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.
