Thursday Morning July 5 1877.

The Editor's Hash.

—Wm. H. Cathell has been appointed Postmaster at Salisbury.

—An effort is being made to start a temperance paper at Wilmington.

—The Fourth was observed at Greensborough, Denton and Andersontown.

—The oat crop in this county is looking well and gives promise of a fine yield.

—The Maryland State Teachers Association will be in session at Easton next week.

—Whortleberries were offered in this market last week and were selling at eight cents per quart.

—Over twenty citizens of Cambridge are making a living and supporting their families by catching crabs.

—Steam threshers, with troops of hands are now busily engaged in this county threshing out the wheat crop.

—The Episcopal Church at Dover has a one thousand pound bell. This ought to wake up sleepy church members.

—Dr. M. A. Booth, formerly of this town, was one of the speakers at a large temperance meeting held at Wilmington last week.

—The B. S. Ford, the new iron steamer built at Wilmington for the Chester River route, is now running daily from Chester River to Baltimore.

—The new daily mail route from Easton to Federalsburg via Bethlehem and Preston, has been let to Mrs. Pritchett, near Bethlehem, for $497.

—The public school house at Gravely Branch, near Potter's Landing, will be erected in time to be occupied at the beginning of the next scholastic year.

—The Camp Meeting Association are to erect a tabernacle on the Rehoboth camp grounds to occupy the space around the platform. It is to be 40 by 60 feet.

—The fine rains of the past two weeks has advanced the corn crop rapidly and the prospect is good for a heavy yield. So far this has been the best crop season for years past.

—The Fourth coming this year on our regular press day, we go to press one day earlier this week than usual, that the employees in this office may enjoy the national holiday.

—P. J. Duffy, a building contractor left Middletown, Del., last week for parts unknown, with $250.00 obtained on a contract for building a store house for Robert A. Cochran. A woman it is said was also mixed up with the affair.

—The Janitor of the Court House at Dover one night last week closed the building, locked the doors and retired. The town Council was in session in the building and when they wished to retire they had to crawl out the window.

—The canning house at Marydel has been leased to a New York company, and they are now putting in three of the largest evaporators (Seymour's Patent), with a capacity of drying about six hundred baskets of peaches per day.

—A delicate complexion is best compared to a blooming rose; but when the countenance is disfigured with Blotches and Pimples, like weeds in a rose-bud, the sufferer should promptly use Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture, which quickly and effectually eradicates such unsightly evidences of impure blood.

—On Sunday last a young lady named Miss Scott near Canterbury, Del., was struck by an engine of a gravel train, and thrown some 30 feet way from the track. She remained unconscious for a few moements, but with the exception of a severe bruise on the side she was otherwise uninjured.

—The Republican Commissioners of Talbot county are Reformers in truth as well as in profession. They have just closed up the county levy and make the best showing of any county in the State.—The County tax is 50 cents on the $100—16 cents of this is for public schools and 34 cents for county expenses. The total for county school and State tax is 67½ cents.

—The "Baby's Best Friend" is the most appropriate title for Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. It is absolutely free from Opium, Morphia and other powerful agents, is perfectly safe and reliable under all circumstances and by allaying the usual Stomach and Bowel Disorders of Babyhood keeps the child from fretting and crying, so injurious to itself and annoying to all. Price 25 cents.

—The steamboat mania is not yet at its height. Two additional steamboats have already been placed upon Eastern Shore waters the present season and now we are about to have the third. Capt. Tyler of the steamer Mystic, a sidewheel steamer, is about to establish a route from Baltimore to Corsica Creek. The Creek is to be deepened so that this little steamer may reach the wharf at Centreville.

—The Baltimore Evening Bulletin contains a very sensible article on Eastern Shore trade and rail road interests, but we fear the great bulk of the trade is forever lost to Baltimore. More and more every year the trade of this Peninsula is tending to Philadelphia and New York, and the time is not very far distant, we think, when those cities will monopolize and draw to her great marts all the business interests of our people.

—The Crisfield Leader complains of the violation of the local option law at that place. We suspect the great difficulty arises from the fact of inefficient officers failing in their duties to enforce the law. No law will enforce itself and inefficient, worthless officers should be removed instanter and others not afraid to do their duty put in their places. We are having no trouble in this county. The law is backed up by a healthy moral sentiment.

—George Sparks, a son of the widow of Soloman Sparks, aged about 8 years, was killed by lightning in a harvest field near Fairlee, Kent county, one day last week. Two other boys were stunned at the same time, but not seriously injured.

—A writer in the Dover Sentinel gives a gloomy account of the peach crop. But when he states that the crop in this county is short he betrays his ignorance relative to his estimates for this county. An old peach grower told us a few days ago that the shipments on the Md. & Del. Railroad the present season will exceed those of the Delaware road from Dover to New Castle. And he said he stated what he knew to be facts. So there are some peaches in Caroline, Queen Anne's and Talbot.

—We are glad to see that the good people of our little neighboring State of Delaware are coming to their senses. The temperance question has taken a mighty hold upon their affections. If there is any people in our broad land that need a reform in the rum business it is the Delawarcans.—They do not drink because the beverage is cheap, or that the best of all drinks, (water,) is scarce, but for the mere love of the "critter." Now, that their eyes are being opened we hope they will not suffer their politicians to pull the wool over their eyes, bend their necks to the yoke and cause them to go blind for party, to the detriment of their dearest interests and the noblest instincts of manhood.

A Mysterious Character.

About two weeks ago a young man turned up in this place calling himself Dr. Ridgley Tilden, representing himself as the son of Dr. Wm. Tilden, formerly of Greensborough, in this county. His stay here was short and nothing transpired to attract particular attention or arouse suspicion, save that a few of our citizens, who professed to know him, had surmises of his past doings and hinted that he was not all right.

After his departure from this place he turned up in Baltimore. Last week he was arrested by the Ballimore authorities and held for the Criminal Court on the charge of stealing a coat belonging to Mr. Tyler, librarian of the Johns Hopkins University and is still held awaiting developments in reference to a ladies' watch and chain found in his possession, supposed to have been stolen in Washington city some time ago.

Arriving at Baltimore he took board at Lake Roland, Baltimore county, at which several well known Baltimore families are spending the summer. By his fine address and engaging manners he became quite a favorite, especially among the ladies. He is stated to have represented himself to be a rich Californian, spending the summer in the States for the benefit of his health, which is really in a very precarious state. He pretended to be a relative of Colonel Coleman, of the Carrollton Hotel, and said his name was Coleman.

He said he had a carriage and pair in Baltimore, and a pleasure yacht, which he proposed to place on Lake Roland for his own recreation and for the accommodation of his lady friends at the Lake. Suspicions however were aroused as to the genuiness of his pretensions, and as there was evidence of tampering with the room doors in the house during his stay, which was brief, and the stolen coat being missing from Mr. Tyler's room, it was concluded that he was an impostor. He paid his bill, however, and left before the suspicions against him were strong enough to induce measures for his arrest.

After leaving Lake Roland he took passage on the steamer Kent for the Eastern Shore, visiting Greensborough, Cambridge, Denton, and probably other places in Talbot and Caroline counties, where he is said to have many relatives among the most highly respectable families of this section. On the Eastern Shore he represented himself to be Dr. Ridgely Tilden, son of Wm. Tilden, who lived at Greensboro,' but who removed to California thirty years ago, and who had a son named Ridgely. He was thoroughly conversant with the history of the Tilden family and their connections, and his claims to be the person he represented himself to be were not for a moment doubted by his Eastern Shore relatives.

On last Friday week he drove into Denton in a buggy, and stopped at the hotel kept by Mr. Baggs, whom he claimed was his relative, and who is really so by marriage, if he is Ridgely Tilden. While in Cambridge, he visited Dr. Williams, also an uncle, and others of his relatives. He remained at the hotel, and upon leaving by the steamer Kent for Baltimore, paid his bill. Mr. Baggs stated that he displayed plenty of cash at the time.

A well known Baltimore gentleman was at the hotel in this place, made his acquaintance, went up on the Kent with him as did also a brother of Mr. Baggs, who lives in Baltimore, The latter took him to his house to board, Tilden representing that as his health was bad he would be glad to do so in preference to staying at a hotel, where he could not rest on account of the noise. He remained at Mr. Baggs' house until he was arrested in company with a gentleman who had taken pains to introduce him among his friends and who occupies a high social position.

Since Tilden's arrest the police have been active in making inquiries respecting him. Some papers were found on his person, among which is a letter written by him, no doubt, upon a letter-head of a business firm, addressed to A. W. Landis, and signed G. G. Davis, making allusion to a transaction involving a thousand dollars. The police believe that the watch found is stolen, as it answers the description of one inquired for of the police. It is a gold hunting-case watch, with the inscription "From Geo. Seymour to his sister Francis." Attached to it is a very long chain, such as is worn by ladies. It is said to have been stolen from a Washington city hotel, together with $62 in money.

The question to be solved is whether this is Ridgely Tilden, son of Dr. Wm. Tilden, or is it Samuel Tilden, a son of Dr. Chas. Tilden. There was four brothers, all of whom were physicians, sons of Dr. Wm. Tilden, born and reared at Greensborough in this county. Dr. Wm. Tilden, the grandfather of Ridgely or Samuel, whichever it may prove to be, died at Greensborough about the year 1834. He was a practicing physician, stood high in his profession, and was an honorable and upright citizen.

If this is Samuel Tilden he has a history that is interesting for one so young. At the death of Charles Tilden, Samuel, then a boy, was taken by his uncle, Thos. Tilden, who tried to make a man of him, but failed, for Samuel disgraced the Tilden name by exploits that got him into Sing Sing penitentiary, New York, where he remained five years, and was released at much expense and trouble by the family. Ridgly says he is a first cousin of Samuel, which would be true, if he is really Ridgely, and that he paid $7,000 to get Samuel out of prison.

Since his arrest he has made some very remarkable statements in reference to his career, representing himself as being very wealthy. He says that some years ago his health failed and he was obliged to relinquish the practice of medicine. He then invested his means in a large ranche in California and went into cattle raising on a large scale. On the 18th of May last, he says, he shipped nine hundred head of cattle from his California ranche to New York, where he sold them at a net profit of $27,000. He claims to have been largely interested in the Bank of California and to have been a looser by the death and failure of Ralston to the extent of $32,000.

On Friday last the same individual was committed for a second offense, charged with stealing a set of shirt studs valued at $8, the property of Mr. J. J. Hoskins of Baltimore.

Many persons believe Tilden to be insane but the general impression is that he is a first class confidence swindler. His education, fine address and general knowledge of the world acquired by association with the best society and travel would enable him to operate with facility. If he is Ridgely Tilden, as he represents, he is about 32 years of age. If he is Samuel Tilden, he is about 27 years old.

Calling A Halt.

Reader, have you ever heard the quick stern military command, halt? If you have, did you ever study what bearing the command had upon yourself. Now don't imagine that it has nothing to do with you, for it has. Things seemingly insignificant in themselves can and do teach important lessons if we would only learn. How many men—aye, and women too, would to day have been useful members of society, if they had obeyed conscience when it bid them halt? How many, both young and old, had they obeyed the word of command when outraged nature told them that to steep the senses in an oblivian of rum would lead them down to the grave, blear eyed drunken sots had they halted when the word was given they to-day would be alive. Look around you and see the old grey headed palsy stricken men, standing on the very brink of the grave, grasping after the mighty dollar is their god, their all, soul and body. Life here is concentrated in hoarding up that which will be a world of torment hereafter. Had that man halted in the flush of youth or early manhood, when the first dream of cent per cent began to dawn upon his mind, he would not now be the hoary-headed miser that he is. Does anger rise within you, crush it as you would a serpent, it is a silent devil which oft-times leads to a life of woe. It is a hard master to fight, nursed and born of generations, wilfull and perverse in the extreme, but oh! call a halt on your temper. It will take prayerful, careful watching, but it will finally obey the word of command.—Have you more of this worlds goods than your fellow, then don't squander it in idle dissipation. It is a mistaken notion of liberality; the course will lead you to want, perhaps ruin. It is yours to use but not abuse. You are the steward and will be held accountable for the use or abuse of every gift you have. Be liberal but let well digested reason rule your judgment, and ere it be ... call a stern halt on your illiberal prodigality. Are you fond of making money, beware of the ditch that lays across your track. Honest industry and frugality is well in the sight of the Divine Architect, but when you pander to the appetite of gain for the sole sake of gain, Hell becomes sure of one more victim, and before the passion takes utter possession of you, you had better call a halt.—Are you fond of the pleasure of dress, of vain show, or any of the vanities of life—do you feel as if you were going to overleap the bounds of rectitude, then it is time to call a halt—to put the column in new order—take in a fresh supply of amunition to fight against the enemy and then forward march.

A SURE RESULT.—This is the too probable end of all idle young men who wait for their father's money:

In Brooklyn, N. Y., a man by the name of Golden died three years ago, leaving his two sons over sixty thousand dollars.—They both began a life of the wildest dissipation, and a year ago a wretched, drunken beggar, covered with rags, fell down a cellar, while in a state of intoxication, and broke his neck. This was the oldest son. Last week the other son, reduced to the most abject misery and rags, was found dead in the gutter.

Found dead and alone
In the roofless street
On his pillow of stone.

If the fellows would play,
For once in a way,
Some sort of a tune, there'd be nothing to say;
But this toot-a-too-tooting, and bleating and blasting,
This raising a horrible din everlasting,
This "making night hideous" and daylight hideouser,
Is getting, we must say, tedious and tedidouser.
It's rayther too prevalent in this 'ere community,
And shouldn't be carried on thus with impunity.

A CURE FOR SMALL POX.—"I am willing to risk my reputation as a public man," wrote Edward Hine to the Liverpool Mercury, "if the worst case of small-pox can not be cured in three days, simply by the use of cream of tartar. One ounce of cream of tartar dissolved in a pint of water, drink at intervals, when cold, is a certain, never-failing remedy. It has cured thousands, never leaves a mark, never causes blindness, and avoids tedious lingering."

Marriages.

Murder Will Out.

A few years ago "August Flower" was discovered to be a certain cure for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, a few thin Dyspeptics made known to their friends how easily and quickly they had been cured by its use. The great merits of GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER became heralded through the country by one sufferer to another, until, without advertising, its sale has become immense. Druggists in EVERY TOWN in the United States are selling it. No person suffering with Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Costiveness, palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, low spirits, etc., can take three doses without relief. Go to your Druggist, Dr. Fisher, Chas. Stevens Denton, and J. H. Douglass, Preston, and get a bottle for 75 cents and try it. Sample bottles 10 cents.

How it is Done.

The first object in life with the American people is to "get rich"; the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health.) by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Indigestion, &c., such as Sick Headache, palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, &c., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of August Flower will relieve you at once. Sample bottle 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. Positively sold by all first-class Druggists in the U. S. Sold by Dr. Fisher and Chas. Stevens, Denton, and by J. H. Douglass, Preston.

DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS.—If this axiom is true respecting the ordinary affairs of life, still more obviously so as regards the exigencies of approaching disease. Unquestionably! Yet how many neglect to practically recognize this plain truth when health is in the balance. Of the many premonitory symptoms of disease a hacking cough is the most prophetic of peril. Arrest it at the outset with Dr. WISHART'S PINE TREE CORDIAL, and so avoid Consumption, Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Coughs, Colds, and, indeed, all Affections of the Respiratory Organs are entirely cured by this sovereign remedy, which also eradicates Dyspepsia, Gravel, Piles, Nervous Debility, Torpidity of the Liver, Urinary Difficulties, Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart, Scrofulous Affections, and the infirmities peculiar to the gentler sex. This Cordial derives its virtues from the vegetable kingdom, and is infinitely to be preferred, both on account of its superior efficacy and freedom from nauseous and injurious properties to the officinal drugs so often administered with no other effect than to offend the palate and disorder the stomach. The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL can always be relied on to do what is claimed for it. Sold by all druggists. Principal Depot No. 916 Filbert St., Philadelphia.

Spring & Summer Trade of 1876.

THE DRY GOODS DEPARTMENT will be complete in every respect and will embrace all the Latest Styles of

LADIES' AND GENTLEMENS' FINE DRESS GOODS,

Black Silks, Colored Silks, Colored Alpacas,
Notions, Shawls, Cloths,
Cassimers, &c., &c.

These Goods having been purchased for CASH we are enabled to offer them at a small advance and we would inform our friends and the public generally that no Store in Easton will offer Goods lower than we will, and it will be to the advantage of all to examine our Stock before purchasing elsewhere.
