Be it now Remembered at this Day Issued the 21st Day of May Anno Domi 1726 The said William Smith by Joshua George his Attorney Comes into this Dorchester Provincial Court here and saith that in the Record and process aforesaid as also in rendering the Judgment aforesaid it doth manifestly Erred Especially in this for that the Justices aforesaid gave Judgment for the said John Swansgard without his having filed any Count of his having taken the Clients Oath Contrary to the Laws of the Land whereas Judgment should be given against the said John for the said William Wherefore and for divers Other Errors in the Record and process aforesaid the said William prays that the Judgment aforesaid may be reversed Nullified and made Void And that he be at all which by Occasion of the Judgment aforesaid hath lost may be restored and that the said John to the Errors aforesaid may rejoyne And that the Court here proceed to the Examination as well of the Record and process aforesaid as to the Matter aforesaid assigned for Error

And the said John Swansgard by William Rockingham & Edmund Jennings his Attorneys appears & Says that in the Record & process aforesaid And also in rendering Judgment therein it doth nothing Err & prays that the same Judgment may in all things be affirmed &c

And thereupon as well the said William Smith by his Attorney aforesaid as the said John Swansgard by his Attorney aforesaid prays that the Court here of the Lord Propry will proceed as well to the Examination of the Record and process aforesaid as of the Matters above for Error assigned &c ~~But~~ for that the Court here are not advised of their Judgment of and upon the premisses aforesaid Day is Given to the said Parties to hear Record of their Judgment until next Court for that the said yet are not &c

And which said next Court Viz. the 15th Day of October Anno Domi 1728 Comes again the said Parties plaintiff & Defendant by their Attorneys (aforesaid) aforesaid But for that the Court here are not advised of their Judgment of & upon the premisses aforesaid Day is further Given to the Parties aforesaid to hear Record of their Judgment until next Court for that the said Court yet are not &c

And which said next Court Viz. the 20th Day of May Anno Domi 1729 Comes again as well the said William Smith by his Attorney aforesaid as the said John Swansgard by his Attorney aforesaid whereupon all and singular the premisses being by the Court here seen heard fully understood & mature Deliberation thereupon had for that it Seems to the Court here that in the Record and process aforesaid And also in rendering Judgment therein it doth nothing Err

Therefore it is considered by the said Court that the Judgment aforesaid be in all things affirmed & stand in its full force & effect & further it is considered that the said John Swansgard recover against the said William Smith the Sum of

560 Pounds of Tobacco by the Court here adjudged unto him According to the form of the Statute thereof Published & Provided for his Costs and Charges & his Damages which he hath sustained by Occasion of Delay of the Execution of the Judgment aforesaid hitherto that he have Therefore of the Execution against the said William Smith
