Record and process aforesd, as of the matters aforesd, for errors assigned — But for the sd Court here are not advised of their judgment of and upon the premisses aforesd, Day thereof is given to the said Parties to hear their judgment untill next Court for that said Court are not as yet ready &c —

At which said next Court to wit the 15th Day of October Anno Domi 1726 Comes again the said Parties Plaintiff and Defendant by their Attorneys aforesd, for that the said Court here are not advised of the judgment of and upon the premisses aforesd. Day is further given to the said Parties to hear their judgment untill next Court for that the said Court yet are not ready &c — —

At which said next Court to wit the 20th Day of May Anno Domi 1729 Comes again as well the said Nicholas Bockwith sued by his Attorney aforesd, as well the said Thomas Dixon & Elizabeth his wife by their Attorney aforesd, whereupon all and singular the premisses being by the Court heard fully understood & mature Deliberation thereupon had for that it seems to the Court here that in the record & process aforesd, and also in rendering judgment thereon, it is nothing said —

Therefore it is Considered by the Justices here the 20th Day of May Anno Domi 1729 that the Judgment aforesd, be in all things Affirmed & Stand in its full force & effect — And further it is Considered that the said Thomas Dixon and Elizabeth his wife Recover against the said Nicholas Bockwith who &c the Sum of

4253 — Pounds of Tob°, by the Court here Adjudged in Action according to the form of the Statute thereof Lately published & provided for their Costs & Charges & their Damages which they have sustained by Occasion of Delay of the Execution aforesd, by prosecution of his said Landships writ of Error, And that the said Thomas Dixon & Elizabeth his wife have thereof Execution
