American Union

Thursday Morning August 30 1877.

THE Orphans' Court of Caroline county will meet on Tuesday 28th of August, 1877.

The Editor's Hash.

—Our farmers are now pretty generally engaged in fodder saving.

—After to-morrow the harvest will be past and the summer ended.

—A six weeks old calf was slaughtered at Elkton last week that weighed 266 pounds.

—Protracted meetings are in progress in both the Methodist churches at Burrsville in this county.

—Mrs. Catharine Hubbard, at Harmony, has greatly improved her residence by a thorough repair.

—Mr. Nathaniel Horsey and Mr. Saml. M. Carter, at Greensborough, each lost a valuable horse last week.

—Denton jail is again to let. It is now without a single occupant, except our very clever sheriff and his family.

—The colored camp, which has been in progress at Hainesville for more than a week past, closed on Monday last.

—Col. R. C. Carter is spoken of in connection with the Democratic nomination of State Senator from this county.

—Mr. J. T. Sangston, at Greensborough, lost his fruit drying establishment by fire one day last week. His loss is supposed to be $700.

—Thistles require radical treatment to remove them, and so do Boils and Pimples. Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture is a radical blood scarcher, curing all skin eruptions.

—Beniah Fleming, of Harrington, don't care much for the temperance cause; he owns and runs a fruit distillery by which he makes about three barrels of brandy a day.

—The corner stone of a new church of the Bethel African M. E. congregation at Easton was laid on Sunday last, Rev. J. A. Handy, of Baltimore, conducting the exercises.

—Suffering will exhibit its presence by the cries of the baby, and should be removed by the prompt use of that highly recommended remedy—Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. It is free from Morphia. Price 25 cents.

—White & Dunning's canning factory, at Denton Bridge, presents a business like aspect and reminds the visitor of a busy hive of bees. They have employed near two hundred hands and are putting up about 50,000 cans of peaches and tomatoes per week.

—The Sunday School Committe, appointed by the Quarterly Conference of the M. E. Church for Denton Circuit, will visit the Sabbath School at Union Grove Church, on Sunday morning, 9th of September next. They will also visit Sheppard's Chapel on Sunday morning next.

—We have received the first number of a new paper published at Seaford, Del., entitled the Sussex County Index, published by T. N. Williams and J. Bascom Clark. The first number is tastefully gotten up and gives evidence of editorial talent and ability. We hope they will receive abundant success in their new enterprise.

—On the public road leading from Felton, Del., to Greensborough, Md., at a place called Hollandsville, the citizens of that neighborhood have a place of religious worship known as the Free Gospel Church built and sustained by a gentleman named Hinson Melvin and the Free Gospel is dispensed by Reverends Nathan Melvin and Levi Scott.

—Mr. Wm. Straughn, heretofore the principal of Henderson school, in the first district, has been employed by the trustees of the public school at Still Pond, Kent county, Md., for the ensuing scholastic year. We learn that the reduction of teachers salaries in this county has caused several of our best teachers to seek positions in other counties where more liberal salaries are paid.

—At Cambridge, Dorchester county, on Tuesday of last week, Eugene S. Bradshaw attempted to commit suicide by taking two thirds of an ounce of laudnum. The attempt was quickly discovered; medical aid was summoned and the man's life was saved. He is a deputy clerk in the office of Francis J. Henry, Clerk of the Circuit Court, and mental depression is the cause assigned for his attempt to take his life.

—On Wednesday morning the authorites of the P. W. & B. Railroad visited Centreville, Md., in a special car, when the formal transfer of the Queen Anne's & Kent Railroad was made to the P. W. & B. Road. A majority of the old Directors resigning, the following gentlemen were elected in their places: Directors, Jacob Tome, E. Larkin, Thomas Donilson, Wm. Crawford; Treasurer, William Crawford; Assistant Treasurer, Robert Cravan.

—Disease, like rivers, have small beginnings; the rushing torrent cannot be easily diverted from its course, nor can the neglected disease from its dangerous work.—But taken in time, Disease, which is but a prevented or interrupted function, may be averted by the use of Keller's Vegetable Life Drops, a remedy combining every quality required for the successful treatment of Liver and Blood Diseases, Constipation, Dyspepsia, Female Complaints, etc.

—The large amounts of money invested in this State from time to time, in the militia organizations, might as well have been cast into the Chesapeake, so far as good has resulted to our people. To the million dollars which have been uselessly thrown away since the organization of Mr. Swann's militia system, we have added by the recent labor riots for the supposed services of the State militia, about one hundred thousand dollars more. It is time the tax payers had called a halt and put a check to such useless extravagance.

An Attempted Swindle.

On or about the 24th of July last, the commission house of W. N. Calvert & Co., Baltimore, forwarded a check to Mr. Robert W. Anthony, residing three miles east of this place, for $287 11, directed to his address at this place. By some means, not yet ascertained, the letter with check enclosed, fell into other hands. Some time elapsed, and Mr. Anthony failing to receive the expected check, wrote to his commission merchants about the matter, and received a reply, stating the check had been forwarded some time ago. This aroused the suspicions of Mr. A., who immediately investigated the matter, and upon inquiry at the Easton National Bank found the check, endorsed by R. W. Anthony and T. C. Nichols. The name of Mr. Anthony was a base forgery, as he had never seen the check.

Mr. Nicols came in possession of the check through the mail. The attempted swindler had written to Mr. Nicols, enclosed the check, signed the name of Rob't W. Anthony to the check and letter, ordering several agricultural implements, stating that he was very busy machining; to keep the articles ordered on hand until called for, and send balance of amount of check in money securely sealed in an envelope to Hillsborough, directed to R. W. Anthony. Mr. Nicols instead of forwarding money as directed, forwarded by express to Hillsborough, at the same time addressing a postal card to the writer informing him of what he had done. Neither the money or the postal card was ever called for, and one day last week Mr. Anthony received the money, and the attempted swindler did not get the funds.

An effort has been made to ferret out the perpetrator of this infamous act, but the rascal so completely covered up his tracks that no traces are left by which to detect him. Nor can any information be obtained how he came in possession of the check.

This is one of the most daring attempts at swindling ever attempted in this community, and the matter should be probed to the bottom, and the offender made to suffer the severest penalty of the law.

Sunday School Picnic.

A very pleasant Sunday School picnic came off in the grove near Harris' Chapel, in Tuckahoe Neck, on Thursday afternoon and evening last. It was gotten up by the Superintendent, Mr. Warren, and the officers and teachers of the M. E. Sunday School at Harris' Chapel. The attendance was principally from the surrounding neighborhood and quite respectable as to numbers. The exercises consisted of speeches, recitations and vocal and instrumental music. The children acquitted themselves handsomely, the singing was excellent, and the music by the organ and Denton Cornet Band was rendered in fine style.

The ladies of the Neck were on hand with all the necessary essentials to satisfy the cravings of the most fastidious epicure. In addition to fowl and solia meats were added buiscuit, rolls, butter, prepared in the best manner, sweet, fresh and wholesome; ice cream, cake, fruits, plump, ripe, fresh, and delicious to the taste. These were supplied by fair hands, in the most profuse manner, until the wants of all were fully satisfied. The ladies having charge of the culinary department seemed to vie with each other in their polite attention to the wants of those partaking of their bountiful generosity. It was truly a social gathering where kindred spirits met and the sweetest fellowship joined friend to friend in closer ties of Christian union. We would that more of this kindly feeling pervaded every community.

Mr. Warren, the Superintendent of the School, is deserving much credit for his patient efforts in the Sabbath School work at this place, and he should be sustained and encouraged in this laudable undertaking by that entire community.

County Politics.

The Democrats hold their primaries on Saturday next and the political tide has began to move. As may be seen by a notice in another column there is a ripple upon the surface and dissatisfaction wide and deep prevails amongst the best and most prominent men of both parties. The outlook presented gives evidence of the abandonment of party lines, for the present at least, until gross wrongs are corrected and the people are freed from the shackels of party slavery. The coming two weeks promises to develop matters of uncommon interests to the tax payers of the county, and if the opposition should present a ticket composed of the best men, the contest will be spirited, fierce and powerful. But the late hour at which we received the notice for publication, prevents further comments this week.

The friends of Mr. John W. Voss, residing near Wesley Chapel, in this county, an old and highly esteemed citizen, now in his 77th year, will be pained to learn of his present sore affliction. He is suffering with a large sized wart cancer, just under the left eye, which commenced growing sometime in December last, and although at one time about the size of a goose egg, has by external applications, been somewhat reduced recently. It has closed up the left eye entirely and has become somewhat painful. We visited him on Sunday last and was glad to find him so cheerful and contented in the midst of his sore affliction.

The hail storm of Tuesday week, which passed over a portion of Queen Anne's county, near Hillsborough, well nigh destroyed the growing crops and all vegitation in its track. The corn field of Mr. Tate Barton, as well as others in the immediate neighborhood, were litterally torn to pieces. The crop of fodder was entirely destroyed and the corn crop so seriously injured that not more than a half crop will be harvested. On the same day a hail storm visited the neighborhood of Concord, in this county, and done considerable damage to the crop of fodder in that section.

Meeting of Republican County Cen. Com.

DENTON, MD., AUG. 28th, 1877.

At a meeting of the Republican County Central Committee held this day, Bennett Todd was re-elected Chairman and Chas. A. Dunning, Secretary.

On motion the following resolution was adopted:

Whereas—The reckless and extravagant mismanagement of the affairs of our County and State, whereby serious evils and grevious burthens have been imposed upon the people, and particularly the taxpayers, makes it the duty of all good citizens to set aside party ties and feelings, and to unite for the purpose of removing from power those who have for selfish purposes, grossly abused their trust, therefore,

Resolved, That this Committee recommend to the Republicans of Caroline county, that they forego the making of party nominations of candidates to be voted for at the ensuing election; and that they cordially unite and earnestly co-operate with good men of all parties in the nomination and support of men who will remedy the evils under which we labor.

On motion adjourned.

CHAS. A. DUNNING, Sec'y.

For the Union.

Come Let us Reason Together.

[We give place to the following from a Democrat advising peace to the discordant elements of this county.]

After waiting long and patiently for years, trusting the clouds in which we find ourselves enveloped would disperse, and Democracy, as in the past, would decend upon all alike, we have grown weary—not of Democracy—but of the manner in which our party and friends have been outraged and persecuted.

As the county nominating convention assembles Sept. 4th, for the purpose of making a county ticket, and feeling confident, only the favored ones, as in the past, will have any consideration shown them, and one nominated as State Senator contrary to the wishes of a majority of our party, we think it time to reason together and avert the sad calamity that threatens to befall us.

On September 4th, the delegates, 35 in number, from all the districts in the county meet, whose duty it will be to make a county ticket. Twenty-one of the thirty-five, a majority of the convention, will represent three districts of our county, whose voters only exceed the third district two hundred and forty votes. Yet these three districts are controlled by men who fix and arrange the primaries and whose obligations in consideration of favors bestowed, permit only those to represent them in county convention who are only to advocate certain candidates.

We think the principle a ruinous one, and will ere long plunge democracy into oblivion. Do we not need a man upon whom we can rely for the success of our party in the coming campaign. Give us a man that our party will at once cling to, and we will find Democrats rallying to the rescue of principles, fondly cherished and democracy victorious in the end. Cannot one object to the present manner in which nominations are made and be a democrat? Is one man to have always the honor bestowed upon him, "repudiating and ignoring the claims of other good men who have been equally faithful to the party? Come friends let us "reason long and well together," and let discretion and justice prompt every member of the convention. Give us the man the people want. We have an important duty before us,—a duty in the proper performance of which will bring to our people the consciousness of advocating principles in which there is justice, and will in the end bring taxes lessened, harmony, and good-will to man.

PEACE.

Greensborough Letter.

GREENSBORO', AUG. 28th, 1877.

On Tuesday of last week, the drying house owned by Mr. John T. Sangston, with a lot of cured and uncured fruit, and the east wing of the old tannery building, was destroyed by fire, and only by skillful management, the main building was saved. Loss about $700

One of the pair of ponies, which came from the Sardinia Islands, and owned by Mrs. M. E. Bourne, died at the Plains on Sunday last, from a wound in the neck.—This pony was about 25 years of age, and had been of much service to Mr. Rice, Mrs. Bourne's nephew, when a boy, and who now resides in Boston. This pony was noted for its strength, style and beauty.

Work on Mr. Frank Moore's residence is being pushed forward rapidly by the contractor, Mr. Robt. E. Wilson. The house is beginning to present a very neat appearance, and will greatly add to the beauty of Front Street.

The prospect of a large crop of corn was never better in this community than at the present season. The season, so far, has been an extraordinary one; although dry at this time, generally it has been very seasonable and the promise of a good yield is the reward of the tiller of the soil.—What if money be scarce, and trade dull; if the farmers harvest large crops, times must improve, trade will take a new start, and the sails of commerce must be set.

OBSERVER.

THE PLACE WHERE THE SUN JUMPS A DAY.—Chatham Island, lying off the coast of New Zealand, in the South Pacific Ocean, is peculiarly situated, as it is one of the few inhabitable points of the globe where the day of the week changes. It is just on the line of demarkation between dates. There high twelve on Sunday noon, ceases, and instantly Monday meridian begins. Sunday comes into a man's house on the east side, and becomes Monday by the time it passes out of the western door. A man sits down to his noonday dinner on Sunday and it is Monday noon before he finishes it. There Saturday is Sunday and Sunday is Monday, and Monday becomes suddenly transferred into Tuesday.—Forest and Stream.

The schooner Dart, owned by Mr. B. G. Stevens, will deliver fertilizers at any of the wharves on the Choptank, at 75 cts.

To the Public.

IN looking over the "Union" of July 26th, I find a notice forwarning all persons from paying any money due the firm of T. D. Case & Co., to myself. Feeling aggrieved, or that great injustice has been done me by this publication, I herewith transmit the facts, as the public may understand my position.—Some time in the year 1875, T. D. Case, J. B. Draper, J. T. Sangston and myself entered into a copartnership to transact the boating business, and at their request, I did take charge of the books of said firm, (T. D. Case & Co.) When this firm was dissolved, I proceeded to collect the bills and liquidate the debts of said firm, and applied out of my individual funds, seven hundred and fifty dollars, to assist in same, which amount is still due me. T. D. Case overdrew his account three hundred and two dollars and ten cents. After finding he could get no more of said funds he caused this notice, through malice, to appear, I conjecture, to injure me. As far as the old firm of Case & West is concerned, I will state that T. D. Case, some time ago, applied for the benefit of the Bankrupt law, and I as the only partner left, presume I have the privilege to close up the same, which I shall proceed to do in case of both the firms referred to.
