DENTON, MARYLAND:

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 11, 1877.

PEOPLE'S TICKET.

FOR THE STATE SENATE,

THOS. F. GAREY.

FOR THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

JAMES MASSEY,
CHAS. H. TODD.

FOR SHERIFF,

JONATHAN EVITTS.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONERS,

WILLIAM H. CASHO,
SAULSBURY HOBBS,
JAMES H. HOLMES,

FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR,

CAPT. J. B. ISLER.

A Grand Rally of the People.

We have been requested to announce that there will be a grand Mass Convention of the friends of the People's Ticket, without regard to party, held at the Court House in Denton on Saturday November 3d—the last Saturday before the election. Eminent speakers from abroad will be present and address the people. One if not two Brass Bands, will furnish music for the occasion. This will be the last grand rally of the campaign and everybody is invited to come out and hear the naked truth about the Ring which dominates over freedom. When the arrangements are completed general notice of the meetings will be given. Meetings will be held in all the districts of the county as soon as arrangements can be made and due notice given of time and place by advertisement and handbills.

Keep it Before the People,

That Senator Fields upholds and defends the Fish Commission and therefore favors the law creating it.

Keep it before the people, That Senator Fields voted for the Board of Review, and in his speech justified the law, by which the tax-payers of Maryland were compelled to pay an extra tax of $80,000 to useless officers.

Keep it before the people, That this Board of Review cost the people of Caroline county about $1,800 which is an additional burden upon the tax-payers without an equivalent in return, and that Mr. Fields recommended the appointment of such men to compose the Board as a reward for political services.

Keep it before the people, That Mr. Fields has held the office of Senator from this county for three successive terms and proposes to succeed himself for the fourth term, thereby ignoring the claims of other good men who are honest, fit and capable of filling the office of Senator.

Keep it before the people, That Mr. Fields during a residence of 24 years in our county has held the office of Senator for ten consecutive years, and is now a candidate for another four years term.

Keep it before the people, That during his Senatorial terms he has almost invariably voted and acted with the Ring in creating new offices—to increase taxation—for large appropriations and to reward personal political friends who favor his continuation in power.

Keep it before the people, That Senator Fields uses and controls the three smallest election districts in the county to secure a nomination, without regard to the representative principles, and is therefore the nominee of the minority of the voters of the county.

Keep it before the people, That Senator Fields is not the choice of the representative Democrats of this county, and his own friends who vote for him do so reluctantly, knowing him to have forced himself upon them, and with them it is now to swallow the whale or the whale will swallow them.

Keep it before the people, That Daniel Fields is a standing candidate for life for the office of Senator from this county, and that no good Democrat need apply in the future.

Keep it before the people, That when Senator Fields is called to pass in his last checks, and before departing, there are three men in Caroline upon whose shoulders he proposes to spread his mantle and initiate them into all the mysteries of the Ring, so that their title to succession shall be clear and indisputable.

Keep it before the people, From now until the 6th of November, that Senator Fields boasts of carrying the stocks of the political market in his breeches pocket.

Keep it before the people, That Senator Fields knows how to do it—when to do it—where to do it—who did it—and that after the election will do it—send to that hot place we have heard of, every Democrat who dares oppose his mandate by voting for Mr. Garey in opposition to his Serene Highness and Most Noble majesty, Daniel Fields.

SENATOR MORTON is constantly anxious to hear the latest news, seeming deeply interested, it is said, in nearly everything in the newspapers except base ball items. He listened intently to the reading of Senator Conkling's speech. He is determined to see everything which the newspapers say about himself. He likes to see callers, and questions them as to their opinions regarding his condition. He lies in a reclining chair, and takes only beaf tea, chicken broth and grapes.

THE Indianapolis Journal says that General Manson, Chairman of the Indiana Democratic State Committee, sent his sympathetic regards by Senator McDonald to Senator Morton, coupled with the fervent hope of his recovery, and that Mr. Morton returned a kind personal greeting to the thoughtful and considerate General.

MR. THOS. F. GAREY, the candidate on the People's ticket for State Senator from this county, is a gentleman who in early life commenced the world a poor boy, and by dint of energy and close application to business, has fought his way up into the world, and is now the largest landowner residing in this county.

In 1850 he was the Democratic nominee for the office of Clerk of the Circuit Court for this county, when party lines were closely drawn and the Whig and Democratic parties were evenly balanced. Notwithstanding his competitor was a gentleman of great popularity, having a large number of influential personal and party friends, Mr. Garey succeeded in this contest and was elected over his opponent by about 50 majority. He held this position for six years and made a good and efficient officer. After retiring from office he engaged for a short time in the mercantile business, but retired from this to engage in milling and farming operations. By his own efforts and the management of his affairs he has accumulated considerable property, and if not the wealthiest, is at least amongst the wealthiest men in our county. He is the largest resident taxpayer in the county, and having large and important interests at stake, no one can be surprised that he should favor the strictest retrenchment in our county and State affairs, or that he should be willing to sacrifice party interests to put a check to the wild, run-mad policy of the Ring politicians, who are eating out the substance of the people by a reckless and wasteful extravagance of the public moneys.

Mr. Garey having thus without capital, and relying upon his own efforts, laid the foundation for his own success, and in later years having accomplished it, is a fit representative of the interests of our people. A gentleman who manages his own financial affairs successfully is worthy of being trusted with important public interests.

He has acted with the Democratic party all his life, and though he has been firm in his convictions and unwavering in his political faith, he has not been one of those vindictive Democrats who breathes threatenings of "blood and thunder" to every one who may entertain views in opposition to those he has espoused. He may properly be termed a progressive Democrat, and because of some of these opinions openly expressed, he has at times incurred the displeasure of some of those dyed-in-the-wool Democrats, who can see nothing but party, and in whose minds the green-eyed monster of prejudice warps and sways their judgment. Of all classes of politicians to be detested, we think this snapping turtle kind, who shut their eyes and go it blind, are the meanest. They are a festering sore in the body politic, and deserve the contempt of all honorable men. They are the kind who would sacrifice every business and all other interests for the success of party. Such is the Ring politics in this State, but we are glad to know that Mr. Garey, nor those associated with him on the People's ticket, are not of this class. We believe they are honest men, and mean to do right, regardless of the clamors of dirt-eating politicians.

Tax payers—moneyed men—discreet and sensible men of all parties—you have been complaining of heavy taxation—of Ring rule and exaction. You cannot be blind to the fact that only a favored few can obtain a nomination in your county, and that the old staid resident must remain in the back ground, and those only who bask in the sunshine of Senatorial favor can come to the front. You see these facts—they are before your eyes—clear as the sunlight. Are you willing longer to be the servile slaves of a few who rule neither by might nor right—but because of your blind party zeal—a few, who if they discover you are about to assert your manhood, apply the party lash and the sharp shrill crack of the party whip drives you again, like sheep, into their fold?

The people of the county now have the opportunity of throwing off the shackles of this political junto and of controlling their own affairs. Will you do it? That is the question. Let your ballots quietly deposited on the 6th of November, be a warning forever hereafter to Ring rule in this county.

THE Ring Democrats of this county are making large calculations on the Republican vote for success in their present forlorn condition. What right they have to expect the support of any Republican to lift them again into power, no sane mind can discover. In the past they have never received a kind word from the Ring, or been treated with the least consideration of mercy. Violent, bitter and unrelenting political proscription and persecution has been poured upon the heads of every prominent Republican in the State, and the most vulgar epithets used to abuse and vilify them. If there is any manhood left in them, they will certainly spurn their fawning upon them now that they are attempting to perpetuate their power. They will not, spaniel like, lick the hand that would smite them. It is the Ring Democracy that fans the flames of the war feud and keeps alive the old dead issues of the past. The great mass of the Democracy mean right, and we believe would do right if they could escape the grasp of the Ring power which leads and controls party interests. But the leaders are corrupt, and by means of corruption, govern and control party caucuses and conventions. And now, even amid their dying agonies, they propose to use the Republicans of this county as "cats paws" to continue them in power, when the best Democrats in our own midst, refuse to give them their support or longer tolerate their domination and almost absolute control of party affairs. We trust there are no Republicans for sale, and none so weak as to be caught with the chaff thrown out from the broad Fields of Caroline.

WHAT has Senator Fields to say about the public printing bills of the Ring newspapers of this State which costs the people of Maryland at every session of the Legislature $48,000? Will he dare deny these figures or attempt an explanation? If he attempts it we will produce the proof.

Correspondence of the Union.

A Reunion of the Pennypacker Family.

SAD ENDING TO MANY.

SUMNEYTOWN, PA., OCT. 8th, '77.

Friend Emerson:—It was determined some time during the past summer, by the Pennypacker family of this section, which are a numerous one, to hold a reunion on the 4th of October, 1877, being the one hundredth anniversary of the battle of Germantown, of the descendents of Heinrick and Eve Pannebacker, as it was spelled in 1674, at "Pannebacker's Mills," on the Cerkiomen creek, (now Schwenksville,) where was held the council of war which resulted in the battle of Germantown, and whither the army with its wounded retreated the evening of the day when the engagement occurred. Over two hundred years have elapsed since the birth of Henrich, the founder of the family in this country, and the purpose was to have those who trace their lineage to him, meet together in pleasant picnic style, and give one day to social intercourse upon these historic grounds. The day came, and your correspondent, as one of the descendants, per invitation, was there. The weather, which had been very fine for weeks previous, was on that day, very inauspicous for such a vast assemblage of people—the rain all day poured down in torrents. The meeting in consequence was not held as was arranged on the camp ground occupied by Washington and his army, but in the large hall of the town. The proceedings were very interesting—consisting of speeches, family histories read, ballads sang, etc., and a further account will not interest your readers further than to say, and which is our purpose in writing, that as those who represent the family living in the Pickering valley of Chester county, were returning home by the Pickering Valley Railroad, which intersects the Reading Railroad at Phœnixville, and over a portion of which road and the Cerkiomen Railroad they had just passed a trussel work, about three miles from Phœnixville, on account of the great rain during the day had its under parts weakened; and when the train about dark, under full speed with its living freight, came upon it, it broke down making a general wreck of the whole train, killing nine and wounding seventy-five, and among the killed, as reported by the papers, was Mrs. Eli Pennypacker and daughter, of Caroline county, Md. Messages were despatched in every direction for aid; and during the long wet, chilly night, and until nine o'clock the next day, did the sympathizing throng work to extricate the unfortunate victims. W. E. C.

COULD NOT PLEASE HIM.—A curious elopement took place in England the other day. An old gentleman ran away with a young girl, and to the great disgust of her parents the couple were not caught until they were safely married, and all the indignant papa could do was to upbraid his daughter for marrying a man old enough to be her father, much older, indeed, than he was himself. A few weeks of happiness, or the reverse, with her aged adorer proved enough for the young bride, who incontinently ran away again with a young fellow she met at a foreign watering place. There was, of course, a great scandal, and her father came once more to upbraid her with the enormity of her behavior."—"Really papa," said the reasonable young person, "there's no pleasing you; you told me you would not have minded it, if it had been a young man, and now, when I have chosen a young man, you are just as angry." The father was disgusted with her moral obliquity and left her to her fate.

JUSTICE IN ST. PAUL.—Nice courts they have in St. Paul. Judge O'Brien, of the Municipal Court, was trying Charles Ryan, when Charles Ryan's friend, William Delaney, a local statesman, vulgularly abused the Judge and was twice fined for contempt. The Judge thrice ordered the six policemen present to take him to jail, but Mr. Delaney was influential, and they declined to do so. Delaney paid Ryan's fine and his own, went out and got a drink, returned to the Court and knocked the Judge down. The Judge fined and committed him, and he paid the fine and was about to knock the Judge down again, when a seventh policeman appeared, knocked him down, and dragged him into the street, and there set him at liberty because there was no order of commitment.

AFTER MANY YEARS.—Ten years ago the wife of the Rev. M. Leggett, of Goshen, Mass., lost a trunk at the railroad depot at Andover, Mass., where she was then attending school. Recently Mrs. Leggett received the trunk from Andover, where it had been found in the school attic. Upon opening the trunk its contents were found undisturbed; even some money in a Bible was untouched. The old-fashioned dresses and bonnets call out great laughter from those who see them.

"ALLOW me herewith to express my thanks to you for the benefit myself and family have derived from the use of Keller's Roman Liniment. I have used it for Rheumatic pains, Bruises and Sprains, Hoarseness, Sore throat and in cases where external applications were required, and found it to effect a perfect cure in every instance. I value it so highly that I shall never be without a supply of it.—W. H. Bell, Baltimore, Md."
