—A Sussex county, Del., farmer, raised the present season, a stalk of tobacco seven feet high.

—A single individual at Milford is furnishing New Jersey with 100,000 feet of ship timber.

—A shooting gallery has been opened at Salisbury. Who will be the first fool to shoot himself?

—The basket factory at Cambridge was destroyed by fire last week. Loss $3,500. Partially insured.

—Col. Ed. Lloyd, of Talbot. is spoken of as the coming President of the Maryland Senate.

—E. F. C. Jeffries was tried last week at Centreville, for arson, and resulted in a verdict of guilty.

—This is the season for hog killing.—Pork and hominy will be the favorite dish for sometime to come.

—Dr. John Harrington, of Royal Oak, Talbot county, died in Baltimore city on Wednesday last of consumption.

—The re-nomination of Mr. Wm. H. Councill as postmaster at Easton, has been confirmed by the U. S. Senate.

—The farm near Hillsborough, occupied by Alex. Carsons, containing 188 acres, was sold last week and brought $1,500.

—The Maryland and Delaware railroad will be offered at public sale at Easton on Thursday 20th of December next.

—The nomination of Gov. E. B. Tyler, to be Postmaster at Baltimore, was confirmed by the U. S. Senate on Monday.

—The Garrett snuff mills, near Wilmington, were destroyed by fire last week.—Loss $50,000; fully covered by insurance.

—Four of Easton's sporting characters went out hunting woodcocks last week.—Fifty birds were the result of four hours shooting.

—The wheat crop is looking remarkably well in Kent county. A greater breadth of land than usual was sown to this crop the present season.

—The steamer Raleigh, Capt. C. C. Wheeler, leaves Hillsborough every Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock, instead of 9, as heretofore.

—Col. G. W. P. Smith, a member of the Baltimore Bar, died in that city on Sunday night of paralysis. He was originally from Worcester county.

—The morning edition of Every Evening and Commercial, a first-class morning daily published at Wilmington, has been abandoned because it did not pay.

—St. Michael's held a hog election last week and decided by a vote of 96 in favor to 6 against raising hogs within the corporation limits. It was a hoggish decision.

—The steamer Thomas Collyer which plys between Baltimore and Salisbury was damaged to the extent of $50 on Wednesday by coming in collision with a pungy.

—The Trustees of the new M.E. Church at Milford have paid off the floating debt of the Church by borrowing $3,000 on mortgage to run for five years.

—Mr. Geo. W. Pitcher intends opening a temperance hotel at Farmington. We hope the pitcher will be neither cracked or broken. If a temperance hotel can live in Delaware, where the "red eye" is more highly prized than pure cold water, those conducting public houses on temperance principles in other States need have no fears of success.

—A steam yacht, at Cambridge, is on the marine railway, making the necessary arrangements for putting in one of Bradley's Promethors. She is the first to try this new invention.

—J. T. & D. H. Kenney, wholesale commision merchants, 305 North Water street, Philadelphia, have on hand and for sale to the city and country trade, all varieties of Northern and Western apples.

—For sale, cheap—a new haul seine, with barge, nearly new, oars, reel, windlass, platform, and everything complete.—This seine will be sold cheap for cash or on time, as the owner has no use for her. For particulars apply at THIS OFFICE.

—A crowd of roughs made a raid upon the ballot box in one of the districts in Charles county on election day and broke open the ballot box and destroyed the tickets. A like occurrence took place in the 4th district of this county, but it did not win.

—The Milford News complains that the whipping post in Delaware is used as a means of torture for Republicans, as the Governor on conviction by the Court, pardons the Democrats and refuses like favors to Republicans, who receive the lash and after that disfranchisement.

—Even if we are not smart we know what to do when troubled with a cough or cold. No doctor bills for us. We take a 25 cent note, go to the nearest drug store and buy a bottle of Dr. Bull's cough syrup. One dose relieves us and one bottle cures us entirely.

—The colored people of this county are to have a beef roast and oyster feast in Denton on Thursday 29th inst., thanksgiving day. Addresses will be delivered by speakers suitable to the occasion, and the Centreville colored Brass Band are to furnish the music.

—Hon. Thomas A. Spence, at one time Judge of the first judicial circuit, and several times a candidate for Congress from this district—a man of acknowledged ability and a fine speaker, died in Washington last week. He had many warm friends in the lower counties where he was well and favorably known.

—All babies are diminutive Cæsars, since they come, they see, they conquer, sometimes by their gentle stillness but oftener by continued and uproarious crying induced by colic, teething, flatulence, etc. Dr. Bull's baby syrup by its gentle yet specific influence quiets the little ones without ever producing the least injurious effect. Price only 25 cents per bottle.

—Mr. Daniel J. Zacharias is building a new grist mill just below the site of the old one, some five miles above this place. The new mill house is nearly completed, and in a short time, new machinery of the most improved and latest style will be put in place and made to do good service. Mr. Zacharias is master of his business and with his new mill will be apt to outstrip his rivals in the milling business.

—The preposterous claims made for very many remedies have always disappointed multitudes of people; but we are pleased to recommend an article which can at all times be thoroughly relied upon. The condition of constant readiness for use, with uniformity of composition, renders Keller's Vegetable Life Drops the safest and best remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, liver disease, loss of appetite, headache and all diseases originating from impure blood.

—There seems to have been a heavy struggle on the part of the Democrats in this State to secure the colored vote at the recent election. O! how are the mighty fallen! What has become of the white man's party? Only a few years ago the negro stunk in their nostrils, but now he is a gentleman darkey if he votes the Democratic ticket. They should be left to themselves to regulate their own affairs without the interference of white men of either party. Let each color do their own talking and their own voting in a fair and manly manner without the interference of political bummers.

—We wish it distinctly understood by those of our subscribers in arrears, residing outside the limits of the county, that after the present issue, they will no longer receive the Union. If they remit the amount due us before the next issue, the paper will be continued. It is unreasonable to expect us to pay cash for paper, employ labor and and meet a hundred other expenses, send our paper and pay the postage for them without pay. We desire to pay our own bills and in order to do this others must pay us. Send us the amount of your bills if you wish to continue the paper.

Is The Arm of the Law Paralyzed?

On the morning after the election and also at night, a number of persons, who we blush to own are citizens of this county, gathered at Concord and in the most tumultuous manner disturbed the peace of that community, and were a terror to its citizens. They are believed to be the same party who made a demonstration upon the ballot box at Harmony the night previous. Their conduct was so threatening and their intent to do mischief so apparent, that Mr. Stevens was compelled to close the store to prevent a row. The sole cause for this disreputable conduct was the defeat of the first ticket, backed up by mean whiskey, too freely imbibed by these men, who no doubt professed to be gentlemen. And some of these participants in these doings are officers of the law, sworn to observe and enforce it. They pay no attention to its observance but rather encourage others to violate it. Is it any wonder that our good sensible and law abiding citizens should become disgusted with such a state of things and elect a better class of men? We think they acted wisely.

Commissions Arrived.

The commissions for the newly elected county officers were received by the Clerk of the Circuit Court on Saturday last.—The new board of County Commissioners were sworn into office on Tuesday and organized by selecting Mr. Wm. H. Casho as its President, and electing Mr. Wm. Stevens Clerk. No other business was transacted further than the naming of a day for a future meeting.

Church Dedication.

The new M. E. Church at Ridgely will be dedicated on Sunday the 16th of Dec.—Rev. Wm. B. Chapman, of Baltimore, will officiate on the occasion. Preaching at 10½ A. M., and 7 P. M. Afternoon services are also contemplated, commencing at 3 o'clock, due notice of which will be announced. This new church will add another attraction to Ridgely and will be an ornament to the place. We hope it may prosper and be the means of accomplishing much good in that community.

A New Town in Dorchester.

We noticed last week the arrival of a company of gentlemen from Penn Yann, N. Y., at Cambridge, prospecting for land in Dorchester county. Last week they purchased a tract of land near Cabin Creek, containing 400 acres, for $13,500, and have already commenced the levelling and grading of the streets. The land is to be divided amongst the colonists; a hotel and saw mill will be erected at once, and manufactories of various kinds will be put into operation the coming season. About seventy-five additional colonists are expected to arrive this week, who are to aid in the erection of the buildings for immediate occupancy. The town is to be named Spencertown or Chapmanville.

Heard From.

Since the smoke of the battle has cleared away and the shricks of the wounded and dying have ceased to be heard, ex-Senator Fields has been heard from. He declares that his "Democratic friends went back on him," and that his professed friends in his own and adjoining district "pocketed $1,200 of his election funds." He might truthfully exclaim,

"Had I but served my God with half the zeal I served my party,
I would not now be left naked to my enemies."

But the ex Senator should throw away ambition. By it the angels fell, and he being considerable less than angel, ought to have foreseen the result.

LET the parties that broke up the counting of the votes on the night of election day, at Harmony, Caroline county, be brought to justice, and let them suffer the full penalty of the law. We want no such proceedings as these on the Eastern Shore; nor do our law-abiding people propose to become accustomed to such things. Leniency to these scoundrels will be disgraceful to whomever exhibits it, and hurtful to the peace and welfare of the whole shore.—St. Michael's Comet.

To the above sentiments, we cheerfully say, amen. And we will add that the parties who were instrumental in quatering in this place, on election day, a half dozen or more Baltimore roughs, we would like to see them too arraigned before a tribunal of justice and held to accountability. We hope to get some revelations on this subject shortly.

Mr. Fields at the Capitol.

The Annapolis Gazette in speaking of the election in Caroline county says:

After one of the most heated and bitter contests ever held in the county of Caroline, between the People and the Democratic Ring, we are glad to announce that the self-conceited Daniel M. Fields has been defeated for the Senate by about 300. We have not conversed with a single Democrat, who knew the pompous vanity of said Fields, that did not express delight at his deserved defeat. We are thankful to the good people of Caroline for keeping him home, to be exhibited as a defunct candidate. The State will be the gainer. The Denton Union, which has battled nobly in the People's cause, says: "This is no party victory. It is no Republican or Democrat triumph. It is the uprising of people to put down partizan tyrants.—Right nobly have they performed the work. The people have done this. It is their fiat and from their decision there can be no appeal. They are masters of the situation and are perfectly competent to conduct their own affairs."

AND why didn't the Union inform its readers to which party those men belonged who stood at the colored men's voting window all day long on the 6th inst., brandishing clubs, and threatening to kill every colored man who voted the democratic ticket? We condemn such conduct in all parties.—Denton Journal.

The reason why we did not inform our readers "to which party those men belonged who stood at the colored men's voting window all day long, "brandishing clubs,' &c. was because we neither saw nor heard of such occurrences until our eyes fell upon the above paragraph in the Journal. And the editor of the Journal knows if he knows anything, that these assertions need confirmation. There was some little irregularities of which the Journal man is charged and it would be well for him to clear his own shirts before he condemns others. It is reported that on the morning of the election, he had a wrangle, cane in hand, with several colored men, was jesticulating wildly and even made threats against them. Another one named Jake—he remembers him—was promised $10 for his vote if he would vote the Fields ticket, and being "bulldozed" to do so, now says the editor didn't pay him, and that he intends to sue him for that amount of cash. The aforesaid editor also, we have learned, got into a wrangle with one of our citizens of his own color, on the morning of the election, and becoming excited, drew his pistol to defend his own "bacon." Wonder if the editor condemns such conduct in himself? Why don't the Journal answer our questions?

More of the Baltimore Roughs.

The Baltimore city roughs, who were so handsomely entertained at one of our hotels on election day left town for Baltimore the next day, but not having received full consideration for their valuable services, made a diversion and took up at Centreville, where we learn, they waited upon Mr. Keating, the Comptroller elect, and demanded more money, declaring their Caroline friends had failed to meet their obligations. The subject appeared to be new to Mr. Keating. He knew nothing of the men or their purposes, and when he was made acquainted with the object of their visit, and heard of the failure of their Caroline friends to pay them, refused to entertain any proposition, or hold further conversation with them, declaring in the most positive manner, his condemnation of the objects and purposes of those who had invoked the aid of such disreputable means to thwart the will of the people of our county. We learn that he also demanded that these men should be removed from their midst at once, as he anticipated danger to Centreville if their presence should be tolerated for twenty-four hours. Mr. Keating acted wisely, and as every honest man should, by discountenancing a set of cut-throats and out-laws. We commend him for his conduct toward them, and are glad to know that every good citizen who favors law and order, in the most positive and direct terms, disapprobate and condemn such proceedings, and the parties who were instrumental in bringing them into our midst. The question here is to learn who the parties are that had them brought into our county. Heaven knows, and the recent outrages prove, that we have enough of this rough element at home, without calling upon Baltimore city for her thieves and cut throats to bully and intimidate our people.

Further Revelations.

THE OBJECTS OF THE BALTIMORE ROUGHS REVEALED.

The causes which brought a lot of Baltimore roughs to this place the night previous to the election, have at last come to light. Enough is known to reveal the object of their mission and to make known the individual, a man in high official position, who instigated the movement.

Immediately after their arrival, it was soon learned that they were sent here for an evil purpose. A committee of our citizens were appointed to wait on Mr. Fields, who was stopping at the same hotel, to know of him by whose authority they were here, and the object of their visit. Mr. Fields denied in toto all knowledge of who they were and of their purposes in visiting this place.

This denial on the part of Mr. Fields, with the cool indifference on the part of others to whom they had been referred, so incensed them, that they remained all day in close quarters at the hotel, spending their time in drinking and playing cards.—Before they left they become very communicative and told the story to several of our citizens.

They declared they had been sent here at the instance of A. P. Gorman, State Senator for Howard county, the chief of the Ring Democracy of Maryland, in the interest of Mr. Fields election, and to secure the success of the first ticket. They declared that the programme, as mapped out, was to raise a row with the colored voters at the window, where the votes were taken, and by intimidation and the firing of pistols, they were to be put to route and driven from the polls. They also stated that this being the largest voting place in the county, it was thought this plan might best succeed here. If this plan should fail they had a second, in which they were sure to succeed. That was two of them were to get up a fight at the entrance of the Court room, so as to draw off the crowd in attendance upon the counting of the ballots, the others to seize the ballot box, and throw into it 300 or 400 Fields tickets and insist upon the count, and by this means secure a large majority for that ticket.—They declared that Mr. Fields and his friends, failing to countenance them, and not having the pluck or stamina to stand up and carry out the designs of Mr. Gorman and his friends, they cursed the whole concern and expressed the hope that Garey would beat Fields a thousand votes. They also gave some of our citizens a lesson in the arts and mysteries of voting pudding tickets, and explained how they triumphantly elected Michael Bannon Senator from Anne Arundel county, two years ago.

Here then we have the testimony of their own witnesses in reference to one of the greatest wrongs ever attempted to be perpetrated upon the elective franchise in our county, and by a man occupying a prominent position in the Senate of Maryland.—If the members of the Senate are the incorruptible gentlemen they ought to be, a most thorough and rigid investigation into this crowning act of infamy ought to be instituted immediately upon the assembling of that body, and if these facts are sustained, Mr. Gorman should be expelled forthwith. He ought to receive the withering scorn and the blasting contumely of every honest man in Maryland.

For the Union.

A very successful meeting is now in progress at Thawley's Chapel M. P. Church. The meeting has been in progress one week last Sunday night, at which time we received twenty-two persons into church membership, leaving fifteen seekers at the altar. We have enjoyed the benefit of fine weather and good roads, and our congregations have been all that we could desire.

Last Sunday night there were many that could not find room, even within the house, much less to be comfortably seated, and we have often felt at a loss to know whether to pity or censure some good people who only go to church on special occasions, and then on Sunday night. If we could only engage some to come on Monday night what a happy exchange it would be.

W. C. AMOS, Pastor,
Burrsville, Nov. 20th, 1877.

Arrested on a Serious Charge.

Last week the parties engaged in an election riot at Harmony, in the 4th election district, were arraigned before Squire Smith in this place, waived an examination, and entered into bonds for their appearance at the April term of our Court. The names of the parties are Wm. T. Slaughter, Constable in the 5th district; Elijah Hignutt, tax collector in the 4th district; J. P. J. Hubbard, late tax collector and a member of the Board of Control and Review; Geo. Hignutt, road overseer; Jos. M. Everangan, road overseer; Wm. F. Liden, farmer; Roger Adams, from Delaware. These are all Fields men and support the first ticket. They entered each others security, were released, and returned to their homes. The penalty imposed by the laws of this State if indicted and convicted for riot is fine and imprisonment. If indicted and convicted for felony the penalty is not less than three, nor more than seven years, in the State penitentiary. It is but proper to add that Adams returned to Delaware the morning after the election and has not been seen in the State since, hence the officers of the law cannot reach him. This is a bad showing for the peace and good order of our county when such men are elected as conservators of the peace.
