PROSPECTUS FOR 1872. FIFTH YEAR.

A Representative and Champion of American Art. An Illustrated Monthly Journal claimed to be the handsomest Paper in the World.

"Give my love to the artist workmen of THE AL-DINE who are striving to make their profession worthy of admiration for beauty, as it has always been for usefulness."-Henry Ward Beecher. THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest haracteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeeding number affords a frest pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE AL-DINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of the volume just completed cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost.

The labor of getting THE ALDINE ready on the

The enthusiastic supportso readily accorded to their enterprise, wherever it has been introduced, has convinced the publishers of THE ALDINE of public would recognize and heartily support any sincere effort to elevate and standard of illustrated publications. That so many weakly wicked sheets exist and thrive is not evidence that there is no market for anything better—indeed the success of THE ALDINE from the start is direct proof of the contrary. With a population so vast, and of such varied taste, a publisher can choose his patrons, and lence of this department, the publishers would beg to announce during the coming year, specimens from the following eminent American artists: Wm. H. Wilcox, James H. Beard, in competition with any existing publication in the world.

ILITERARY IDEPARTMENT.

Where so much attention is paid to illustration and get up of the work, too much dependence on appearance may vary naturally be feared. To anticipate such misgivings, it is only necessary to state, that, the editorial management of THE ALDINE has been introduced in the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.
