Cometh and Defendeth his Right when and wherefore and doth Vouch thereof to Warranty John Pollard who is present here in Court and doth freely warranty the same unto the said Richard Keene the several tracts of Plantable Land aforesaid with their and every of their Appurtenances and thereupon the said Pollard Keene doth Demand against the said John Pollard by his own Warranty the several tracts of Plantable Land aforesaid with their and every of their Appurtenances in form aforesaid and so forth and whereupon he saith that he was Seised of the several Tracts of Plantable Land aforesaid in his Demesne as of fee and Right in the time of peace in the time of the Lord the King who now is taking the Profits thereof to the value and so forth and in low wich and so forth wherefore he brings his Suit &c. And the said John Pollard Tenant by his own Warranty comes and Defends his Right when &c. And doth Vouch thereof to warranty William Horton who is present here in Court and freely Warranteth unto the said John Pollard the said several Tracts of Land aforesaid with their and every of their Appurtenances and so forth Whereupon the said Pollard Keene Demanded against the said William Horton Tenant by his own warranty the several Tracts of Plantable Land aforesaid with their and every of their Appurtenances and so forth and thereupon he saith that he was Seised in his Demesne as of fee and Right in the time of peace in the time of the Lord the King who now is taking the Profits thereof to the value of and so forth and in low wich and so forth and therefore he brings their Suit &c. And the said William Horton warranty by his own Warranty Comes and Defends his right when &c. And saith that the said Hugh Hunt did not Dispeize the said Pollard Keene of the several Tracts of Land Plantable Land aforesaid or any of them with their or any of their Appurtenances as the said Pollard Keene by his Writ and Declaration aforesaid hath above supposed and of this he puts himself upon the Country.

And the said Pollard Keene prays leave to Imparle and so forth and afterwards to wit this same Term comes again the said Pollard Keene here into this Court in his proper person and the said William Horton being solemnly called comes not but hath Departed in Contempt of the Court and hath made Default.

Therefore It is Considered by the Court here that the said Pollard Keene recover his Seisin of the said several tracts of Plantable Land aforesaid with their and every of their Appurtenances against the said Richard Keene and that the said Richard Keene have of the Lands of the said John Pollard to the value and so forth and that the said John Pollard have of the Lands of the said William Horton to the value &c. And that the said William Horton be in mercy &c.

And thereupon the said Pollard Keene prays his Lordships the Right Honble the Lord Proprietary his Writ of Habere facias Seisinam to be directed to the Sheriff of Dorchester County Commanding him to give unto the same Pollard Keene full Seisin of the three several tracts of Plantable Land with their and every of their Appurtenances and it is granted unto him &c.
