ffo Henry Emralls } Mem.d The Plaintiff Obtained his Lordships Writ of Seisin
John Stevens } the Tenor whereof follows in these words Viz.t

Maryland ss Charles Absolute Lord and Propry of the Provinces of Maryland and Avalon Lord Baron of Baltimore &c. To the Sheriff of Dorchester County Greeting Know Ye that Henry Emralls of Dorchester County hath Recovered against John Stevens of the same County Gent. his Seisin of all that Tract and Parcell of Plantable Land called Nothingworth lying in Dorchester County on the East side of Chesepeak Bay Beginning at a marked Red Oak standing on the North side of a Beaver Dam Branch that Issueth out of the Head of Black Water River from thence running North thirty Perches to another marked Oak from thence running East and by North One Hundred Perches to another marked Oak from thence running North East and by North forty two Perches to another marked Oak from thence Running North One Hundred and four Perches to another marked Oak thence Running North East One Hundred and Ten Perches to another marked Oak thence Running East twenty Perches to another marked Oak thence Running South East and by East forty Perches to another marked Oak thence running South South East forty Perches to another marked Oak thence running West Ninety Perches thence running South West forty two Perches thence Running South One Hundred Perches thence running South West and by South Sixty Eight Perches and so running from thence with a Streight Line to the first marked Oak Containing and laid out for Eighty six Acres more or less with the Appurtenances and also all that other Tract and Parcell of Plantable Land called nothingworth Improved lying in Dorchester County aforesd — Beginning at a marked White Oak and Red Oak standing on the North side of a Beaver Dam Branch that Issueth out of the Head of Black Water River and just by the Edge of the said Branch the Red Oak being the Original Bounder of the Land called Nothingworth then Running up the said Branch Bounded therewith East by South fourteen Perches then still Binding therewith North Eighteen Degrees East twenty Perches then still Binding therewith North Seventy five Degrees East twenty four Perches thence still Binding with the said Branch South Seventy seven Degrees East fourteen Perches thence still Bounded therewith South five Degrees West twenty two Perches thence still Binding therewith South Sixty six Degrees East fourteen Perches then still Bounded therewith North forty two Degrees East Eighteen Perches then still Binding therewith North Eighteen Degrees East Eight Perches then still Binding therewith North Sixty Degrees East twenty six Perches then still Binding therewith South Seventy five Degrees East thirty six Perches then still Binding therewith North forty three Degrees East twenty Perches still Binding therewith South fifty six Degrees East twenty six Perches then still Binding therewith South fifteen Degrees East thirty Perches then still Binding therewith South thirty one Degrees East Eighteen Perches then still Binding therewith North fifty three Degrees East twenty three Perches to a marked Red Oak standing on a Point called the Long Point by the Edge of a Beaver Dam it being the Second Beaver Dam above the Bounder on the said Branch thence running still binding with the said Branch North twenty nine degrees East Eight Perches then still Binding with the said Branch North thirty Degrees West fourteen Perches then still binding therewith North five Degrees West Sixty four Perches then still binding therewith North thirty five Degrees West forty Perches then still binding therewith North Eleven Degrees East One Hundred Perches then still binding therewith North fifty seven degrees East thirty Perches then still binding therewith North Eighty seven Degrees East Eighteen Perches then into the Woods North North East thirty two Perches then North West and by West forty Perches then West twenty Perches then South West One Hundred Perches then South thirty five Degrees East fifty Perches then South Eighty two Perches then West and by South One Hundred and fifty four Perches to a marked Red Oak standing by the Edge of a Swamp near unto a Plantation of Patrick Brokenum thence by a Streight line to the first Bounder Containing and now laid out for One Hundred and Seventy two Acres more or less with the Appurtenances thereunto belonging by our Writ of Entry sur Disseisin en le Post And therefore We Command you that without Delay you deliver unto him the said Henry Emralls full Seisin of the Land afs.d with the Appurtenances thereunto belonging & how you shall Execute this Writ that you make known unto the Justices of our Provincial Court to be held at Annapolis the third Tuesday of October next & have you then there this Writ Witness Benjamin Young Esq.r Chief Justice of our said Court the 27th days of May in the 35th Year of our Dominion &c. Anno Dom.i 1749

(therewith)

R. Burdett Clk

Jfs.d Clk. June 1749

ffo

At which said third Tuesday of October to wit the 17th day of the same Month Anno Dom.i 1749 being the day of the return of the aforegoing Writ comes the said Henry Emralls in his proper Person and the Sheriff of Dorchester County to whom the same Writ was Directed likewise comes and makes return thereof to the Court here thus Endorsed Viz.t