in a Marsh between the Cedar Point and a Landing commonly called the great Landing a Point Landing then by a direct line drawn North from the said Gutt through the Swamp to a Spring called by the Name of the Old Spring then by a Direct line drawn from the said Old Spring unto the Northermost end of a Swamp called the Fresh Swamp then by a Direct line drawn through the said Swamp South until it comes to the line that — formerly divided the Land of the said Joseph Hynson and the Land belonging to Joseph Wickes which said lines and Boundarys aforedescribed were Established by the said —
John Hynson the Patentee of the said Land by his Deed of Gift to his Son Nathanael & his Son John the said Eastern part of the said Tract of Land containing by Estimation four hundred and Seventy six Acres of Land be the same more or less and two Messuages thereon being with the Appurtenances as his Right and Inheritance and into which the same Nathanael the now Tenant hath not Entry but after the Disseisin which — Hugh Hunt thereof unjustly and without Judgment made to the said Thomas — Ringgold within thirty Years and so forth — and Whereupon the said Thomas Ringgold saith that he was Seized of the Lands afod with the Appurtenances in his Demesne as of Fee and Right in the time of Peace in the time of the Lord the — King that now is taking thereof the Profits to the Value and so forth and into which and so forth and therefore he brings Suit and so forth

And the afod Nathanael the Tenant in his Proper Person comes and defends the Right when and so forth and voucheth thereof to Warranty Richard Goldsmith who is likewise present here in Court in his own Proper Person and freely doth Warrant to him the Land afod with the Appurtenances. — And hereupon the afod Thomas — Ringgold Demandeth against the said Richard Goldsmith Tenant by his own — Warranty the Land afod with the Appurtenances in form afod and so forth And — thereupon he saith he was Seized of the Land afod with the Appurtenances in his Demesne as of Fee and Right in the time of Peace in the time of the Lord the King that now is taking thereof the Profits to the Value and so forth and into which and — so forth and therefore he brings Suit and so forth, —

And the afod Richard Goldsmith Tenant by his own Warranty defendeth his Right when &c so forth and saith that the said Hugh Hunt did not Disseise the said Thomas Ringgold of the Land afod with the Appurtenances as the said Thomas —
