saith that he was seized of the Lands and Premises afsd (except as before excepted) with the Appurtenances in his Demesne as of Fee and Right in the time of Peace in the time of our Lord the King that now is taking the Profits thereof to the value of &c. and in which &c. and thereof he bringeth Suit

And the afsd Richard Goldsmith Tenant by his own Warranty defendeth his Right when &c. and saith that the afsd Hugh Hunt did not Disseise the afsd William Pollard of the Lands and Premises afsd with the Appurtenances as the said William Pollard by his Writ and Declaration afsd above doth suppose and of this he doth put himself upon the Country And the afsd William Pollard prays Liberty of Imparling thereof and he hath it &c. and afterwards the same William Pollard cometh again here into Court in the same Term in his proper Person and the afsd Richard Goldsmith altho' Solemnly called cometh not again but in Contempt of the Court departeth and maketh default

Therefore it is Considered that the afsd William Pollard recover his Seisin against the afsd John Pollard of the Lands afsd (except as before excepted) with the Appurtenances and that the same John Pollard have of the Lands of the afsd John Pollard the Younger to the Value and so forth and that the said John Pollard the Younger further have of the Lands of the afsd Richard Goldsmith to the Value &c. and the same Richard in Mercy &c.

And upon this the afsd William Pollard prays the Writ of the Right Honble the Lord Proprty of Habeas Seisinam to the Sheriff of Dorchester County afsd to be directed Commanding him to deliver unto him the said William full Seisin of the Lands afsd (except as before excepted) with the Appurtenances And it is granted unto him returnable here the second Tuesday of April next ensuing
