THE lumber yards of Geo. F. Sloan & Bro., on Light street, Baltimore, were partly destroyed by fire on Sunday night. One of their four immense yards was burned, but their extensive business is going on as usual at their old office, 132 Light street.

THE Pocomoke Gazette piously remarks: Our Moody and Sankey Legislature still continues its work of evangelizing the State. If this continues until April we are afraid that there will be little left for the next Legislature to do, except to repeal the acts of 1882 and re enact the same with amendments.

MR. ADREON, postmaster of Baltimore, isn't a Stalwart, and he is having a rough time of it. His bondsmen are Stalwarts and want to bond for no man but a Stalwart, therefore they have withdrawn. The Stalwarts, backed by Creswell, want to get Mr. Adreon out of the way. A change from a Republican to a Democratic President would hardly be as marked as the change from an anti-Stalwart to a Stalwart President. Mr. Adreon will go out muttering: "Civil Service Re——"

ECONOMY is one of the leading principles of the Democratic party, and the close observer of the actions of parties will be forced to this conclusion. Two years ago the expenses of the Legislature amounted to $128,000, and the expenses of the present Legislatnre will only amount to $90,000! Here is a saving of $38,000! Give the Democratic party credit for this item. If the Democratic party were in power in the National Government, the expenses would be more than $100,000,000 a year less than they now are.—Maryland Union.

SERGT. MASON, of the second United States artillery, who fired a shot into Guiteau's cell while he was stationed as a guard at the District of Columbia jail, has been sentenced by the court-martial before which he was tried to be dishonorably discharged from the army, with loss of all pay and allowances now due, and to be imprisoned at hard labor for eight years. Gen. Hancock has approved the sentence, and designated the Albany penitentiary as the place of confinement.

MR. CROASDALE'S VIEWS. — A member of the Delaware Legislature wrote a letter to Senator Bayard asking him his opinion of a proposed local option law then pending. The Senator replied, declaring his doubt as to its constitutionality. It is a wonder he did not answer more emphatically, since the courts of Delaware long ago decided that the Legislature could not delegate any portion of the law-making power conferred on it by the constitution to any portion of the people, or, for that matter, to the whole people. The letter had great weight in defeating the bill, since it enabled many cowards to vote as they believed and still escape the wrath of temperance fanatics. Yesterday one of these peripathetic mouths to hire which infest religious gatherings took occassion to misstate the facts in this case at the session of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, in Middletown, Delaware, and he found he had struck a hornet's nest or something of the sort. He backed down very considerably. When will our worthy methodist brethren learn to take their religion "straight," undiluted with radicalism, and cease to encourage paid reformers to go around lying for the love of God? —Baltimore Gazette.

First Lesson in Politics.

Pa, what does all this mean about reform that I see in the newspapers?

Reform, my son, means improvement. Some of the people think that our politics have become corrupt, and want to reform them. But here comes the Governor; let's ask him. Perhaps he can give us some information. Governor, my son here wants to know what reform means.

Governor—Reform, sir, means break up the d—d ring, sir, and put only Hamilton men in office, sir. That is what it means, sir; that's what it means. Yes, sir, yes, sir, that is what it means. If you don't think so, sir, ask Briscoe.

Father—Here are some members of the legislature, son; suppose we ask their views on the question. Senator Bians, what does reform mean?

Senator Bians—Reform? Why it means that men should not stay too long in one office. Jim Herbert has been police commissioner long enough, and ought to have come out, sir. That is reform.

Senator Hepbron, what does reform mean?

Darned if I know what it means. It is a Greek word, I think, and I have never studied Greek. My friend Colton brought the word home with him from Europe, I think, and as Colton is always right, I go for reform because of my love for Colton and my confidence in him. Always count on me for anything Colton suggests.

Senator Williams, what does reform mean?

Reform is an old Anglo-Saxon word, much used in England and on the continent, and means that a man should be Governor only one term.

Senator Farrow, what does reform mean?

Reform means Mahonism, sir, repudiation, sir, and I am opposed to it. It is a word Bill Hamilton found in an old book somewhere, and is trying to introduce it here, sir, in our own language. But he can't do it, sir; he can't do it.

Senator Moore, what does reform mean?

Reform means cheaper marriage licenses, sir. Marriage now costs more than it's worth, and the license should be reduced to $2, sir, which is about a fair price, sir, and all it is worth. By reducing the price to $2 you get about the worth of your money, sir, and that is all the State should demand from its citizens.

Mr. Banks, what does reform mean?

Pure milk, sir, pure milk.

Mr. Gittings, what does reform mean?

Reform, sir, means no extension of the city limits; no extension at all, sir.

Mr. Dyson, what does reform mean?

Ask Waters, sir, he knows more about it than I do.

Senator Turpin, what does reform mean?

It means trouble, sir, if things are not managed better.

Mr. Weedon, what does reform mean?

It means, sir, that the Democratic party should place itself upon a higher plane, and so manage its internal affairs as to remove any necessity for discontent.

Gen. Bond, what does reform mean?

It means a pure ballot and an honest count, sir, as we have them here in Anne Arundel, sir. It means ballot boxes plainly in view of the voter, sir, as we have them here in Anne Arundel, so that every voter can see his ballot deposited in the box, as our voters do, and it means a fair count in the presence of any who choose to attend, sir, as we have it here. In short, sir, it means politics on the Anne Arundel plan.

Son—Pa, these gentlemen do not seem to agree about the meaning of the word.

Father—No, my son, I am afraid they are a little confused in their ideas of reform.

Son—Are they always so, pa?

Father—Yes, generally so after the fall elections are over, my son.

Son—Will they never agree?

Father—Not till next fall, my son. Then they probably will.—Centreville Observer.

KANSAS PRAISING IT.

"While I was in Topeka, last winter," said the Hon. Arthur Edgington, 'I had a pretty rough time of it. I got a bad cold, and that not being sufficiently severe, I was also attacked with rheumatism. The pain was in my left shoulder. At times I almost writhed in agony. I tell you sir, the pain could not have been greater had my shoulder been screwed up in a vise. I was utterly helpless, and felt like I was destined to remain in that condition indefinitely. My friends and a physician were generous in their prescriptions and my room soon became a miniature apothecary shop. But nothing did me any good. One day some one told me I was enduring a great deal of needless pain when I could invest fifty cents in a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil and be cured. I invested in a bottle of the Oil, rubbed it on my shoulder twice, and in two days forgot that I ever had rheumatism. Yes, that is a great remedy, and no mistake. They can't say too much in favor of its healing power." The above was uttered by Mr. Edgington while sitting on the porch of the La Gonda House, at Columbus, the other evening, and was overheard by an escaped reporter, who is traveling over the country incog. Inquiry developed the fact that Mr. Edgington is one of the most widely known men in Kansas, figuring prominently in politics, and acting as the responsible agent of the Bradstreet Commercial Agency. Upon subsequently making Mr. Edgington's acquaintance the reporter was assured that all he had heard was true, and he was at liberty to use it in the papers. — Oswego (Kan.) Democrat.

A GOOD HOUSEWIFE.

A good housewife, when she is giving her house it spring renovating, should bear in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than many houses, and that their systems needs cleansing by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma, and she must know that there is nothing that will do it so perfectly as Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines.—Concord (N. H.) Patriot.

WORKINGMEN

Before you begin your heavy spring work after a winter of relaxation, your system needs cleasing and strengthening to prevent an attack of Ague, Bilious or Spring Fever, or some other spring sickness that will unfit you for season's work. You will save time, much sickness and great expense if you will use one bottle of Hop Bitters in your family this month. Don't wait.—Burlington Hawkeye.

You make no mistake—If you have dyspepsia, sick headache, or your liver or stomach is out of order, take J. M. Laroque's Anti-Bilious Bitters. Only see that you get the genuine article. 25 cents a paper or $1 a bottle. W. E. Thornton, proprietor, Baltimore, Md. Sold by druggists.

Disappointment inmatters of pleasure is hard to be borne, in matters affecting health it becomes cruel. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup never disappoints those who use it for obstinate coughs, colds, irritation of the throat and lungs, etc.

The army of workers using the Esterbrook Steel Pens is the most useful army in the world.

THE Maryland Directory for 1882 has just been issued by the publishers, J. Frank Lewis & Co, Baltimore. This standard work has long been regarded as an invaluable manual for the business community. It contains careful and comprehensive descriptions of the counties and towns of Maryland, with lists of principal residents, their occupations, etc., arranged in alphabetical order, and prepared with unusual accuracy and judicious discrimination. The work is bound in convenient shape, and the tpye is large and distinct, making it a model book of its kind.

The Philadelphia Times

Now stands confessedly at the head of Philadelphia journalism in all that makes a thoroughly complete and general family newspaper. It is more complete in its news, in its special correspondence, its varied contributions on all subjects of popular interest, and in all the qualities of a newspaper for the family circle and for the business man than any of its contemporaries, because its facilities and its sources are equal to every want of first-class national journal.

"THE WEEKLY TIMES" has nearly doubled its former large circulation during the year. Its contributors from week to week are among the foremost men of the nation, and no department of news or literature is slighted in any number on any pretext. It is adapted as well to women as to men; hence, although its political intelligence is full and accurate and its political editorials free and fearless, liberal provision is made for literary, dramatic and musical matters, travels and adventure, fiction, poetry, fashions and the chronicle of current social events. In all these departments the pens of the best writers are engaged, while selections from other journals are made with care, taste and fullness that are unsurpassed.

THE "ANNALS OF THE WAR," embracing chapters of unwritten history contributed by prominent actors in the war of the rebellion, are a valuable feature of the paper and have become a recognized depository for such matters, whether from Northern or Southern sources. This department, as well as all others, will be kept fully up to high standard of former years.
