And the afs Daniel Maud in his proper person Cometh and defendeth his Right when and &c forth and Voucheth to warranty thereof William Rawlings who is present here in Court in his proper person and freely doth warrant to him The Demanded premisses with the appurtenances. And the Said James Silghman demandeth against the Said William Rawlings Tenant by his own Warranty The Said Demanded premisses with the appurtenances in manner afs and whereupon he saith that he was Seized of the Said premisses with the appurtenances In his demesne as of Fee and right in the time of Peace in the time of our Lord
The King that now is & taking the profits thereof to the value and &c forth
And into which and &c forth and therefore he brings Suit and &c forth
And the afs William Rawlings Tenant by his own warranty defendeth Hes right when and &c forth and saith that the said Hugh Hunt did not Disseise the said James Silgman of the Said Demanded premisses with the appurtenances in such manner and form as the Said James Silgman by his writ and Declaration afs above doth Suppose and of this he puts himself upon the Country &c And the afs James Silgman prayeth Leave of Imparling Thereunto here and he hath it, And afterwards in the same Term Cometh
The afs James Silghman in his proper person here into Court, and the Said William Rawlings all the Solemnly Called Cometh not again but Hath departed in Contempt of the Court and made Default.
Therefore it is Considered that the Said James recover against the Said Daniel Maud his Seisin of the Demanded premisses with the appurtenances
And that the Said Daniel Maud have of the Lands of the Said William Rawlings to the value and &c forth and the Said William Rawlings in Mercy &c And thereupon the Said James Silghman prayeth his Lordships Writ of Habere facias Seisinam to the Sheriff of Dorchester County afs to be directed To cause him to have full Seisin of the Said Demanded premisses with The appurtenances and it is granted unto him, returnable here on the Second Tuesday in September Next.
