He Shot His Wife.

Joshua B. Jones, living near Bethel Church, shot and dangerously wounded his wife on Sunday last, the bullet striking her in the left temple and glancing down and lodging in her cheek. He was promptly arrested by Constable Brown and lodged in Dover jail to await the result.

Another Sudden Death.

Mr. John E. Starkey died very suddenly at his home near Jumptown on Tuesday evening last. He was advanced in years, and has long been a sufferer from dropsy. He was active and energetic yet in his old age and was a fine farmer and stock raiser. On Tuesday evening when he returned from overseeing the feeding of his stock he took his seat in the family circle, throwing himself back in a comfortable position, he expired with little appearance of dying.

Registers' Accounts Adjusted.

Under the new registration law, the comptroller of the State treasury paid the registers only for the days of actual sitting, which were twenty-three at four dollars. He refused to pay them for office rent, for making out the books and lists, or for any other incidental matter, hence they had to file bills for these items with the county commissioners. These bills have been audited and the registers paid. They were allowed fifteen dollars for office rent in most of the districts, and fifty-five dollars for other services.

A Seaford Desperado.

Seaford had a serious shooting affair on day last week. Dave Outten who is just of age went into John Allen's store while under the influence of liquor and demanded a glass of cider, refusing to pay for it. A dispute arose when Outten fired his revolver at Allen, the bullet entering his chin and lodging in his neck. The wound is not fatal. When taken before the 'Squire Outten answered a demand for the pistol by firing it at the official, whose son struck it up just as it went off. Being forcibly disarmed Outten was given a hearing and committed to the county jail to await his trial.

Atkinson's Second Hearing.

Thomas Gratz Atkinson alias Thomas Gale alias D. C. Clarkson had a hearing in Baltimore on Thursday before Commissioner Rogers on the charge of passing counterfeit $2.50 gold pieces on several shopkeepers in Centreville on November 12. The prisoner was dressed neatly, seemed careless and indifferent to the proceedings, and conversed and chatted pleasantly with some of his friends who leaned over the bar to talk with him. Mr. George M. Russum appeared as his counsel. Mr. Edward Tanzer testified that a man passed a $2 50 counterfeit gold piece on him on the date named at his store in Centreville; he thought the prisoner was that man. Miss Mamie Snyder testified that she was in her brother's store at the same place when the prisoner came in, bought something and tendered a $2.50 gold pice in payment. Several others testified to the passing of the spurious money on them, but their testimony was contradictory as to the identity of the prisoner. Atkinson was committed for the January term of the U. S. court to answer the charge. He was already in jail on a charge of using the mails to defraud, besides being indicted for assault with intent to kill in this county.

Death of the Man Who Defied Patty Cannon.

The Federalsburg Courier says: Mr. Robert A. Houston, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Mary Noble, in this place, on Monday night last, in the 79th year of his age. He was a genial, intelligent gentleman, whose recollections of prominent men and events of his time, as he related them, were always interesting to those whose pleasure it was to know and converse with him. In matters where he believed himself to be right, he fearlessly expressed himself and acted. As an evidence of his pluck, one adventure he had in the interest of a kidnapped negro man, during the days of slavery, many years prior to the emancipation act, may be mentioned. The man was a free negro and had been kidnapped near Bridgeville, in Sussex county, Del., and taken by his captors to a house then occupied by the notorious Patty Cannon and her gang of cut-throats and robbers, at Johnson's X Roads, about five miles below Federalsburg, on the line between Dorchester county, Md., and Sussex county, Del. Mr. Houston and some of his friends determined to attempt the release of the man and a certain night was appointed for the adventure, but for some unexplained reason his friends failed to put in appearance as agreed, but Mr. H., bent upon performing what he deemed to be a just act, and nothing daunted by the known fact that the kidnappers always had armed sentinels stationed around the house, boldly and alone entered the house, ascending to the upper story, unmanabled the negro and led him safely away.

Christmas Observances.

Christmas day and the days that came before and after made up an unusually bright and mild holiday season. Hardly a cloud was to be seen most of the time, and there was no appearance of snow. The day was observed in town by the closing of some of the business places, services in the churches and the usual lively street scenes of drunkenness.

The entertainments given for the Sunday schools were of the most interesting nature. The Christmas services for the school of Christ Church took place in the court house on Monday evening, a Jacob's ladder beautifully trimmed with evergreens and flowers being the attraction. The exercises consisted of singing, an address by the Rev. S. D. Hall explaining the mystic ladder, and the bountiful distribution of confections, &c. The attendance was large.

On Wednesday evening the M. E. church was filled to witness the exercises attending the annual Christmas tree. The tree was beautifully trimmed and illuminated. The programme included prayer by the Rev. A. W. Holt, singing by the school, and the reading of "Rocket's Christmas" by the Mr. Holt. A great number of presents were given among members of the Sunday school, and boxes of candies were given to the smaller scholars.

Similar services were held in the churches in the vicinity of Denton.

MINOR MATTERS.

—The Irving Leterary Society will meet at the Court House this evening.

—The days are lengthening.

—No ice has been housed in this vicinity.

—Miss Nannie Ross, of Cambridge, is visiting Mrs. Philip W. Downes.

—Subscribers changing their residence and postoffice will please notify us.

—Be sure and have your new resolutions ready for enforcement next week.

—To all the JOURNAL'S readers, young and old, big and little, we wish a happy and prosperous New Year.

—We tender our thanks to H. C. Conrad, Esq., for a pamphlet entitled, "The Press of Delaware," a history of newspaper progress in that State.

—Hon. Geo. W. Covington, member of Congress from this district, boards at Barnum's hotel in Baltimore, and goes down to Washington every day. No doubt he finds it much more desirable in every way.

—It may console the superstititious who believe that a green Christmas makes a fat graveyard to know that there is another old saw saying: "If the sun shine clear and bright on Christmas day, it promiseth a peacable year from clamors and strife, and foretelles much plenty to ensue."

SECRET:
The only dissolver of the poisonous Uric Acid which exists in the blood of Rheumatic and Gouty persons.
SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specific and supposed panacea only treat locally the effects. It has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments and soothing lotions, will not eradicate these diseases which are the results of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.
SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on the blood and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 36 per cent. cures in three days.
REMEMBER!
That Salicylica is a certain cure for Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia. The most intense pains are subdued almost instantly. Give it a trial. Relief guaranteed or money refunded. Thousands of testimonials sent on application.

ENOS JAMES & CO'S HARD HITTING GUNS.

The above cut represents the JAMES "TRIUMPH" GUN.
The demand for the James Breech-Loaders in 1881 was so great that we had great difficulty in filling all our orders. This means that Americans appreciate a good honest gun when they see it. Why pay a fancy price for a gun made by some old maker, when yo can buy a beautiful James complete gun equally as good for half the money? Or why buy a gun upon which the maker is ashamed to put his own name, when a good, reliable James gun can be had at the same price? In American products we are agents for Colt, Parker, Harrington & Richardson, and Forehand & Wadsworth.
