And the aff Thomas by leave of the Court here and according to the form of the Statute in such Case lately made and provided further comes and defends the force and Injury when &c. and saith that the aff Robert his action aff against him to have or maintain ought not because he saith that he the said Thomas before the Impetration of the Original Writ of him the said Robert paid to him the said Robert the aff Sum of One hundred and sixty five pounds Eight Shillings and one penny Sterling money of Great Brittain with the Legal Interest thereon according to

Nevertheless the aforesaid Thomas Sanderslye his attorney aforesaid relinquishing the Averments above by him pretended saith that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of him the said Robert Peter so as aforesaid above against him brought but that the writing Obligatory aforesaid is the Deed of him the said Thomas Sanders nor that he owes unto the said Robert Peter the Sum of Three hundred and thirty pounds Sixteen Shillings and two pence Sterling money in manner and form as he the said Robert Peter above thereof against him hath Declared
