the Defendant whether he knew a Hill called Stoney Hill lying in Selby's Marsh answered that he know two places that goes by that name and whether the Deponent did ask Robert Davis Jun. leave to take stone to build a House or any other purpose from the aforesaid Stoney Hills answers he does not remember but that he bought Some from Mr. Gresham taken from those Hills. The Deponent being asked by the plaintiff whether he knew any thing of a Spring used by Mr. Leathecom's people answers he did and the Same lies north nineteen degrees east forty four perches from the place where the Deponent now sits as described by the Surveyor and that he has known the said spring upwards of forty years and that the said spring was about twelve or fifteen steps within Hezekiah Leathecom's fence and the deponent being further asked if he knew any thing of a well used by Hezekiah Leathecomb's family and how near it was to the dwelling House answers about forty or fifty feet to the South east of the dwelling House and that it was used by the family near fifty years ago. and further saith not Joseph Mays.

The Deposition of Stockett Williams aged 78 years a thereabout being duly Sworn at an old Stake set in the ground south thirty one degrees west one perch from a large swamp Oak Deposeth and Saith that about seven a eight years ago Thomas Francis Leathecom and the Deponent Came together to a Sycamore tree standing about twenty yards to the westward of the aforesaid swamp Oak and that the aforesaid Leathecom went to or near the place where the aforesaid Stake now Stands and said Brother Stockett I was informed that here stood the Beginning tree of Selby's marsh the Deponent ask. him who he had his information from who said from Brother Wagner, and further saith that his Brother Wagner told that Martha Sky told him and Hezekiah Clark at one time that there was the beginning tree of Selby's marsh and that about seven or Eight and twenty years ago the Deponent's Brother in Law Francis Leathecom went to near a place described in Edmond Wagner and Robert Browns Depositions where was set up a Stake or post set up by the Commissioners but did not say it was either the begining or a Boundary of Selby's marsh but that if he lived to recover his Law Suit with the the widow Coil he would let the people in the neck know where the beginning of Selby's marsh was and about twelve years (ago)

ago Francis Leathecom told this Deponent that his uncle Thomas Leathecom told him the beginning tree of Selby's marsh stood near the great swamp Oak where the Deponent now sits the Deponent being asked by the Defendant what sort of ground it was from the aforesaid great Oak round northward to the waters edge answers there was a great quantity of green briers in many places and likewise several ponds of water two and a half or three feet Deep and that the Deponent was myred about twenty yards above the head of the marsh where it is now. and the Deponent being asked by the plaintiff whether he knew of any roads or paths leading through the Swampy or marshy Ground aforesaid answered he did three of them and that he saw two gates on the Same roads or paths and that the two Gates was upon the uppermost roads or paths and further saith not.

Stockett Williams.

The Deposition of Thomas Francis Leathecom aforesaid being duly sworn and taken at a place on Selby's Bay and said to be the place where the fourth boundary of Hazelin stood, Deposeth and Saith that Gideon Leathecom between four and five years ago told the Deponent that the fourth boundary of Hazelin stood about Sixty foot from the waters edge and further saith not.

Thomas F. Leathecom.

The Deposition of Robert Brown aged 84 years a thereabouts Deposeth and Saith that Robert Saunders proved the fourth boundary of Hazelin to stand two and an half perches to the Eastward or thereabouts of the place where Thomas Francis Leathecom proved that Gideon Leathecom shewed the Same to stand and about one and an half perches from the waters edge the Deponent being asked whether he knew of an Island lying between the fourth and third boundary answered he did, by the name of Dick Woods Island and that it did not join the main Land and the deepest water was to the southward of the Island, and further saith not

Rob. Brown.

The Deposition of the aforesaid Robert Brown taken at Turkey point deposeth and Saith that the place now shewn the Surveyor has always been deemed the second boundary of Hazelin and that the aforesaid place was Shewn this Deponent by Hezekiah Leathecom and Thomas Leathecom deceased and further saith not.

Rob. Brown

The Deposition of Thomas Mootten aged 42 years a thereabouts being duly Sworn. deposeth and saith that he was present (at)