The Deposition of Robert Brown aged as aforesaid deposed and saith that the place to bee now he is at is near to the place where was deemed Silby's Landing and always pointed at the place and meant where the same was. The Deponent being ask'd whether he knew the same place to be a landing for any other person answered he did, towit Hezekiah Linthicum and every other person that lived on said land and further saith not. Robt. Browne.

The Deposition of the aforesaid Robert Brown deposeth and saith that Hezekiah Linthicum built a house near a spon a hill near and ole Cellar and lived in it several years and further saith not. Robt. Browne.

The Deposition of the aforesaid Robert Brown taken at 60 yrs. or 17 yrs. from the dwelling house of Hezekiah Linthicum the Deponent saith that he remembers when Edward Silby senior who took up this land called Silbys marsh lived at this place and James Hackett who married his Daughter, Benjamin Clark who married Hackett's Widow and several others and further saith not. Robt. Browne.

The Deposition of Mr. Richard Williams aged about 55 years taken at an ole stake set in the ground near a small Gum tree and about 100 yards from a creek and about 25 yards from a marsh and to the westward of said creek Deposeth and saith that in the year 1762 Novem. the 20th he was at the aforesaid place with Mr. John Wilmot dec. who told him that there formerly stood a post that was fixed by commission between ole Hezekiah Linthicum and Mayo, and that it was a Boundary of both their Lands and the beginning tree of Silbys marsh, and this Deponent further saith that the Land then called Hezekiah Linthicums is now Greshams, and this Deponent further saith that the said Wilmot told him he had his information from ole Robert Saunders and Daniel Payne both deceased, and this deponent also further saith that he understood from said Wilmot that Greshams Land was called Silby's marsh and the marsh as mentioned before in Edmond Waymans Deposition was the very marsh, and that he had his information above forty years before this deponent had his information from him, and this deponent further saith that the said Wilmot told him that he lived 13 years on the said Mayo's Land, and that he never heard of any dispute a difference among the neighbours about the said boundary and that it was always agreed that it was the beginning of Silby's marsh and a Division post between his Land and the aforesaid Silbys marsh. Richd. Williams Jnr.

The Deposition of Robert Brown taken at a bounded post said to be the beginning of Poplar Hill standing between two small pear trees standing in a corn field now in the possession of Nicholas Gassaway deposeth and saith that the aforesaid post stands near a place where formerly stood a red Oak which said Oak was deemed to be the beginning of Poplar Hill and that he remembers to have seen the tree lying on the ground and the Deponent saith that he believes the said post to be a boundary of Silbys stopp. The Deponent further saith that he does not remember the said post to be in the line of any other Lands than aforesaid mentioned but believes it is not far from the line of Silbys marsh and further saith not. Robt. Browne.

The Deposition of Edmond Wayman aged forty six years a thereabouts deposeth and saith that about eighteen years ago Mr. Gresham pastured fence which her people kept in repair which this deponent thinks was the space of four years run into the head of Silby's bay at the end of nine perches on the second Course from the south boundary of Hasslin and this deponent further saith that the said Gresham rented the place to Edwd. Howden who pulled the fence down and laid the railes in heaps and the Deponent being asked whether the said fence joined the upper plantation answered it did and the Deponent further saith that Mr. Gresham's people cut down gum poles out of the thicket near adjoining the water to repair the said fence and further saith not.

Alexander Carvill jurat. Edmund his mark E W Wayman

The Deposition of Alexander Carvill aged fifty five years a thereabouts deposeth and saith that the fence mentioned in Edmund Wayman's Deposition was 36 years ago deemed to be Mr. Greshams water and pasture fence and the Deponent saith that the aforesaid fence joined the upper plantation and that Mr. Gresham kept a quarter at the lower plantation and further saith not.

John Allen. Alex his mark A Carvil

The Deposition of the aforesaid Edmond Wayman deposeth and saith that about 16 years ago Mr. Gresham's people made and fixed two Tobacco Beds on a point of Land adjoining Silby's Bay and that Cabbage grew in both beds and the Deponent saith that Mr. Gresham's people cut the brush & fencing for burning & inclosing round the aforesaid beds.

Alexander Carvil jurat. Edmund his mark E W Wayman

The Deposition of Robert Brown aged 84 years a thereabouts taken at a post set on a Beach between Hasslin creek (and)