when and so forth, and vouchethe thereof to warranty William Rawlings who is present here in Court in his proper person, and freely the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances to him the said John Slye doth warrant and so forth.

And hereupon the said Robert Slye demands against the said William Rawlings Tenant by his warranty the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances in form aforesaid and so forth.

And whereupon he saith that he was seised of the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances in his Demesne as of fee and right in the time of peace in the time of the Lord the King that now is taking the profitts thereof to the value and so forth and into which and so forth, and therefore he brings suit and so forth.

And the aforesaid William Rawlings, Tenant by his warranty comes and defends his right when and so forth, and saith that the aforesaid Hugh Hunt did not disseise the aforesaid Robert Slye of the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances as the said Robert Slye by his writ and Declaration aforesaid above doth suppose and of this he puts himself upon the Country and so forth.

And the aforesaid Robert Slye prays leave thereof to imparle, and he hath it, and so forth.

And afterwards the aforesaid Robert Slye comes again here into Court in this same Term in his proper person, and the aforesaid William Rawlings although solemnly called comes not but in contemp of the Court hath departed and makes default.

Therefore it is considered that the aforesaid Robert Slye recover his seisen against the aforesaid John Slye of the Land aforesaid above demanded, with the appurtenances, and that the aforesaid John Slye have of the Lands of the aforesaid William Rawlings to the value and so forth, and that the aforesaid William Rawlings be in mercy and so forth.

And hereupon the aforesaid Robert Slye, prays the writ of the Lord proprietary to the sheriff of Charles County to be directed to cause to be delivered to him full seisen of the Land aforesaid above demanded, with the appurtenances, and it is granted to him returnable here the Third Tuesday of October next.

Test. Reverdy Ghiselin Clk.

James Williams vs Bennett Combs

Memorandum, Command was given to the sheriff of Saint Mary's County, that he should Command Bennett Combs of Saint Mary's County, that justly and without delay he render unto James Williams, all that tract or parcell of plantable Land called Shock's Parke lying and being in Saint Mary's County aforesaid, and containing one hundred acres originally granted to a certain John Fossee, with the appurtenances which he claims to be his right and Inheritance and into which the said Bennett Combs had no entry but after a disseision which Hugh Hunt thereof unjustly and without Judgment made to the aforesaid James Williams within thirty years and so forth, and whereof the said James Williams complains that the said Bennett Combs did deforce him and unless the same Bennett Combs doth the same, and the said James Williams shall make you secure secure in prosecuting in clamour, then summon by good summoners the said Bennett Combs that he be and appear before the Justices of our Provincial Court at Annapolis the third Tuesday of May instant, and have you then and there that writ, &c.

(secure)

At which mentioned Third Tuesday of May, being the sixteenth day of the same month Anno Domini seventeen hundred and sixty nine, and the day of the return of the aforegoing writ comes the aforesaid James Williams in his proper person, and the sheriff of the County aforesaid to whom the same writ was made and directed, likewise comes and makes return thereof to the Court here thus endorsed to wit.

Pledges { John Doe and Richard Roe } Summoners { John Doe, and Richard Fenn }

Tho. Jenings Atty Gen.

So answers Rob. Watts Sher

Saint Mary's County to wit. James Williams in his proper person demands against Bennett Combs of Saint Mary's County, all that tract or parcell of plantable Land called Shocks Parke lying and being in Saint Mary's County aforesaid, and containing one hundred acres originally granted to a certain John Fossee with the appurtenances as his right and inheritance and into which the said Bennett Combs hath no entry but after a disseision which Hugh Hunt thereof unjustly and without Judgment made to him the said James Williams within thirty years and so forth.

And whereupon the said James Williams saith that he was seised of the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right in the time of peace in the time of our Lord the King that now is taking the profitts thereof to the value of and so forth, and into which and so forth, and therefore he brings suit and so forth.

And the aforesaid Bennett Combs in his proper person comes and defends his right when and so forth and vouchethe thereof to warranty John Thomas who is present here in Court in his proper person, and freely the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances to him the said Bennett Combs doth warrant and so forth.

And hereupon the said James Williams demands against the aforesaid John Thomas Tenant by his warranty the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances in form aforesaid and so forth.

And whereupon he saith that he was seised of the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right in the time of peace in the time of the Lord the King that now is taking the profitts thereof to the value of and so forth, and into which and so forth, and therefore he brings suit and so forth.

And the aforesaid John Thomas, Tenant by his warranty in his proper person, comes and defends his right when and so forth, and further vouchethe thereof to warranty William Rawlings who is present here in Court in his proper person, and freely the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances to him the said John Thomas, doth warrant and so forth.

And hereupon the aforesaid James Williams demands against him the said William Rawlings Tenant by his warranty the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances in form aforesaid and so forth.

And whereupon he saith that he was seised of the Land aforesaid above demanded with the

(the)