So answers Alexr. Calder Shff

Thos. Jennings Atty Genl.

Kent County to wit. James Holliday Gentleman in his proper person demandeth against Samuel Davis Gentleman, all that tract of plantable Land called Dulleams Folly, otherwise called Dullings Folly, lying near the head of Sassafras River containing three hundred acres with the appurtenances in Kent County aforesaid as his right and inheritance and into which the aforesaid Samuel Davis hath no Entry but after the disseisin which Hugh Hunt thereof unjustly and without Judgment made to the aforesaid James Holliday within thirty years and so forth: and whereupon he saith that he himself was seised of the Tenements aforesaid with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right in time of peace in the time of the Lord the King, that now is taking thereof the profits to the value and so forth, and into which and so forth, and therefore he bringeth suit, and so forth. And the aforesaid Samuel Davis in his proper person, cometh and defendeth his right when and so forth, and vouchsafeth thereof to warrant William Rawlings who is here present in Court in his proper person and freely the Tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances to him doth warrant and so forth.

And thereupon the aforesaid James Holliday demandeth against him the said William Rawlings, Tenant by his own warranty the Tenements aforesaid with the appurtenances in form aforesaid and so forth: And whereupon he saith that he himself was seised of the Tenements aforesaid with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right in time of peace in the time of the Lord the King that now is taking thereof the profits to the value and so forth, and into which and so forth, and therefore he bringeth suit and so forth.

And the aforesaid William Rawlings Tenant by his own warranty defends his right when and so forth, and saith that the aforesaid Hugh Hunt did not disseise the aforesaid James Holliday of the Tenements aforesaid with the appurtenances as the same James Holliday by his writ and declaration aforesaid above supposeth, and of that he puts himself upon the Country and so forth.

And the aforesaid James Holliday prayeth Licence thereof to imparle and he hath it and so forth, And afterwards the same James Holliday cometh again here into Court in this same term in his proper person, and the aforesaid William Rawlings — altho' solemnly called, cometh not again but in Contempt of the Court hath departed and made default.

Therefore it is considered that the aforesaid James Holliday recover his seisin against the aforesaid Samuel Davis of the Tenements aforesaid with the appurtenances, and that the same Samuel Davis have of the Lands of the aforesaid William Rawlings to the value and so forth, and the aforesaid William Rawlings in mercy and so forth. And thereupon the aforesaid James Holliday prayeth the writ of the right honourable the Lord proprietary, to the Sheriff of Kent County aforesaid to be directed to cause him to have full seisin of the tract of Land aforesaid with the appurtenances, and to him it is granted returnable here on the third Tuesday of October next and so forth.
