aforesaid with the appurtenances in form aforesaid and so forth. And whereupon he saith that he himself was seised of the Tenements aforesaid with the appurtenances in his domesne as of fee and right in time of peace in the time of the Lord the King that now is taking thereof the profits to the value and so forth, and into which and so forth, and therefore he brings suit and so forth.

And the aforesaid William Rawlings Tenant by his own warranty defends his right when and so forth, and saith that the aforesaid Hugh Hunt did not disseise the aforesaid James Hollyday of the Tenements aforesaid with the appurtenances as the aforesaid James Hollyday by his writ and Declaration aforesaid above supposeth — and of that hopeth himself upon the Country and so forth.

And the aforesaid James Hollyday prayeth licence thereof to imparle and he hath it, and so forth, and afterwards the same James Hollyday cometh again here into Court in this same term in his proper person, and the aforesaid William Rawlings altho' solemnly called cometh not again but in contempt of the Court hath departed and made Default.

Therefore it is considered that the aforesaid James Hollyday recover his seisin against the aforesaid Henry McLachlan of the Tenements aforesaid with the appurtenances, and that the same Henry McLachlan have of the Lands of the aforesaid — William Rawlings to the value and so forth, and the aforesaid William Rawlings in Mercy and so forth.

And thereupon the aforesaid James Hollyday prayeth the writ of the right honourable the Lord proprietary to the Sheriff of Kent County aforesaid to be directed to cause him to have full seisin of the Tenements aforesaid with the appurtenances, and to him it is granted returnable here on the third Tuesday of October next and so forth
