Rawlings, be in mercy and so forth. And hereupon the aforesaid Thomas Ringgold prays the writ of the Lord proprietary to the sheriff of Dorchester County to be directed to cause to be delivered to him full seisin of the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances, and it is granted to him returnable here the third Tuesday of October next.

Test Reverdy Ghiselin, Clk

Ex.

Benjamin Mackall, (son of James John Mackall,) against Young Parran, and Elizabeth his wife, and Samuel Parran, and wife

Maryland, to wit. Command was given to the sheriff of Charles County, that he should command Young Parran and Elizabeth his wife, and Samuel Parran and Ann his wife that justly and without delay they render unto Benjamin Mackall (son of James John Mackall) all that tract or parcell of plantable land called Wiltshire Plains lying and being in Charles County aforesaid and containing three hundred and thirty acres with the appurtenances which he claims to be his right and inheritance, and into which the said Young Parran and Elizabeth his wife, and Samuel Parran and Ann his wife, had no entry, but after a disseisin which Hugh Hunt thereof unjustly and without Judgment made to the aforesaid Benjamin Mackall within thirty years and so forth. And whereof the said Benjamin Mackall complained that the said Young Parran and Elizabeth, and Samuel Parran and Ann his wife, had deforced him, and unless the same Young Parran and Elizabeth his wife, and Samuel Parran and Ann his wife, should do the same, and the said Benjamin Mackall shall make you secure in prosecuting his clamour, then he should summon by good summoners the said Young Parran and Elizabeth his wife, and Samuel Parran and Ann his wife, that they should be and appear before the Justices of our provincial Court at Annapolis the Third Tuesday of May then next, and that the said sheriff should have then and there that writ, &c.

At which mentioned Third Tuesday of May being the twentieth day of the same month Anno Domini seventeen hundred and sixty nine, and the day of the return of the aforegoing writ, comes the aforesaid Benjamin Mackall, son of James John Mackall in his proper person, and the sheriff of the County aforesaid to whom the same writ was directed, likewise comes and makes return thereof to the Court here thus endorsed, to wit.

Pledges John Doe, and Richard Roe. Summons John Denn and Richard Fenn

So answers Richd Lee, Ins. Sheriff

Thos. Jennings Atty Genl.

To which aforegoing writ was annexed the following warrant of attorney to wit. Maryland, to wit. Young Parran and Elizabeth his wife, and Samuel Parran and Ann his wife, do and each of them doth hereby put in their place and stead John Rogers one of the attornies of the Provincial Court against Benjamin Mackall son of James John Mackall, demandant, to gain or lose in a plea of Land, and to vouch to warranty thereof William Rawlings, common vouchee of the same Court.

Witness

Witness our hands and seals this eighteenth day of April seventeen hundred and sixty nine.

Young Parran (seal) Saml. Parran (seal)
Eliz.a Parran (seal) Ann Parran (seal)

Taken and acknowledged the day and year above said, before me one of his Lordships Justices of the Provincial Court, and at the same time I did examine the above named Elizabeth and Ann, seperately, privately and apart from and out of the hearing of their said Husbands respectively, and they the said Elizabeth and Ann did severally declare that they freely and voluntarily, and of their own accord join in the common recovery of the above mentioned Land.

before J. Hepburn.

Charles County to wit. Benjamin Mackall (son of James John Mackall) in his proper person demands against Young Parran, and Elizabeth his wife, and Samuel Parran and Ann his wife, all that tract or parcell of plantable land called Wiltshire Plains lying and being in Charles County aforesaid and containing three hundred and thirty acres with the appurtenances as his right and inheritance and into which the said Young Parran and Elizabeth his wife and Samuel Parran, and Ann his wife, have no entry, but after a disseisin which Hugh Hunt thereof unjustly and without Judgment made to him the said Benjamin Mackall within thirty years and so forth. And whereupon the said Benjamin Mackall saith that he was seised of the Land aforesaid with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right in the time of peace, in the time of our Lord the king that now is taking the profits thereof to the value of and so forth, and into which and so forth, and therefore he brings suit and so forth.

And the aforesaid Young Parran and Elizabeth his wife, and Samuel Parran, and Ann his wife by John Rogers their attorney, come and defend their right when and so forth, and vouch thereof to warranty William Rawlings who is present here in Court in his proper person, and freely the Land aforesaid, with the appurtenances to them the said Young Parran and Elizabeth his wife, and Samuel Parran, and Ann, his wife, doth warrant and so forth.

And hereupon the said Benjamin Mackall demands against the said William Rawlings, Tenant by his warranty the Land aforesaid with the appurtenances in form aforesaid and so forth. And whereupon he saith that he was seised of the Land aforesaid with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right in the time of peace in the time of the Lord the king that now is taking the profits thereof to the value of and so forth, and into which and so forth, and therefore he brings suit and so forth.

And the aforesaid William Rawlings, Tenant by his warranty comes and defends his right when and so forth, and saith that the aforesaid Hugh Hunt did not disseise the aforesaid Benjamin Mackall of the Land aforesaid with the appurtenances, as the said Benjamin Mackall by his writ and Declaration aforesaid above doth suppose and of this he puts himself upon the Country and so forth.

And the aforesaid Benjamin Mackall prays leave thereof to imparle and he hath it and so forth. And afterwards the aforesaid Benjamin Mackall comes again here into Court in this same term in his proper person, and the aforesaid William Rawlings all the (solemnly,