rendor unto John Rogers, all that tract or parcell of plantable land called Pheasant Hill (alias Pheasants Hills) lying and being in Prince Georges County and containing fifty two acres of land, also all that tract or parcell of plantable land called Trueman's Hills, lying and being in Prince Georges County aforesaid and containing one hundred and fifty acres of land, also all that part of the aforesaid tract or parcell of plantable land called Pheasants Hill, which is contained within the lines courses and distances following to wit. Beginning at a bounded white oak standing by a branch side it being the beginning tree of a tract of land called Prevention and a bound tree of Pheasant Hill running thence East south East thirty three and an half perches, thence by such a line drawn Notherly to intersect the given line of Pheasant Hill as will divide the tract in two equal parts (exclusive of Eleven acres that is included in a Mortgage from James Greenfield to Thomas Trueman Greenfield) Also that part of the aforesaid tract or parcell of plantable land Trueman's Hills which is contained within the lines courses and distances following to wit. Beginning at the beginning of Thomas Smith Greenfield's eighty five acres of the said Land being the end of the last course of the part laid out for Joshua Beall and Eleanor his wife, and in the head line of the parcell of land mentioned in a Deed of Trust from James Greenfield to his wife Eleanor Greenfield and her three Children Sarah, Eleanor, and Thomas Smith Greenfield, and running thence with the first line of Thomas Smith Greenfield's eighty five acres, Viz. South sixty three degrees thirty minutes westerly two hundred and eight perches to the third line being the south twenty nine degrees East line of a parcell of land formerly mortgaged by James Greenfield deceased to his brother Thomas Trueman Greenfield of Saint Mary's County, which said parcell of land is now in the possession of the said Thomas Smith Greenfield, thence running with the said line and bounding therewith South twenty nine degrees East until it intersects the main North branch of Deep Creek thence down the said branch as the said branch runneth and bounding therewith until it intersects with the fourth line being the west thirty six perch line of the parcell of land mentioned in the Deed of Trust aforesaid, thence running with the said line west to the end thereof, thence with the fifth line of the said Land North west thirty two perches, thence with the head line of the said Land and bounding therewith North eight degrees East to the beginning aforementioned containing one hundred and thirty five acres of land with the appurtenances which he claimed to be his right and inheritance and into which the said Henry Brookes had no Entry, but after a disseisin which Hugh Hunt thereof unjustly and without Judgment made to the aforesaid John Rogers within thirty years and so forth.

And whereof the said John Rogers complained that the said Henry Brookes had do force him and unless the same Henry Brookes, should do the same, and the said John Rogers should make you secure in prosecuting his clamour, that he should then summon by good summoners the said Henry Brookes that he should be and appear before the Justices of his Lordships Provincial Court at annapolis, the third Tuesday of May Instant, and that the said sheriff should have then and there that writ, &c.

At which mentioned Third Tuesday of May, being the sixteenth day of the same month Anno Domini seventeen hundred and sixty nine, and the day of the return of the foregoing writ, comes the aforesaid John Rogers in his proper person, and the sheriff of the County aforesaid to whom the same writ was made directed, likewise comes and makes return thereof to the Court here thus endorsed to wit.

(foregoing)

Pledges	John Doe and Richard Roe	Summoners	John Denn and Richard Fenn

to answers

Thomas Jennings Atty Genl. John Addison Atty of Ply Coty

Prince Georges County to wit. John Rogers in his proper person demands against Henry Brookes of Prince Georges County, all that tract or parcell of plantable land called Pheasant Hill (alias Pheasants Hills) lying and being in Prince Georges County and containing fifty two acres of land, also all that tract or parcell of plantable land called Trueman's Hills lying and being in Prince Georges County aforesaid and containing one hundred and fifty acres of land, also all that part of the aforesaid tract or parcell of plantable land called Pheasant Hill which is contained within the lines courses and distances following to wit, Beginning at a bounded white oak standing by a branch side it being the beginning tree of a tract of land called Prevention and a bound tree of Pheasant Hill running thence East South East thirty three and an half perches, thence by such a line drawn Notherly to intersect the given line of Pheasant Hill, as will divide the tract in two equal parts (exclusive of Eleven acres that is included in a Mortgage from James Greenfield to Thomas Trueman Greenfield) also all that part of the aforesaid tract or parcell of plantable called Trueman's Hills which is contained within the lines courses and distances following to wit, Beginning at the beginning of Thomas Smith Greenfield's eighty five acres of the said Land being the end of the last course of the part laid out for Joshua Beall and Eleanor his wife, and in the head line of the parcell of Land mentioned in a Deed of Trust from James Greenfield to his wife Eleanor Greenfield, and her three Children Sarah, Eleanor, and Thomas Smith Greenfield, and running thence with the first line of Thomas Smith Smith Greenfield's eighty five acres, Viz. South sixty three degrees thirty minutes westerly two hundred and eight perches to the third line being the south twenty nine degrees East line of a parcell of land formerly mortgaged by James Greenfield deceased to his brother Thomas Trueman Greenfield of Saint Mary's County which said parcell of Land is now in the possession of the said Thomas Smith Greenfield thence running with the said line and bounding therewith south twenty nine degrees East until it intersects the main North branch of Deep Creek thence down the said branch as the said branch runneth and bounding therewith until it intersects with the fourth line being the west thirty six perch line of the parcell of Land mentioned in the Deed of Trust aforesaid thence running with the said line west to the end thereof, thence with the fifth line of the said Land North west thirty two perches, thence with the head line of the said Land and bounding therewith North eight degrees East to the beginning aforementioned containing one hundred and thirty five acres of Land with the appurtenances to the same several tracts and parcells of Land belonging as his right and inheritance and into which the said Henry Brookes hath no Entry, but after a disseisin which Hugh Hunt thereof unjustly and without Judgment made to him the said John Rogers within thirty years and so forth.

And whereupon the said John Rogers saith that he was seised of the Lands aforesaid

(above)