DENTON JOURNAL.

Saturday Morning, April 11, 1885.

☞Items of news from all parts of the county solicited under this head.

THE LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Change of Schedule.—We publish to-day the spring schedule of the Chester River Steamboat Company.

Fish.—Shad, herrings, perch, etc., have been very plentiful in Denton this week. The prices are: Shad, per pair, 50 cents; herrings, $1 per hundred, and perch 25 cents per bunch.

Amusements.—"Red Riding Hood," with hundreds of other interesting pictures for young and old, will be exhibited at the Court House next Wednesday evening by Roe's magic lantern.

The Newspaper and Young Ladies.—Young ladies who are accustomed to read the newspapers are always observed to possess winning ways, most amiable dispositions, invariably make good wives, and always select good husbands.

Wheat. — Farmers from various parts of the county report a remarkable change for the better in the appearance of wheat. The plants are growing out of their yellow and unhealthy hue and the prospect for a crop gets better.

A Bovine Wonder.—Mr. J. H. Covey, near American Corner, has a 2-year-old heifer which has been giving milk for a year. Much of the time the young cow, though never having had a calf, gave at least a half gallon at a milking.

Burned to Death.—A colored woman named Horner who lived in Federalsburg was burned to death Friday of last week. She was burning away the grass from her garden and her clothing became ignited. Before assistance could be had she was so badly burned that death resulted during the night.

A Camp-Meeting at Chestnut Grove. Rev. John Warthman says there is now but little doubt that there will be a camp-meeting held at Chestnut Grove this summer. Many persons, recalling the pleasant hours spent there last year on the tented ground will welcome the news.

Peddlers.—A number of medicine and dry goods peddlers have traversed Caroline county lately. They dress well, live on the "fat of the land" and at the expense of persons who make their living by hard labor. The only safe plan to adopt is to have nothing to do with these disreputable people.

Leg Broken.—A team of four mules and horses, belonging to Mr. Pennel Cooper, of Tuckahoe Neck, became frightened last Tuesday and ran away. Mr. Cooper seized the bridle of one of the frightened mules, and was thrown under one of the wagon wheels, which passed over him, breaking his right leg just above the ankle. Dr. Wm. H. Downes reduced the fracture.

Personal Mention.—Hon. Charles H. Gibson was in Denton on Monday last in attendance at court. Many of his Caroline constituents called upon him at the Brick Hotel. A number of gentlemen were present to urge the claims of various applicants for office to be filled by recommendation of Mr. Gibson, as Congressman of the first district.

—Prof. Wilson M. Tylor has purchased the Easton (Md.) Gazette. Mr. J. Edward Tylor will assist him in the editoral management of the paper.

Goldsborough Items. — There has been much sickness in this neighborhood during the winter and spring, and the unusual mortality has saddened many happy homes.

—Jones, Graham & Booker last week started their new saw mill. They have a 25-horse power Wood, Tabor & Morse stationary engine. Their timber yard has a business-like appearance.

—A new street, parallel with the railroad, on the west side of the village is now open and ready to be ornamented with new residences, which are to be built this year. Our little village will likely be much improved within the next twelve months.

—There was a hop given at the residence of Mr. J. C. Bennett ast Tuesday night.

School Board Notes. — The colored schools of Caroline counnty will close on the 30th inst.

—Mr. Joshua Beachamp has been appointed a trustee of Saulsbury's school, Tuckahoe Neck.

—It is proposed to erect a new school house near the site of Goo-e-pond school, and convert the old building into a colored school.

—Miss Clara Downes has been appointed first assistant teacher of Denton Academy, vice Miss Mollie Davis resigned.

—The school board will meet on May 5 to make appointments for all s chools of the county.

Capsized in the Creek.—Mr. J. Tilghman Todd and two younger brothers left their wharf on the Talbot shore of Tuckahoe creek in a small boat last Saturday morning to come to Caroline county to make a survey. The wind was blowing hard and when about two hundred yards from the landing the boat capsized and turned the young men into the middle of the creek. A fisherman not far off saw the sail go down and heard the calls for help, but decided not to go to the rescue until he had taken up his seine. He caught two herrings and in the meantime the shipwrecked party swam to the Caroline shore. If the capsized party had not been expert swimmers they would probably have been drowned. The elder Mr. Todd had to take off his overcoat while swimming to enable him to reach the shore. The surveyor's chain and pins and some other articles went down in water thirty feet deep.

Serious Accident.—A young man named Whipp, a painter from Greensborough fell from a ladder yesterday morning while at work on Col. Bryants house, and at this writing is still unconscious.

Markets.—Telegraphic advices from Baltimore indicate a considerable rise in grain prices, in consequence of the prospect of European war. Good to prime fultz wheat is selling at 90 and 94 cents.

The Machine Agents' Absence.—The number of machine agents, representing the different manufacturing companies, usually in attendance, have not put in appearance at the present session of court. The spring term is usually availed of to display to the farmers assembled from all parts of the county the merits of the various manufactures. Mr. Holbrook, of the hardware firm of Evitts & Holbrook, says there is a great decrease in the demand for all costly machinery. This he attributes to the low prices of wheat and the poor crop in prospect.

New Advertisements.—Thos. S. Kinnamon, Goldsborough, advertises a few specialties in his spring stock. He has a full assortment of general merchandise which will be sold at bed-rock figures.

—William E. Dunnock, a young gentleman from Baltimore, who has located among us, uses a large space in the JOURNAL to-day announcing his reduction sale to be carried on until May 2nd, when his store will be filled with new goods. Mr. Dunnock's mercantile qualifications are exceptionally good. His announcement to-day that he "will not allow anyone to leave the store without what they want if their offer is at all reasonable" will be a great attraction at the reduction sale.

—Read the new advertisement of James A. Trazzare's grocery and provision store which appears in this issue. The stock of this establishment is complete and of the best quality.

—Farmers will be repaid by a perusal of the advertisement of William Clark and Co., manufacturers of high grade phosphates, New York city. C. F. Smith, Ridgely, Md., deals in these standard goods.

—P. H. McShane, Ridgely's genial and popular merchant tailor, has a card in another column inviting attention to his spring samples. Mr. McShane bears a good reputation for fidelity to the wants of his customers.

—County Treasurer Cook makes statement of the county's financial affairs for the quarter ending March 31, 1885.

—W. H. Withgott & Bro., the well-known machinists of Easton, bring their business before the Caroline public by a card in the JOURNAL to-day.

—The secretary of the school board gives notice of the close of colored schools.

Church Items. — Chestnut Grove church, lately transferred from the Federalsburg to the Burrsville circuit, has been again placed on the Federalsburg circuit.

—Bishop Lay, who has been dangerously sick in New York city, is recovering.

—Rev. S. D. Hall will hold service at Houston's Branch school house tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

—Pastor Kidney will preach at the M. E. church in Ridgely to-morrow at 3 p. m. Subject: "Christ, the Beloved."

—Presiding Elder Caldwell has announced his quarterly conference appointments. He will visit Greensborough on the 22nd and 24th, Marydel on the 23rd and 25th, and Hillsborough on the 30th and 31st.

—Rev. J. E. Kidney, pastor of Hillsborough M. E. church, will preach to-morrow morning, having for his theme the 8th Soug of Solomon. In the evening "Little Foxes," Song 15, will be the subject.

—The Easter service given by the Sunday school in Ridgely M. E. church, under the supervision of Mr. T. W. Smith, superintendent, was instructive and entertaining. The different speakers acquitted themselves well. The music was good. Miss Carrie Seigler presided at the organ.

—At the Easter service in the M. E. church at this place, Rev. T. O. Ayres preached a very able and beautiful sermon on the Resurrection. The choir sang some fine pieces of music, including "Essex," "Rialto," etc. At the evening service the choir rendered very admirably the "Old Easter Anthem."

—The Easter services in Christ church were particularly interesting and enjoyable. There were four services, including the Sunday school, all well attended. The sunrise service was very refreshing. The appropriate music and flowers added greatly to the occasion. An especial feature of the beautiful and tasteful decorations of the church was an offering by Mrs. Russum of a handsomely embroidered antependium for the lectern. The embroidery was done with her own fingers. There was also an Easter offering of vases for the altar given by another family. The rectory fund was increased ten dollars.

—The assignment of the Rev. Dr. Bristor by the Newark, N. J., Methodist Conference to the pastorate of the Methodist church at Spring Valley, N. Y., has led to a factional quarrel among its members. Some are disposed to recognize the authority of the conference. Others say that Dr. Bristor was sent to the Spring Valley church because he could not be pushed into any other pulpit, and that his appointment is an insult to the church It is rumored in Spring Valley that Dr. Bristor does not intend to honor the church by his presence; that he forced his recognition by the conference to the extent of securing an appointment only to clear his skirts, and that he contemplates becoming the pastor of a church of another denomination in Brooklyn, N. Y., eastern district. The church at Spring Valley, N. Y., is a small one, and the salary allowed to the pastor is only $600 per year.

Orphans' Court.—At the session of the Orphan's Court of last Tuesday Judges Moore, Willis and Johnson and James B. Steele, Esq., register, were present. The business before the court was the following: On application of John Beachamp, executor of Thomas Beachamp, deceased, the court ordered that he make sale of the real estate devised to be sold. The warrant to appraise and the appraisement of the real estate of David Marine, deceased, were returned. The renunciation of Celia Mowbray widow of Joseph Mowbray, deceased, was filed. The renunciation of Ann E. Douglass, daughter of Joseph Mowbray, was filed. The will of Joseph Mowbray, deceased, was admitted to probate. Letters of administration on the personal estate of William Sapp, deceased, were granted to James E. Sapp. T. Fred Garey, Jr., administrator of Sarah E. Sorden, deceased, presented interest account and first and final accounts of administration and distribution; passed. Charles E. and Marion Starkey, administrators of John E. Starkey, deceased, presented interest account and second and final accounts of administration and distribution, which were passed. William E. Liden, administrator of Shadrach Liden, deceased, presented list of sperate debts and first and final accounts of administration, which were passed. Julia A. Graham, administratrix of James Graham, deceased, presented final receipts and releases of James E. Graham and William A. Graham; passed. The court passed an order ratifying, conditionally, sale of real estate of John P. Todd, deceased, reported by George M. Russum, trustee. Warrant to appraise and appraisement of the real estate of John Frazer, deceased, returned. Court adjourned until Thursday last.

Preston Points.—Our Preston correspondent, "Norwood," sends us the following fancies and facts under date of April 9:

—In former years—away back in the forties—at the approach of the noontide of spring it was a pleasant pastime to take either a ride or walk along our country highways. Then, when half the days of fickle, blustering April had stepped behind the scenes of the Here to the Hereafter the forests were clad in vernal vestments, and the trailing arbutus and wayside violet greeted the nostrils of the young man whose

"Fancy lightly turned to thoughts of love"

with pleasing perfumes, as he took his vesper stroll forestward; and his girl's, too, if she happened to be along—and more than likely she was. But now o' years, and specifically this year, O-o-o-h! it makes one shiver to hear the wind sighing and moaning through the leafless treetops mid-April. It may be, however, that the shivering is caused by a demand from the wife for a new seal-skin sacque or the necessity for a second-hand overcoat for the party of the second part. There is a good deal of shivering going on around here from some cause or other, and I guess we had better charge it to the weather. But summer's first-born daughter, June, will doubtless be on time, and then for strawberries and cream, pretty girls, picnics, etcetera; an immaculate table-cloth, two large plates with no nicks in the edges, filled with luscious a pitcher of ice-water, two silver spoons, a pretty girl for company, and a third party, not present, to foot the bill, is my idea of the capstone of the climax of mundane enjoyment. But this is not news, and news—fresh and crisp—is the JOURNAL'S chief desire.

"Strawberries all smothered in cream,"

—Farmers hereabout do not know a tenth as much about the prospective wheat crop as they did a month ago. Sometime back, when our fields gave no sign of vegetable life, nine out of every ten of our agricultural friends were cock sure that the wheat crop in this vicinage would be a total failure, one-fourth of an average crop would be all that could be gathered. Now the remark is, "Well, I don't know; wheat is looking so much better than it did, we may get a middlin' crap, after all." That the prospects have improved wonderfully in the last few days may be set down as a fact.

—Owing to impaired health and increasing years, Dr. Andrew Stafford has deemed it prudent to enter into a partnership with a younger man, and Dr. R. H. Van Dyke, of Kennedyville, Kent county, Md., has been selected as his assistant. Doctor Van Dyke is a graduate of the University of Maryland, of the class of 1883-4, and spent one year in the Maryland Infirmary. He is of pleasing manners, genial, and a bachelor.

—Death has been busy in our midst during the past few months. The last to receive a summons from the dreaded Reaper, in our immediate vicinity, was Mrs. Chloe Bradley, widow of the late John Bradley. She died early on Tuesday morning, 7th inst., at the residence of her son, Mr. Wm. S. Bradley, near Linchester. She was not far from 80 years of age, and for many years was a great sufferer from neuralgia.

—Choptank, a village that has grown up around Medford's wharf, is growing in importance as a shipping point for fish, both in the spring and fall. There are more fish shipped from this place, it is thought, than from any other wharf on the river above Secretary.

—The prospect for a fair crop of peaches is favorable, though many blighted buds may be found on the trees bearing yellow fruit. There is not much probability of a blasting frost after the 20th of April, and but few peach trees will be in bloom by that date.

—Farmers are not badly behind with their work, and most of them will be ready to plant corn as soon as usual.

April Court.—The April term of the circuit court was convened Monday at noon, Present; Judge Stump, L. H. Gadd, clerk; George A. Deakyne, deputy clerk, and John W. Stevens, sheriff. ADMITTED TO THE BAR.

The examination for admission to our bar of Mr. Emory Burnite, of Talbot, was concluded Thursday evening. He acquitted himself very creditably, and was duly sworn in. Mr. Burnite's examination showed him to have a thorough knowledge of his general reading.

Mr. J. Edward Tylor made application for admission to the bar, and was questioned Wednesday evening, by Messrs. Russum and Bryant. His examination showed him to be familiar with all branches of his studies. Mr. Tylor will remove to Easton, Md. Such qualities of head and heart as are possessed by the young lawyer will win for him the respect and esteem of the people among whom he is to locate.

GRAND JURY'S REPORT.

The grand jury adjourned on Thursday at 2 o'clock. The following report was submitted by the foreman, William C. Satterfield: We have examined the jail and find the roof to be in a very leaky and dilapidated condition; beds and bedding insufficient for the comfort of prisoners, and the outbuildings in need of repairs. The interior of the jail is, however, kept in a neat and tidy condition. We recommend that the jail and outbuildings receive immediate attention. We have also examined the bridge across the Choptank river and find it in good repair, except the south end, which needs attention; and recommend that lights be placed on the same on dark nights for the public convenience. We have examined fifty-one witnesses, issued twelve summonses and found seven presentments, and examined six constables.

VISITING ATTORNEYS.

During the week the following attorneys from other courts were in attendance: John B. Brown and Edwin H. Brown, Centreville; Chas. H. Gibson, W. E. Stewart, Oswald Tilghman, Chas. E. Shannahan and William R. Martin, Easton, and H. C. Conrad, of Delaware.

Imperial power rests with the Farmer. The great freight corporations seek him that they may take toll upon his ample stores. We traders seek him to take our stuff. His staples are down, his face long—but why? No reason, while his dollar will buy so much. The Oak Hall stock proves this. Our story for this spring is a tale of cheapness. Note these examples in Men's Suits: Blue Flannel Suits, $6.50, $10.00, $12.00, $15.00. They are all, except the lowest, all-wool and all full indigo color. All-wool Black Cheviot Suits, $8.50 and $10.00. Black Corkscrew and Diagonal Worsted Suits, $13.00, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00, $22.50, $25.00, $28.00, $30.00. Brown, Wine, Blue and Dahlia Worsted Suits, $15.00, $20.00, $22.50, $25.00, $28.00. Just so through all the stock, the three great E E E's, Elegance, Excellence, Economy, prevail.

Pleasures of the Imagination.

Copyright, 1885, Wanamaker & Brown.

Happy youngster. A chair, a box, half a dozen big books, bits of cord and cork. Papa's cane, Mamma's aquarium, and a vivid imagination, supply all his needs. Neither Rangeley trout nor Saguenay salmon can so delight the expert angler. Imagination has joys and limits. It will not make a dear thing cheap nor an old thing new. Real wants demand real supplies, and this fact underlies the great Oak Hall Million Dollar investment in Clothing and Cloths for Men and Boys. Real Bargains must be facts—hence the Oak Hall system offers only Bargains. For Boys the stock is big. Large Boys' Suits, $5.00 to $18.00. Small Boys' Blouse Suits, $3.50 to $12.00. Sailor Suits, $2.50 to $6.00.

DUNNOCK'S GREAT REDUCTION

Will justify anyone in calling at his store, formerly Mr. Wm. A. Stewart's, as the amount of goods must be reduced to make room for his new spring stock, and in order to do so he has marked down his whole stock to very low prices. He has also filled up his stock where needed, and those wishing to test his future prices have only to give him a call. His stock is in prime condition and consists of Dry Goods, Notions, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Caps, Groceries, Cigars, Tobacco and Confectionery.

It costs nothing to call and examine, and Mr. Dunnock will not allow anyone to leave his store without what they want if their offer is at all reasonable.

TERMS CASH. FULL CASH PRICES ALLOWED IN GOODS FOR COUNTRY PRODUCE.

N. B.—I further state that from the fact of my having had considerable experience in some of the largest business houses in Baltimore, I can buy my goods at Very Low Figures. I consequently can and will keep on hand a prime stock in all my branches and sell at very reduced prices as compared with the general country store. Very Respectfully,

WM. E. DUNNOCK.
