Lord the King that now is taking thereof the profits to the value of and so forth, and into which and so forth, and whereupon he brings suit and so forth –

And the aforesaid Charles Allason Ford, in his proper person comes and defends his right when and so forth, and vouchetth thereof to warranty William Rawlings who is present here in Court in his proper person, and freely the Lands aforesaid with the appurtenances to him the said Charles Allason, doth warrant; and thereupon the aforesaid John Hall, demands against the aforesaid William Rawlings, Tenant by his own warranty the Lands aforesaid with the appurtenances in form aforesaid and so forth: And whereupon he saith that he was seised of the Lands aforesaid with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right in the time of peace in the time of the Lord the King that now is taking thereof the profits to the value of and so forth, and into which and so forth, and thereupon he brings suit and so forth

And the said William Rawlings, Tenant by his own warranty in his proper person comes and defends his right when and so forth, and saith that the aforesaid Hugh Hunt, did not disseise the said John Hall of the Lands aforesaid with the appurtenances, as the said John, by his writ and declaration aforesaid hath above – supposed, and of this he puts himself upon the Country, and so forth

And the said John Hall prays leave thereof to imparle, and he hath it, and afterwards the same John Hall comes again into Court here, the same Term, and the said William Rawlings although solemnly called comes not, but in contempt of the Court hath departed, and made default. –

Therefore it is considered that the aforesaid John Hall recover his seisin against the said Charles Allason, of the Lands aforesaid with the appurtenances, and that the said Charles Allason, have of the Lands of the said William to the value of and so forth, and that the said William Rawlings, be in mercy and so forth –

And upon this the said John Hall, prays the writ of the right Honorable the Lord proprietary that now is to be directed to the Sheriff of Charles County aforesaid to cause to be delivered to the said John Hall full seisin of the Lands aforesaid with the – appurtenances, and it is granted unto him returnable the second Tuesday of April next, and so forth.
