to him the said Charles Crookshanks within thirty Years and so forth And whereupon the said Charles Crookshanks saith that he was seised of the Lands aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and Right in the time of peace in the time of our Lord the King that now is taking the profits thereof to the value and so forth and into which and so forth and therefore he brings Suit and so forth,

And the aforesaid John Pemberton by Nicholas Thomas his Attorney comes and defends his Right when and so forth and Voucheth thereof to Warranty Thomas Ijams who is present here in Court in his proper person and freely the Lands aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances to him the said Charles Crookshanks doth Warrant and so forth

And hereupon the said Charles Crookshanks demands against the said Thomas Ijams Tenant by his Warranty the Lands aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances in form aforesaid and so forth And whereupon he saith that he was seised of the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and Right in the time of peace in the time of the Lord the King that now is taking the profits thereof to the value and so forth and into which and so forth and therefore he brings Suit and so forth.

And the said Thomas Ijams Tenant by his Warranty comes and defends his right when and so forth and saith that the aforesaid Hugh Hunt did not disseise the aforesaid Charles Crookshanks of the Lands aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances as the said Charles Crookshanks by his Writ and Declaration aforesaid above hath supposed And of this he puts himself upon the Country and so forth

And the aforesaid Charles Crookshanks prays leave thereof to imparle and he hath it and so forth. And afterwards the aforesaid Charles Crookshanks comes again here into Court in this same Term in his proper person and the aforesaid Thomas Ijams although solemnly called comes not but in Contempt of the Court hath departed and makes default

Therefore it is considered that the aforesaid Charles Crookshanks recover his Seisin against the aforesaid John Pemberton of the Lands aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances and that the aforesaid John Pemberton have of the Lands of the aforesaid Thomas Ijams to the value and so forth And that the aforesaid Thomas Ijams be in Mercy and so forth,

And hereupon the aforesaid Charles Crookshanks prays the Writ of the Lord Proprietary to the Sheriff, of Queen Anns County to be directed to cause to be delivered to him full Seisin of the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances and it is granted to him returnable here the second tuesday of April next and so forth.
