ENOCH GEORGE, Chairman.
HOWARD MELVIN, Secretary.

LET there be a large turnout at the Democratic mass-meetings to be held at Goldsborough and Bridgetown this afternoon and evening.

"IT's another St. John case," urges the Rev. Thomas White, colored, of Denton, to his brethren, whenever he hears the new movement discussed by them. Thomas believes there is some hidden wrath in the new ticket, and he views it with alarm. It is safe to predict that the colored vote will be completely harnessed as usual.

IT is through the Democracy that the spirit of popular government is best preserved, and it is to that party that, first and last, we must look for the most effective means of resistance against those who would concentrate the powers of the people in the hands of the few. It is the Democracy which has the welfare of the masses most keenly at heart, for it is the masses that make and govern the Democracy.

Mr. Mason Declines.

To the Editor of THE JOURNAL:

In your issue of the 3d inst., I noticed, in the proceedings of the Anti-Bribery Convention, that my name is used as one of the central committee for the Sixth district. This was done without my knowledge or consent. While I am strongly in favor of the abolition of bribery, and am willing to do all in my power for the suppression of money at election, I cannot endorse the present movement.

The Democratic candidates, in answer to Mr. Townsend's letter did all that could have been required of them at that time; and, had the Republicans come out as decidedly as did the Democrats, I think an arrangement might have been entered into by which the use of money at the election might have been dispensed with this fall.

I am personally acquainted with most of the Democratic candidates, and believe them to be as good men and true as any on the opposing tickets, and shall give them my hearty support.

We want our bribery laws amended so as to make them practicable, and we could not send better men to the legislature to assist in working this or any other good reform than those who compose the Democratic ticket. Will they, if elected, use their efforts to have the bribery laws amended? Let them answer for themselves. Respectfully,

A. T. MASON.

Hillsborough, Oct. 6.

[We have the personal and direct assurance from all the gentlemen composing the Democratic legislative ticket that, should they be elected, they will lend their most earnest endeavor toward the furtherance of legislative enactments which shall, if it be possible, totally abolish the sale or purchase of suffrage in this State. These gentlemen look alone to constitutional and legislative action for a remedy; and to these sources alone can we we look for permanent relief.—EDS.]

A Reply to "Anti-Bribery."

To the Editor of THE JOURNAL.

In your issue of last week, there appeared an article on the third ticket question, signed "Anti-Bribery." I consider it obligatory on myself to reply to the writer, from the fact of the glaring misrepresentations found therein. Now, in respect to the two propositions: First, that the ticket will not be elected. I answer that it matters not what the result will be. One thing I am assured of—we are right and are following a line of duty which every honest man ought to consider carefully. Second, It will draw the best thinking men from each party. Why, Mr. Editor, we frankly admit that this is the object sought after, knowing full well that the thinking men of Caroline county are opposed to the use of money at the primary and general election. We have not lost faith in the people of this county. The mere assertion that it will leave the offices of public trust to be filled by unprincipled men, would seem to be an acknowledgment that the composition of the Democratic and Republican tickets are not quite up to the standard of the gentleman's high-toned views.

Now, Mr. Editor, in respect to some personalities appearing in the article. First, "there are none (perhaps one) on that ticket, but has taken part in the primary election to nominate a Democratic or Republican ticket, and is therefore in duty bound to support the nominations." In reply to this assertion I simply say that the above is a tissue of misrepresentation which no honorable man ought to make without due consideration. Mr. Editor, I also wish to reply to the question as to the man singled out, and made the especial target for the gentleman's vituperations. Of what has he been guilty? Some heinous crime? "A delegate to one of the conventions, coming very near being elected one of the nominees of the same." The fact is the party referred to was appointed on the committee to wait on the Democratic and Republican conventions, asking the required pledges, as directed by the anti-bribery convention. While there, without his consent, and in direct opposition to his wishes, he was selected as an alternate to fill the place of one of the delegates not present, and cast but one vote, and that was in opposition to himself.

Mr. Editor, I would like to give the would-be anti-bribery gentlemen some advice in respect to his conduct in future, particularly as far as the one candidate is concerned: Stick to the truth, and before you presume to indite another article over the signature of "Anti-Bribery." determine for yourself, in the light of reason and good common sense, just what position he occupies himself in relation to the question at issue.

J. R. GRIFFIN.

Washington Notes.

Correspondence of THE JOURNAL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 6.

The whole Missouri delegation in Congress has been here this week to look after the Federal patronage in that State. The principal fight is over the St. Louis postmastership: Mr. Wm. Hyde seems to have the inside track, although Mr. John G. Priest is backed by the sage of Gramercy Park, and "Uncle Sammy" has great influence with the Administration, notwithstanding the exploded story of the rupture between himself and the President. Mr. Dockery, of the delegation, who is always putting in a good stroke for his consituents, was seen around the office of the Indian Commissioner, and no doubt carried away encouraging news to some worthy applicant who has no fear of the blood-thirsty redskins.

A necessity for the re-organization of the Bureau of Statistics has existed for some time, and it is now proposed to submit a plan to Congress at the coming session which, if adopted, will extend the usefulness of the Bureau and raise its importance, besides saving money to the Government. The name will be changed to the Bureau of Commerce, and provisions will be made for obtaining greater accuracy in the statistics of immigration and in getting more accurate returns of our exports, especially to Canada and Mexico. The taking of the census, which has of late years called for such large appropriations from Congress and been stretched out from the completion of one to the time for taking another, will be placed under thd new Bureau, whence will result an immense saving compared with the cost of the last census.

Society leaders are already exercising their minds over the question whether the President intends to indulge in those little respites from routine duties, which go to make up the pleasures of a winter's sojourn in Washington. The assembled beauty, intelligence, refinement and grace of manners and social customs to be found here in the diplomatic corps of all foreign nations, and in the families of our own Representatives and Senators and Cabinet officers, all combine to make our winters the most enjoyable to be spent in any city in the world. The coming social season promises to be as brilliant as any that has ever followed a change in administration, and they are always more brilliant than others. It matters not what party is in power, the social world enjoys life all the same and knows no politics. The Republican, the Democrat, the Greenbacker, the Prohibitionist, all meet on the same platform and move in the same sphere, and for the time forget that they are opposed to one another in anything, and seem to have nothing in view but to contribute to the common happiness of all. Such is the social life at the Capital from December till May,

The Postmaster-General has just decided that the salaries of postoffice employees cannot be attached for debt, on the ground that the salaries must be regarded as United States funds until the money actually passes from the possession of the Government into the hands of the employees The decision is a very important one, and was made in a case submitted by the New York office, where a creditor attempted to garnishee the salaries of certain employees in that office.

Gen. Logan is again in the city looking hearty and cheerful, and is busily engaged in seeing that his house on Columbia Heights, recently purchased by him, is put in order for the hospitality which he and Mrs. Logan will dispense the coming season. The General delivered an address at the G. A. R. Grant memorial service Thursday evening at the Metropolitan M. E. church, where Gen. Grant attended while President. Prof. Bischoff, the renowned blind organist, presided at the organ, and the St. Cecelia quartette furnished the music. The church was crowded to overflowing, and a letter from the President was read, expressing his sincere regret at not being able to join in the services because of official engagements which could not be postponed. AN ADDRESS

FOR EVERY CITIZEN TO READ.

To the Voters of Caroline county:

In obedience to the wishes of the convention that nominated us we make known to the voters of Caroline county that in accepting the nominations for office we do so sincerely to benfit the cause of good government, and not from selfish and unworthy motives.

For a great many years hundreds of our fellow-citizens — young men casting their first ballot; middle-aged men, with growing sons; old men, struggling with the infirmities of age, have made us heart sick whilst we witnessed them sell themselves for a few pieces of silver. We have protested against this shameless bribery of voters only to mark its steady increase. We are now assured that something decisive should be done. We called on the two political parties for pledges of honor that the curse of bribery should no longer rest upon the county. This pledge the Democratic and Republican parties failed in open convention to give, and thereby relieved you and us from all obligations to support their nominees. The constitution of the State forbids bribery at elections, as do the laws of the State; Christianity and morality alike condemn it. Why is it, then, that parties will not pledge their honor not directly or indirectly to give money to secure the election of their candidates? We not only give that pledge, but the further and additional pledge that if money is corruptly used to influence our election, we will not accept office if elected.

We are candidates to show our sincerity and attachment to that principle of our government which demands at all times a fair, honest, and unbought election. We are morally certain that bribery will be practiced by both the political parties at the coming election; and elections controlled by money are so common that it is better in our judgment to have no party than a party which openly practices bribery as a political virtue.

Bribery at elections is a crime—made so by the constitution and the laws of the State. See article 1, section 3, of the constittion, and article 72, of the code, sec. 141, and the candidate who sanctions it is in plain honest truth a criminal. We do not expect nor will we receive a vote influenced by money, but we do expect and ask every conscientious man in the county to give us his vote, and be the result as it may he will have the consciousness of having cast one ballot against moneyed bribery at elections, and in favor of men breaking party trammels in behalf of honest government.

If this effort fail hereafter those who attempt to break the power of money on election day will be reminded that in the fall of 1885 the attempt was made and the result was a failure.

If it is a failure yours will be the fault; for have we not at considerable discomfort done our whole duty in allowing our names to be used as candidates, so that for once you could have an opportunity to exhibit to all that you are not outlaws and willing violators of the constitution of your State, and by voting for us now protest against polticians and managers selling nominations and buying elections.

It is entirely with you to say whether you want a ticket elected by the freemen of the county or by money. You by your vote can approve us or by your vote condemn us. Our motive is to benefit our respective parties, our county and our State. If the effort is in vain, our purpose nevertheless is sincere. With you alone rest the responsibility of the trust which the founders of our republic gave you when the right of ballot was conferred, and whether you cast that ballot for or against us, may it be by some means a blessing and not a curse to you and your descendents forever When men ask us what principles constitute our cause, we tell them we contend—

First, For every principle of liberty that is the birthright of American freemen.

Second, That an honest ballot-box and an honest ballot is the cornerstone of free government.

Third, That the use of money at the primaries and general election is the certain overthrow of our form of government, for no nation can live when the supreme power is in the hands of the corruptionists. Is not fidelity to these principles worthy the effort we are making in your behalf? If so give us your support.

Ohio Grain Drill.

The farmer, with an eye single to his best interests, should know the relative merits of the various wheat drills on the market before making his purchases for the fall. Let me enumerate some of the many advantages of the "OHIO,' all of which have been amply demonstrated:

1. It is the easiest and lightest drill made.
2. It has the best mode of feeding wheat and grass seed of any in the country.
3. Its fertilizing or feeding attaehment is no experiment. It has been tested for ten years and found to be the best.
4. It has the best spring hoe and the only check link in the country.
5. It has less cog and gear wheels than some other drills by one-half.
6. It is the easiest and most simple drill in the world to keep in order,
7. It is the only drill that can be changed to sow deep or shallow by moving the slide block.
8. You can get repairs for this drill more promptly than any other.
9. The tire on the wheels is 2½ inches wide, and will not cut into soft ground, as narrow tires will.
10. The spokes in the wheels are made of the best hickory, and driven into the hub with a heavy steam hammer.
11. It costs less to keep our drill in repair than any other make of drill in the market.
12. You can change the desired quantity of grain or fertilizer without stopping the drill or putting on wheels.
13. It is the best finished and most durable drill in the market.
14. The grain sower is a positive force feed—most positive in the market.
15. The grain sower cannot be made to bunch grain like many other drills do.
16. The grass seeder is a positive force feed, and will sow dirty timothy or clover seed.
17. Any person can take it apart and put it together with a screw driver and wrench.

THE GREAT

SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR

Unfailing Specific FOR Liver Disease.

Symptoms: Bitter or bad taste in mouth; tongue coated white or covered with a brown fur; pain in the back, sides or joints—often mistaken for rheumatism; sour stomach; loss of appetite; sometimes nausea and waterbrash, or indigestion; flatulency and acid eructations; bowels alternately costive and lax; headache; loss of memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done; debility; low spirits; a thick, yellow appearance of the skin and eyes; a dry cough; fever; restlessness; the urine is scanty and high-colored, and, if allowed to stand, deposits a sediment.

Simmons Liver Regulator is generally used in the South to arouse the torpid liver to a healthy action. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using this medicine. The Regulator acts without disturbance to the system, diet or occupation. It regulates the liver, and nature relieving herself, causes the bile to act as the purge. The excess of bile being removed, a tonic effect is produced, and health is perfectly restored. It regulates the bowels and removes constipation. It is a certain cure for dyspepsia. The Regulator contains no quinine, mineral, or anything that will injure the most delicate patient, and is given with safety and happiest results to the most delicate infant. For all diseases in which a laxative, alterative or yurgative is needed it will give the most perfect satisfaction. The cheapest, purest and best family medicine in the world. ☞There is but one Simmons Liver Regulator! See that you get the genuine, with the red Z on front of wrapper, prepared only by Revolution in Wheat Culture. —THE— Seed Drill Regulator!

There are many advantages secured by this improvement, some of which may be briefly stated; all of which may be fully substantiated by prominent farmers of this county.

1. The apparatus can be set to any depth, deep or shallow.
2. The drill will sow at that depth in hard, soft or uneven ground.
3. It lightens the draft of the drill.
4. It packs the earth around the seed, and at the same time does not level the ridges raised by the drill-teeth.
5. It covers grass seed just enough.
6. It gives all the advantages of broadcast sowing without its waste of seed.
7. It prevents the clogging of the drill-teeth by long manure or grass.
8. The teeth run steadier and do not jump out of or into the ground as they do without the attachment.
9. The teeth can be run in a straight line, thus covering the seed more evenly than when placed zig-zag.
10. The wheels pulverize the ground slightly.
11. It will work wherever a drill will work.
12. It saves seed—from one peck to three pecks per acre.
13. It covers the seed when the drill-tooth jumps over an obstruction.
14. The grain comes up from two to six days sooner.
15. All the good seed grow.
16. The seed come up soon after a rain, before a crust can form on the surface.
17. You can avoid the fly by sowing from a week to ten days later and still be in time for the plant to come up and grow sufficiently to stand the winter.
18. It saves fertilizer by putting it in the right place.
