FRUIT AND ORNAMENTAL TREES, &c.

WM. PRINCE, proprietor of the Linnæan Garden near New York offers to the public his usual very extensive collection of FRUIT TREES, comprising the choicest products of foreign countries as well as of our own. Among which are about 60,000 Apples, Pears, Peaches, &c. of suitable size for immediate transplanting all of which are in the most healthy state. From the long continuance of the establishment the proprietor has the advantage of possessing fruit bearing trees of nearly all the different kinds from which those offered for sale are ingrafted, thereby affording an absolute certainty of their genuine character. The collections of ornamental Trees, Shrubs & Plants, including 300 kinds of Roses. Also of Oranges, Lemons, Citrons, Camellias or Japan Roses, and other Green House Plants are so well known to be very extensive, that any remarks are deemed unnecessary further than refering to the catalogues which may be obtained gratis, of Mr. WM. MILES, No. 74, Bowly's wharf, Baltimore, and orders through him or per mail will meet prompt attention.

THE IMPORTED HUNTER

EMPEROR

Has arrived, agreeably to previous notice,—and will stand at Easton on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, at the Trappe on Saturdays—the residue of the time, at the Stable of the Subscriber, during the season—Terms—$20 the spring's chance—$10 the single leap—which, however, will be discharged by the payment of $12 in the former case, and $5 in the latter, by the 20th of September—Insurance $20—the groom will be entitled to 50 cents in each case—It is hardly necessary to say any thing in behalf of this fine animal—his own appearance, and that of his progeny, are sufficient recommendations—and the great certainty of obtaining foals from him, is universally admitted.

Gentlemen from a distance, will be accommodated, with good pasturage, and grain if required, on moderate terms—and the utmost care and attention will be paid to the mares. There is no probability, that this horse will ever be here again, he is already disposed of—I would, therefore, advise my friends to apply in time, to avoid disappointment.

NS. GOLDSBOROUGH.

N. B. No mare will be considered insured, without an express agreement to that effect.

Talbot county, April 2

A Jack

Will stand at the stable of the Subscriber the ensuing season at the moderate price of 4 dollars the spring's chance and 6 dollars to ensure a foal—season to commence on the first day of April and end the last of June.

COACH AND HARNESS

Making.

The Subscriber has the pleasure to return his sincere thanks to his late customers and friends of this and the adjacent counties, for the very liberal encouragement he has received on his part during his co-partnership with Mr. John Camper, and now has the pleasure to inform them he has commenced business for himself, at the old stand at the head of Washington-street, formerly occupied by Mr. Joseph Parrott, where he has on hand a good stock of first rate materials, to enable him to carry on the above business in all its various branches. He has in his employ, experienced workmen, principally from Philadelphia, and he pledges himself to pay strict attention to their commands in every respect; the utmost diligence shall be paid to all orders for Coaches, Coachees, Gigs or Carriages of any description; likewise all who may favour him with repairs may depend on having them done with neatness, durability and despatch and on the most reasonable and accommodating terms. All new work made agreeably to order. Work made or sold by him will be waranted for twelve months; he further solicits a share of public patronage.

GEORGE F. THOMPSON.

Easton, Jan. 8, 1825.
