POETRY.

For the Easton Gazette.

THE SECRET.

In a fair lady's heart once a secret was lurking;
It toss'd and it tumbled—it long'd to get out:
The lips half betrayed it by smiling and smirking,
And the tongue was impatient to blab it, no doubt.
But Honour looked gruff on the subject and gave it
In charge to the teeth, (so enchantingly white,)
Should the captive attempt an elopement to save it
By giving the lips an admonishing bite.

'Twas said and 'twas settled—Sir Honour departed;
Tongue quiver'd and trembled but durst not rebel;
When right to its tip Secret suddenly started,
And half in a whisper, escaped from its cell:
Quoth the Teeth, in a pet, "We'll be even for this,"
And they bit very hard both above and beneath:
But the lips in an instant were bribed with a kiss,
And they popp'd out the secret in spite of the teeth.

FRUIT AND ORNAMENTAL TREES, &c.

WM. PRINCE, proprietor of the Linnæan Garden near New York offers to the public his usual very extensive collection of FRUIT TREES, comprising the choicest products of foreign countries as well as of our own. Among which are about 60,000 Apples, Pears, Peaches, &c. of suitable size for immediate transplanting all of which are in the most healthy state. From the long continuance of the establishment the proprietor has the advantage of possessing fruit bearing trees of nearly all the different kinds from which those offered for sale are ingrafted, thereby affording an absolute certainty of their genuine character. The collections of ornamental Trees, Shrubs & Plants, including 300 kinds of Roses. Also of Oranges, Lemons, Citrons, Camellias or Japan Roses, and other Green House Plants are so well known to be very extensive, that any remarks are deemed unnecessary further than refering to the catalogues which may be obtained gratis, of Mr. WM. MILES, No. 74, Bowly's wharf, Baltimore, and orders through him or per mail will meet prompt attention.

THE IMPORTED HUNTER

EMPEROR

Has arrived, agreeably to previous notice,—and will stand at Easton on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, at the Trappe on Saturdays—the residue of the time, at the Stable of the Subscriber, during the season—Terms—$20 the spring's chance—$10 the single leap—which, however, will be discharged by the payment of $12 in the former case, and $5 in the latter, by the 20th of September—Insurance $30—the groom will be entitled to 50 cents in each case—It is hardly necessary to say any thing in behalf of this fine animal—his own appearance, and that of his progeny, are sufficient recommendations—and the great certainty of obtaining foals from him, is universally admitted.

Gentlemen from a distance, will be accommodated, with good pasturage, and grain if required, on moderate terms—and the utmost care and attention will be paid to the mares. There is no probability, that this horse will ever be here again, he is already disposed of—I would, therefore, advise my friends to apply in time, to avoid disappointment.

NS. GOLDSBOROUGH.

N. B. No mare will be considered insured, without an express agreement to that effect.

Talbot county, April 2

COACH, GIG AND HARNESS

Making.

THE SUBSCRIBER informs his friends and the public, from whom, for some years, he has received the most flattering encouragement, that he has taken that well known stand, at the foot of WASHINGTON STREET, heretofore conducted under the firm of Camper & Thompson, and intends continuing the above business in all its various branches—where his friends and customers will have their orders executed in the best manner and on accommodating terms, and where the utmost diligence and attention shall not be wanting to give general satisfaction.—He has on hand a first rate stock of materials, prime seasoned timber, and the best workmen. All new work will be warranted for twelve months, and repairs done in a neat and durable manner. Gentlemen wishing to deal in his line will please to give him a call, hear his prices, view his stock and judge for themselves.

JOHN CAMPER

Easton, Jan 8, 1825. tf

COACH AND HARNESS

Making.

The Subscriber has the pleasure to return his sincere thanks to his late customers and friends of this and the adjacent counties, for the very liberal encouragement he has received on his part during his co-partnership with Mr. John Camper, and now has the pleasure to inform them he has commenced business for himself, at the old stand at the head of Washington-street, formerly occupied by Mr. Joseph Parrott, where he has on hand a good stock of first rate materials, to enable him to carry on the above business in all its various branches. He has in his employ, experienced workmen, principally from Philadelphia, and he pledges himself to pay strict attention to their commands in every respect; the utmost diligence shall be paid to all orders for Coaches, Coachees, Gigs or Carriages of any description; likewise all who may favour him with repairs may depend on having them done with neatness, durability and despatch and on the most reasonable and accommodating terms. All new work made agreeably to order. Work made or sold by him will be waranted for twelve months; he further solicits a share of public patronage.

GEORGE F. THOMPSON.

Easton, Jan. 8, 1825.

$100 Reward.

A negro fellow named ENNALLS JAMES, absconded some time in the last Christmas Holydays—He is about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, twenty years old, very black, walks a little lame, two deep scars in one of his legs just above the knee, a good tempered and pleasant looking fellow, stammers a little and frequently uses the phrase "oy doggy," dressed in country kersey when he went away He has a father who is free, living in or near Camden, State of Delaware, by the name of Cæsar James. I will give, to any person who will apprehend and secure in Easton Jail the above described Ennalls, if taken in Talbot county, $20, if in any other county on the Eastern Shore or in the State of Delaware, $70, and if in any other State of the Union $100.

R. P. EMMONS.

Land for Sale.

The subscriber offers at private sale on accommodating terms, two farms situated in Caroline county, one of these farms is at this time occupied by Mrs. Hester Prichard as a tenant and is handsomely situated on Choptank River about one mile below Dover Bridge, containing 500 acres, with a full proportion of valuable timber: the soil is believed to be equal to any in the neighbourhood. The other farm contains about 400 acres, situated within two miles of Hog Island landing, adjoining the lands of Messrs. Chezum and Fleharty, and is occupied by Mr. Thomas Rease. This farm is also well timbered and is supposed to be better adapted to the growth of wheat than the most of the adjacent lands. A further description of the above property is deemed unnecessary, as those who are desirous of purchasing will no doubt examine for themselves.
