POETRY.

SONG.

Though thy eye, love, be bright
As the meteor that glanceth;
Though thy heart, love, be light
As the sun-beam that danceth;
That eye may be gloomed
Ere one moment with sorrow;
That gay heart entombed
Ere the lapse of to-morrow.

Though thy breast, love, be fair
As the white snow wind-driven;
Though thy breath, love, be air
Sigh'd from flowrets in heaven;
Ere the morn, the grave clay
That breast may be clothing,
And e'en love turn away
From thy sweet lip with loathing.

Though thy voice, love, be sweet
As the white swan when dying,
Though thy foot, love, be fleet
As the antelope flying:
That tongue may be cold
Ere an instant of warning,
Those fair limbs be mould
Ere the sun of the morning.

Then come, love, while here,
Let us blest be in blessing;
We've nought love, to fear,
While caress'd and caressing,
Then, I swear by this kiss,
We'll leave nothing to sigh for;
If we die in such bliss,
'Tis what angels would die for.

In August, 1820, my negro man Joe left me, who is now about 23 years old and about five feet ten inches high, a dark mulatto, thick lips, shows good deal the white of his eyes when alarmed, bow-legged, and one of his thighs has been broken, from a fall out of a barn loft, (perhaps the left) he has a piece bit out of the lower end of his ear in a fight—I think he is in Philadelphia or Baltimore, as he has old fellow-servants who are now free in both places. Any person that will secure Joe Fulman (as he calls himself) in Easton jail, so that I get him, shall receive the above reward and reasonable expenses paid by the subscriber, living at Abbott's Mill, Talbot county, Md.

MAGISTRATES' BLANKS

FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

Self-Sharpening

PLOUGH.

The Subscribers have made arrangements for procuring from Philadelphia, 100 sets of castings for the Self-Sharpening Plough, of the smaller size, suitable for the ordinary cultivation of corn and seeding wheat. These castings will be from a new Foundery, erected for the express purpose, and the metal of the best Albany composition—The sockets will be made larger, longer and thicker, and the point supported by the coulter in such manner as to render them able to stand the shock of stumps, roots or rocks, as effectually as any other plough of their weight in use. The ploughs Nos. 2 and 3, sold from the first sets of castings, heretofore advertised, have been found to work well, break the ground effectually and to require less horse power than any other plough of their weight, but the No. 2 owing to a defect in the metal, will not stand the shock of stumps or roots—of No. 3 (several of which have been in operation for some months) we have had no complaint of breaking—We have just received 48 wings and points which will be furnished gratis to those who have or shall purchase the Self-Sharpening Plough to make good any breakage.

As the season for ploughing fallow is approaching and the subscribers are anxious to dispose of the remainder of their ploughs have determined to reduce the price to $10 for No. 3 and $8 for No. 2—At these prices they will be the cheapest ploughs of their weight ever offered in this market.
