POETRY.

TEN YEARS AGO.

"That time is past,
And all its aching joys are now no more,
And all its dizzy raptures! Not for this
Faint I, nor mourn, nor murmur. Other gifts
Have followed for such loss, I would believe,
Abundant recompense." [Wordsworth.

Ten years ago, ten years ago,
Life was to us a fairy scene;
And the keen blasts of worldly woe
Had seared not the path-way green.
Youth and its thousand dreams were ours,
Feeling we ne'er can know again;
Unwither'd hopes, unwasted powers,
And frames unworn by mortal pain,
Such was the bright and genial flow
Of life with us—ten years ago!

Time has not blanched a single hair
That clusters round thy forehead now;
Nor has the cankering touch of care
Left even one furrow on thy brow.
Thine eyes are blue as when we met,
In love's deep truth in earlier years;
Thy cheek of rose is blooming yet,
Tho' sometimes stained by secret tears:
But where, oh where's the spirit's glow,
That shone through all—ten years ago!

I, too, am changed—I scarce know why—
Can feel each flagging pulse decay,
And youth, and health, and visions high,
Melt like a wreath of snow away.
Time cannot sure have wrought the ill;
Tho' worn in this world's sickening strife,
In soul and form I linger still
In the first summer month of life;
Yet journey on my path below
Oh! how unlike—ten years ago!

But look not thus—I would not give
The wreck of hopes that thou must share
To bid those joyous hours revive,
When all around me seemed so fair.
We've wandered on in sunny weather,
When winds were low and flowers in bloom,
And hand in hand have kept together,
And still we keep, 'mid storm and gloom,
Endeared by ties we could not know
When life was young—ten years ago!

Has fortune frowned? her frowns were vain,
For hearts like ours she could not chill;
Have friends proved false? Their love might wane,
But ours grew fonder, firmer still.
Twin barks on this world's changing wave,
Steadfast in calms, in tempests tried,
In concert still our fate we'll brave,
Together cleave life's fitful tide;
Nor mourn, whatever winds may blow,
Youth's first wild dreams—ten years ago!

Have we not knelt beside his bed,
And watched our first born blossom die!
Hoped, till the shade of hope had fled,
Then wept till feeling's fount was dry?
Was it not sweet, in that dark hour,
To think 'mid mutual tears and sighs,
Our bud had left its earthly bower,
And burst to bloom in Paradise?
What to the thought that soothed that woe
Were heartless joys—ten years ago!

Yes, it is sweet, when Heaven is bright,
To share its sunny beams with thee:
But sweeter far, 'mid clouds and blight,
To have thee near to weep with me.
Then dry those tears—though something changed
From what we were in earlier youth,
Time, that has hopes and friends estranged,
Has left us love in all its truth;
Sweet feelings we would not forego
For life's best joys—ten years ago!

Self-Sharpening

PLOUGH.

The Subscribers have made arrangements for procuring from Philadelphia, 100 sets of castings for the Self-Sharpening Plough, of the smaller size, suitable for the ordinary cultivation of corn and seeding wheat. These castings will be from a new Foundery, erected for the express purpose, and the metal of the best Albany composition—The sockets will be made larger, longer and thicker, and the point supported by the coulter in such manner as to render them able to stand the shock of stumps, roots or rocks, as effectually as any other plough of their weight in use. The ploughs Nos. 2 and 3, sold from the first sets of castings, heretofore advertised, have been found to work well, break the ground effectually and to require less horse power than any other plough of their weight, but the No. 2 owing to a defect in the metal, will not stand the shock of stumps or roots—of No. 3 (several of which have been in operation for some months) we have had no complaint of breaking—We have just received 48 wings and points which will be furnished gratis to those who have or shall purchase the Self-Sharpening Plough to make good any breakage.

As the season for ploughing fallow is approaching and the subscribers are anxious to dispose of the remainder of their ploughs have determined to reduce the price to $10 for No. 3 and $8 for No. 2—At these prices they will be the cheapest ploughs of their weight ever offered in this market.
