Valuable Land
For Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the Court of Chancery, will be disposed of at public sale, on Thursday the 8th day of September, if fair, if not, on the next fair day thereafter, the farm of the late John Gibson, Esquire, called

"The Seven Mountains."

This property is situate in Anne-Arundel county, on the north side of Magothy river, and immediately on the shore of the Chesapeake Bay, about seventeen miles from Baltimore and eight from Annapolis. The soil is fertile and abundantly stocked with timber and is peculiarly well adapted to the culture of Indian corn and tobacco, and all the products of a garden. It bears every variety of the best and earliest vegetables, and its proximity to Baltimore, and the convenient water transportation which its situation affords, give it advantages as a market farm, that few places possess. It abounds with delicious grapes and the choicest grafted fruit trees in full bearing. These have been collected with great care, and are now in a flourishing condition. The water, by which the place is almost surrounded, and a fish-pond that has been made at considerable expense, afford fish and crabs in the utmost abundance; and there is always during the winter, a plentiful supply of water-fowl, and the other ordinary game fo the country. There are also on the farm a few fallow deer. Besides the advantages which this estate offers to persons who derive their support from agricultural pursuits, the extraordinary beauty of the situation, and the facilities which it furnishes for the enjoyment of rural sports, would render it a delightful retreat for a man of fortune.

The land will, for the accommodation of purchasers, be divided into parcels of about two hundred and fifty acres each; every part being bounded on one side by the water.

The terms of sale are one third cash, and the residue to be paid in three equal annual instalments. Bonds with approved security will be required for the payment of that portion of the purchase money for which credit is allowed. On the payment of the whole purchase money, conveyances of the land will be executed.

The sale will take place on the premises.

HOUSE AND LOT,

on the road leading from Easton to Easton Point, and an unimproved half acre Lot, adjoining this town, on said road, being parts also of the aforesaid tracts. The Farm will be divided previous to the day of sale, into as many lots, as in the opinion of the commissioners will contribute to accomplish the object of such a sale, the interest and advantage to both purchaser and seller, and in this form will be exposed to sale.

The sale will be made on a credit of one and two years, with interest from the day of sale, the purchaser giving bond with satisfactory security, payable in instalments of one and two years from the day of sale.

AN ACADEMY
For Young Ladies,

Will be opened in Easton under the superintendance of the subscriber, early in September next, on a day which will be named in a future advertisement. Encouraged in this undertaking by the many highly respectable families, who, unsolicited by himself or his friends, have tendered him their support and influence, and confident that the superior advantages presented by the situation of Easton, will always invite to it the patronage of the Parents and Guardians, not only of Talbot, but of the Eastern Shore in general, when its seminaries are conducted with due attention and ability, he feels that he has before him an object worthy of the utmost exertion of his powers. He will be assisted by a sister, whose attainments are considerable, and who has had several years experience in teaching;—on a long continuance of her services he can confidently rely; and he flatters himself he shall be able to render the course of instruction as useful and as extensive, as can be found in any similar institution in the state. In addition to the elementary branches, and those of Geography, Grammar and Criticism, considerable time and labour will be devoted to giving instruction in History, Natural and Moral Philosophy, and Chymistry, to such young ladies, as may wish to acquire a really useful foundation in those studies. To provide for a complete course of ornamental education, will also be an object of much solicitude with the subscriber; and his present prospects of patronage are such as to leave little doubt, that his most sanguine wishes and expectations on this point, will be amply gratified.

Having thus announced his intention of taking upon himself the superintendance of a Female Academy, the subscriber humbly submits it to the public, to say whether he is qualified for so arduous and responsible an office. His claims to industry and perseverance in whatever he undertakes, he believes all who know him will allow: of his talents, his character, his fitness for his present undertaking, the public must judge for themselves. The situation which he is about resigning, in the Easton Academy, he has held during the last four years; and he appeals to the highly respectable gentlemen, who compose the Board of Trustees of that Institution, and to his patrons generally, to say in what manner he has there discharged the duties assigned him. He formerly resided several years in the city of Baltimore, with the best means of knowing how the female seminaries there were conducted, and was himself, for some time, employed in one of the first in that city. The business of teaching young ladies is, therefore, not new to him. It is a pursuit in which he has taken much delight, and is the one in which, above all others, he believes himself capable of rendering service to society. Of his qualifications for such a task, however, he repeats that he wishes the public to judge for themselves. He never yet solicited the patronage of any one, and probably he never will.—He has always been aware that the entrusting of a child, to the care of a preceptor, is an affair of no ordinary importance; and that the payment of tuition money is often the least evil, where confidence is found to have been misplaced. He wishes parents to consider not his interest, so much as the interest of their daughters; & if, upon due enquiry and reflection, they shall think proper to patronize his seminary, he will be proud of their good opinion and truly grateful for their favours.

The rates of tuition will be moderate, and will not materially differ from those hitherto paid at the principal female seminary in this town. The subscriber will also in a short time, make arrangements to receive boarders into his family, on accommodating terms.

Easton Academy.

An Assistant Teacher is desired in this Institution. He must be qualified to teach the English Language grammatically, Writing, Arithmetic, the lesser branches of the Mathematics and Geography. There is reason to believe from the experience of the past in this Department, that the Tuition-Money will annually amount to five hundred dollars; and tuition-money beyond this sum may be obtained by such increase of his pupils as his merits and attention may command.

Application to be made on or before the 10th of next September, to JOHN GOLDSBOROUGH, Esq. the Secretary of this Institution.

By the Board of Trustees,
