[illegible] day of March anno Dom: 1695 [illegible]

[illegible] did acknowledge the within written Deed of Release to be the deed of [illegible] and John Fuller to the said Edward Jones concerning the title of the lands therein [illegible] by the name of Hopyard to him the said Edward Jones his heirs and assigns according to the proporc[illegible] true meaning of the within mentioned Deed [illegible] the within named Hester Fuller the wife of the said John Fuller being secretly then drawn out of the hearing of her husband voluntarily consented [illegible] to the sale of the within mentioned Tenement & premises unto the within named Edward Jones his heirs & assigns for ever without any manner of Compulsion [illegible] Before me of her said husband did acknowledge the same as her act & deed

[illegible] March the Second 1695

[illegible] Recd of Edward Jones for the allowance of the within mentioned seaventy acres of land the sum of [illegible] Pounds sterling money by the ord: of Mr Henry Darnell for [illegible] of the said Commissioners Pay ord for me [illegible]

Recd: the Twentieth Day of May 1704 of John Price in full for the within mentioned land & all accounts in goods Eighteen pounds seventeen shillings & in money fifteen pound eleven shillings being in all thirty three pounds five shillings & allowed for that land five pounds seventeen shillings Pay ord forty pounds for me John Jones

[illegible] March the 14th 1704 Recd of Mr John Price twenty nine [illegible] shillings the same being for a [illegible] for three [illegible] one acres part of Jones Contrivance done hundred under [illegible] called Tolebery Hall both within mentioned for me James Heath