TO THE FREEMEN OF TALBOT COUNTY.

FELLOW-CITIZENS,

A publication in last Saturday's Gazette, under the signature of "A Voter," has suggested the names of several other citizens, in addition to those who are already before the public, as candidates for the next General Assembly of Maryland; among which I find my own name mentioned. At first I was somewhat at a loss to know how I should regard this publication, as it came unexpectedly upon me—but I have resolved to treat it with the respect that is due to the best intention that can be ascribed to it, and to consider it a direct and open enquiry, to which I shall return a direct and unequivocal answer.

We all of us recognize the right in every citizen, to suggest whomsoever he may think proper as candidates for a representative legislature,—as the election of delegates ought always to be a free-will choice, guided by the soundest discretion. To be a popular representative, in any public body, is always considered a station of the highest trust, and as the people have a right to make a requisition of the services of any man they please, there is a correspondent obligation, derived from the nature of the government we live under, upon those who are called, to obey—concession in such a case is a duty that every man owes to the community in which he lives.

If, therefore, the people of Talbot think proper to confide their interests to me with others, at the approaching election, I will serve them.

I am, Fellow-Citizens,
Your very Obedient Servant,
ROBT. H. GOLDSBOROUGH.

Sept. 10, 1825.

TO THE FREE & INDEPENDENT VOTERS OF TALBOT COUNTY.

Thomas P. Bennett

respectfully announces to his fellow-citizens of Talbot, that he will serve them in the next House of Delegates of Maryland, if honoured with their confidence and support, at the approaching election.

Easton, Sept. 3, 1825.

TO THE VOTERS OF TALBOT COUNTY.

Through the solicitation of a number of citizens of this county, I am induced to offer myself as a candidate for the ensuing Legislature, should I be so fortunate as to be supported, my best endeavours shall be exercised for the public good—and the Lord defend us from all vacation and public repast bills and may the time speedily come when the per diem of the members shall be reduced to three dollars which is a full compensation for services rendered in these hard times, and I will insure as competent members to serve for that sum as have composed the house for several past sessions.

SPRY DENNY.

Talbot county, Sep. 3

To the Independent Voters of Talbot county.

FELLOW CITIZENS,

In consequence of the solicitations of a number of my friends, I am induced to present myself before you as a candidate for the next General Assembly of Maryland.

The public's obedient servant,
August 27 LEVIN MILLIS.

TO THE INDEPENDENT VOTERS OF TALBOT COUNTY.

FELLOW-CITIZENS,

Having been long and earnestly solicited by several of my friends, to offer myself once more as a candidate for a seat in the General Assembly of Maryland, I have, though not without considerable reluctance & embarrassment of feeling, consented to gratify their wishes.

I was pressed, in a similar manner, to stand a poll at the last election of delegates, but was prevented by ill health;—no such obstacle now exists; and, with high respect for the sentiments and character of my fellow-citizens of Talbot, and a determination cheerfully to acquiesce in their decision, whatever it may be, I present myself as a candidate for their favor, on the first Monday in October next.

It is well known to the public, that a considerable portion of my past life has been devoted to the service of my country. I was two years in the Navy, and served during the whole of the late war, in the army of the United States. That I have contended for the honour and welfare of my native land, through scenes of difficulty and peril, a severe wound, which incapacitates me for active and corporeal exertion, will testify. I do not mention these services with a wish that an extravagant and undue estimate should be made of their value; I claim nothing to which I am not entitled; I ask only the approbation which is my just due—and that favor which is my right, will, I doubt not, be promptly expressed by the suffrages of my fellow-citizens on the day of election.

In announcing myself as a candidate for a seat in the House of Delegates, I will not, as is the custom of many, attempt to win the favor of the public, by promising my adherence or opposition to any measure, which at the present moment, may or may not appear popular. I will only say that I shall, if elected, consider myself bound, at all times, to act in subserviency to the wishes of my constituents,—that, should I be honored with a voice in the house, it will ever be the voice of the people, I shall be chosen to represent—and if it be their desire, that a reduction of the compensation of the members of the Legislature should take place, they will find me among the first advocates for the measure. For the present, however, I will not insult their understanding, by attempting to gull them with the assertion that I myself even in these hard times, would prefer receiving a per diem of two dollars instead of four.

I deem it proper to state, that, during the canvass, I shall not make use of money to secure my election—I feel assured that my fellow-citizens will agree with me, that a wounded and disabled soldier may spend his half pay in a more laudable manner, than in seeking a pitiful popularity, by giving large and costly fish-feasts, and other expensive treats, in every corner of the county.—And I am confident that the sober-reason and good sense, so predominant among the people of Talbot county, will not permit me to suffer, by pursuing a course so proper in itself, and so necessary to the welfare of my family.

Fellow-citizens, I have served you in a public capacity in times past, and shall be happy to serve you again, and, though I now aim at a different sphere of action from my former one, I promise you, that if honoured with your choice, I will not be less faithful to you, and flatter myself, I shall not labour with less effect in advancing your interest.

Sept. 17. JOHN L. ELBERT.

TO THE VOTERS OF CAROLINE COUNTY.

FELLOW CITIZENS,

I beg leave to offer myself as a candidate for your suffrages at the next ensuing election, for the General Assembly of Maryland, and if honoured so far with your support as to be elected, all due diligence as abilities will admit, shall be used in the defence of your rights and interests. The public's obedient servant,

NIMROD BARWICK.

Sep. 10.

To the Good Voters of Caroline County.

FELLOW-CITIZENS,

Seeing a publication in the Easton Gazette a few days ago, headed "Independent Ticket," with my name and others inserted, I most solemnly declare, that I knew nothing of it, as I am from principle opposed to nominations or caucuses, and I do not wish my name to run on such a ticket—As for my part I came out as a federal candidate in 1823, when no other man would offer as such—I had the honor of being one of the four men who were elected. I again offered myself to the people in 1824, and was again honored with their good wishes—I now offer myself again to the good voters of the county, and should I again be elected, I will serve them to the best of my knowledge.

EDWARD BARWICK.

Caroline county, Sep 10

N. B. Having understood that some short time since, Mr. Samuel Mackey of Greensborough, Caroline county, in a conversation was asked the question, who were the candidates for his county, Mr. Mackey stated that he had not heard of any in opposition to the caucus ticket, except those you see in the Easton Gazette of the 3d inst. & from these few words some persons have made free to put their names in print. So therefore I hope that the good voters of Caroline county, who are opposed to the above mentioned ticket, when they read this, will be satisfied.

EDWARD BARWICK.

[It may perhaps be necessary to state, in justice to Mr. Mackey, the gentleman named in the above notice of Mr. Barwick's, that we waited on him when last in Easton, and requested to know the names of the candidates for the legislature in his county—He gave us those inserted in our last, and stated at the same time, that he understood there were a number of other candidates, but that he had not heard them declare themselves. We headed the ticket "Independent," in order to designate it from the caucus ticket, considering the gentlemen whose names it contained, independent politicians and opposed to caucussing, and that they depended on their own individual merit for support, and not that they had belonged to this or that party in former days. We have withdrawn the name of Mr. Edward Barwick from under the head of the "Independent Ticket," and shall do the same for any of the gentlemen named in it, whenever requested to do so.—Ed. Easton Gazette.]
