POETRY.

From the "Museum of Foreign Literature and Science."

I knew thee in thy cloudless day,
But dared not breathe my love to thee;
It wore my youthful form away
And fill'd my heart with misery.
That love was hopeless, and I sought
To hide from all my soul's despair,
And die contented with the thought
That I had gazed on aught so fair!
A gloom was spread o'er me and mine,
For thee was nought but sunny weather,
And when I saw thy fortune shine,
I would not link our fates together.

When I have seen thee gay at heart,
Thro' lighted halls with others rove,
I've stood in some deserted part,
And gazed on thee with speechless love.
And when I saw thy lovers press
Round thee, a fickle watch to keep;
I felt my utter loneliness
And turn'd from them and thee to weep:
To weep, alas! o'er lost repose,
In anguish and unyielding sorrow,
To weep o'er wounds that would not close,
And hopes for which there seem'd no morrow.

But tempests came across the skies,
That shone on thee so bright before;
And then I hush'd my own vain sighs,
And loved thee in thy misery more.
I stole to thee when others fled,
And mingled woe brought mingled balm:
Our tears were in communion shed,
And grief was mute and sorrow calm.
When joy has bound two hearts for years,
A sudden storm those hearts may sever,
But, oh! the love that springs in tears
Through change and time endures forever.

THE OLD MAN'S LAMENT.

"Life but a lengthen'd chain,
Youth weary, wild and vain—
Age on a bed of pain,
Longing to die."—Pride shall have a Fall.

Joys of my Childhood! too quickly ye vanish'd,
Your reign of enchantment too shortly was o'er;
The stern voice of Reason your fairy forms banish'd—
The spell was dissolv'd, and I saw ye no more!

Hopes of my Youth! ah, how soon were ye shaded;
I scarce saw your bloom till I felt your decay;
Like the hues of the rainbow, so swiftly ye faded,
While I gaz'd on your splendor, it melted away!

Dreams of Ambition! in vain were ye cherish'd—
In vain was the laurel wreath bound on my brow—
The foes whom I met in the battle have perish'd;
But the friends that stood by me!—Oh, they lie as low!

Age! of thy comforts the few now remaining,
My world-wearied spirit no longer can cheer;
Like the light of this dim eye, their lustre is waning.
They soothe not the pangs of my closing career.

Yes! Childhood is nought but a beautiful vision;
Youth's pleasures are fleeting, and mixed with alloy;
Proud Manhood is mock'd by the phantom Ambition;
And Age has not even the shadow of Joy.

But still there is one Hope that will not forsake us,
A Day-star, that springs from the night of the tomb—
When the Angel of Mercy shall come to awake us,
To soar in the glories of ages to come!

INFLUENZA.

An efficacious remedy is used for the influenza, which is drinking very plentifully of barley water, sweetened with brown sugar, and strongly impregnated with acid, and observing a strict diet.

It is confidently stated that half an ounce of powdered brimstone will instantly extinguish a chimney on fire, by being thrown upon the burning coals on the hearth.

A CANAL SAUSAGE.

A few weeks since, Mr. Abraham F. Miller, the head Butcher of Walnut township, made a Sausage for Abraham Miller, esq. living on the Canal Line in Walnut township, which measured 19 yards in length, out of one entire gut, without a single twist or hole in it, except at the ends, and weighed 35 pounds! Beat this, ye Fairfield Butchers!—Ohio Eagle.

Some company in Ireland, disputing relative to the quickness of reply ascribed to the lower order of that country, it was resolved to put the matter to the test in the person of a clown who was approaching them. "Pat," said one of the Company, "If the Devil were to come, and be determined to have one of us, which do you think he would take?" "Me, to be sure." "And why so?"—"Because he knows he can have your honour at any time."

Burmese Imperial State Carriage.

The Burmese Imperial State Carriage, which has been captured in the present sanguinary Indian war, has reached this country, and is now preparing for public exhibition. It is said to be, without exception, one of the most singular and splendid works of art, that can possibly be conceived, presenting one entire blaze of gold, silver and precious stones; of the latter, the number must amount to many thousands, comprehending diamonds, rubies, sapphires (white and blue,) emeralds, amethysts, garnets, topaz, cats' eyes, crystals, &c. The carving is of a very superior description, the form and conctruction of the vehicle extraordinary, and the general taste displayed throughout the whole design is at once so grand and imposing, yet at the same time so chaste and refined, that we are told it may defy all rivalry even from European workmanship. The warlike power and resources of this surprising people are at present exciting universal astonishment and attention; this new object attests the fact, that, in taste for design, and skill in execution of works of art, their talents have been equally hidden and unknown to us, the carriage stands between twenty and thirty feet in height, and is drawn by elephants.

A RUNAWAY TAKEN UP.

Was committed to the jail of Charles county, on the 25th day of September last, a yellow man, who calls himself DANIEL, he acknowledges himself to be a slave, and that he was sold by John Nevet, of Dorchester county, Eastern Shore of Maryland, last fall, to a negro trader, from whom he made his escape, some where in the State of Virginia; Daniel is about 22 or 3 years old, middle size, slow in speech, and from the description he gives of himself and the people living in the county from where he was sold, no doubt but his statement is correct; had on when taken up, a coarse shirt and pantaloons. The owner is requested to come prove his property, pay the charges and take him away, otherwise he will be released according to law.

Chancery Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the Judges of Caroline County Court, dated October Term, 1825, to me directed, I will sell at Public Vendue, at Denton, on the 7th of March next, all the real estate of William Tolboy, Sen. deceased, or so much thereof as will pay his just debts. These lands consist of two Farms, well improved, laying within three miles of the village of Denton. A further description is deemed unnecessary, as it is presumed the purchasers will view the premises, which will be shown to them by Robert Tolboy, residing on one of the farms, or Samuel Fountain, who resides in the neighbourhood.

The terms of sale will be that the highest bidder will be the purchaser, on a credit of twelve months—who will be required to give bond with approved security to the Trustee, for the payment of the purchase money, with interest from the day of sale.

The creditors of the said William Tolboy, Sen. deceased, are hereby notified to lodge with the Clerk of Caroline county Court, their claims, legally attested, within six months from the day of sale.

Making.

The subscriber begs leave to return his sincere thanks to his friends and the public, of this and the adjacent counties, for the liberal encouragement he has received for the last year; and now wishes to inform them, that having concluded to continue the above business, at his old stand, foot of Washington street. He has just received from Philadelphia and Baltimore, a handsome and well selected assortment of materials of the first quality, with a good stock of prime seasoned timber, which will enable him with the assistance of first rate workmen, to execute all orders in his line at the shortest notice, and on the most reasonable terms. He flatters himself that with the stock he has now on hand, with the experience of his workmen, that he can have his work done in such a manner that it shall not be excelled, and assures the public that nothing shall be wanting on his part to merit a continuance of their patronage. His work will be done on the most approved plan, of the best materials, and of fashions suited to the various tastes of his customers. Those gentlemen wishing to deal in his line, will please to give him a call, hear his prices, view his stock, and judge for themselves. All new work will be warranted for twelve months, and repairs done in a neat and durable manner. Orders from a distance thankfully received and punctually attended to.
