SATURDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 18.

JUDICIARY BILL IN CONGRESS.

In our paper of the 4th instant, we copied from the first paper we had received from Washington a sketch of the speech, delivered in Congress by our Representative, Mr. Kerr, on the Judicial Bill: but in the National Intelligencer, subsequently received, we found a much fuller and more connected report of Mr. K.'s argument on that important question—To that report we now call the attention of our readers—indeed we intended as an act of justice to Mr. K. to have re-published his speech in our paper of to-day, as reported in the Intelligencer, but want of room would not permit our doing so.

Supreme Court of the United States.

MONDAY, Feb. 6, 1826.

This being the day appointed by law for the commencement of the annual term of the Supreme Court:

At 12 o'clock the Court was opened. Present as follows:

Chief Justice MARSHALL,
Associate Judges WASHINGTON,
DUVALL,
THOMPSON.

A majority of the court being present, the docket was called over.

Robert N. Martin, esq. of Maryland, was, on motion of Mr. Webster, admitted to practice in this court; and then the court adjourned.

MEMORANDA.

On Thursday, the 9th instant, WILLIAM GRIFFITH Esq of the State of New Jersey, being appointed CLERK, of the Supreme Court of the United States, was sworn into office, and gave bond, &c. as the law requires.

The following gentlemen were admitted and sworn in as Attorneys and Counsellors of this Court:

ROBERT N MARTIN, of Maryland,
WILLIAM SAMPSON, of the D of Columbia,
JOHN H. BRYAN, of North Carolina,
R J INGERSOLL, of Connecticut,
A. WARD, of New York,
BENJAMIN ESTILL, of Virginia,
JOSEPH M. WHITE, of Florida,
RICHARD B MAGRUDER, of Maryland.

We are authorised to say, that E. K. WILSON Esq. of Snow Hill, will be a candidate for the next Congress, to represent the District composed of Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester counties.

Easton Star.

CORN is retailing in Charleston, S. C. at one dollar and twenty five cents per bushel.

Our countryman General WILKINSON, died the latter part of December. His funeral took place in the City of Mexico on the 1st of January.

Three thousand men are advertised for, to labor, at good wages, on that part of the Delaware and Hudson Canal which is now under contract, commencing at the Hudson River, near the village of Kingston, 60 miles below the city of Albany, and about 80 miles above New York, extending through the counties of Ulster, Sullivan and Orange, in the state of New York, to the Delaware River, a line of 65 miles of Canal, together with all Locks, Aqueducts, Culverts, Bridges, and Fencing, to be completed during the present year.

We find, in the Philadelphia Gazette, the following extract. If this information be correct, the doubts which have been expressed as to the future welfare of Russia, in consequence of the cruel disposition and narrow views of Constantine, will turn out to be premature:

Extract of a letter to a gentleman of this city.

HAMBURGH, Dec. 16, 1825.

The Emperor Alexander has died suddenly at Tangarock, on the frontiers of his empire; this account has reached here per express, by the way of Berlin from Warsaw, without any further details except that Constantine had departed from that place immediately on receipt of the news.

Constantine has been excluded from the throne, by a ukase of Alexander, because he married a Polish Countess, and his brother Nicholas appointed as successor to the throne.—This is published in the Court Almanack for 1826, for the first time.

The London Morning Post, says that information has been received, which leaves no doubt of the fact that the Emperor Alexander was strangled.

WILMINGTON, (Del) Feb. 14.

The Legislature of this State adjourned on Friday last, after a session of five weeks and four days. A member has politely furnished us with a list of the acts passed, which we will publish in our next.

Watchman.

OUTRAGE.—On Friday morning last, about 10 o'clock, a man entered the house of Mr. Jacob Zebley, in this Borough.—The only persons at home were the wife and infant child of Mr. Zebley. The villain demanded her money, and was told that she had none; when he took a knife from the table and stabbed her and made his escape.

A man was this day committed to New-Castle jail, on suspicion of being the perpetrator of the outrage.—ib.

Mrs. Z. has died of the wound.

Extract of a letter from Harrisburg, February 3.

'The joint committee on the subject of the application of Maryland for a law to obtain, by a regular judicial and effectual process, the slaves who may runaway from their owners in that state, and seek refuge in Pennsylvania, met at the capitol last night. They were successively addressed by Colonel Chambers, Mr. Goldsborough and Mr. Lee, the Maryland deputies, who gave a full and able exposition of the views and wishes of the legislature of their state in relation to the object of their mission. They very clearly showed, that Maryland had a right, under the federal compact, to ask the interposition of our legislature on the subject; that a law such as they desired would be humane to the slave; enable the Maryland owner to recover his property in a peaceable and legal manner; prevent the scenes of outrage and tyranny which often occurred in the capture of colored people within our borders, and protect the sovereignty and the feelings of Pennsylvania from violation upon such occasions. It is understood that a bill will be reported by the joint committee, in two or three days out perhaps to the full extent of the views of Maryland, but going as far as the principles and the free code of Pennsylvania will allow.

This morning, the senate had under discussion the supplement to the Lackawaxen charter. The House of Representatives passed to a third reading the bill to make a feeder from the Union Canal to the Coal Mines. It had previously passed the senate. The senate passed to a third reading the Chesapeake and Ohio canal bill. They modified an amendment made by the other House in such a way as to require Virginia to pass a law to allow this state to intersect the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, by lateral canals, only in the event of that canal being made on the south side of the Potomac, the amendment with respect to Maryland remaining as it came from the House of Representatives. Much vigilance has been exercised in both Houses to protect the interests of Pennsylvania."

LATEST FROM RIO JANEIRO

Rio Janeiro papers have been received by brig Navarre, Captain McComb, which arrived at this port on Saturday evening in 45 days from Rio Janeiro.

From the 'Diario do Rio de Janeiro,' Dec. 17.

DECREE OR DECLARATION OF WAR.

The Government of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata having committed acts of hostility against the Empire without provocation, or previous formal declaration of war, rejecting thus the forms established among civilized nations, it is required by the dignity of the Brazilian people and the rank which belongs to us among powers, that I, having heard my Council of State, should Declare, as I now do, WAR against the said Provinces and their Government; directing that by sea and land, all possible hostilities be waged upon them; authorising such armaments as my subjects may please to use against that nation; declaring that all captures or prizes of whatever nature, shall accrue entirely to the captors, without any deduction in favor of the public treasury. [Here follows the regulation for the publication and distribution of the Decree.]

Rio de Janeiro, 10th December, 1825, fourth year of the Independence and the Empire.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.

By the arrival on Saturday, of the packet ship Canada, Captain Rogers, we have received London papers of the 31st of December.

The London Gazette contains an order for the Court to go into mourning on Sunday the 1st, for his late Majesty the Emperor of Russia; to change mourning on Sunday the 15th; and to go out on Sunday the 22d inst. It also announces, that the King has appointed C. Mackenzie, Esq. to be Consul General at Hayti, to reside at Port-au-Prince.

Meetings are getting up in England to petition Parliament to make no alteration in the present Corn laws.

The total number of failures of country banks up to the present time is 61, of which five have recommenced business, and ten have appeared in the Gazette as bankruptcies. There have failed in London six banking houses, of which one has re-opened. So great a number within so short a period, for the crisis has not lasted more than three weeks, has not occurred before since the first introduction of banking.

The French papers contain the following article from Vienna, Dec. 8:—'It is reported in our high circles that the celebrated Sir Hudson Lowe has solicited the honour of being presented to the Emperor and the Archduke, which was refused him, with an order not to prolong his stay in the capital.'

COLOMBIAN BRIG OF WAR.

Extract from a private letter from Gibraltar, Nov. 20, 1825.—'An affair took place within sight of this garrison, yesterday, which has excited the greatest consternation among the Spanish merchants both here and at Malaga and Cadiz. A Colombian privateer hermaphrodite brig, the Soublette, Captain CUNNINGHAM, on the 19th instant, weighed anchor and stood out to sea with a slight breeze, wind N. E. and shortly afterwards fell in with a Spanish convoy proceeding from Cadiz to Malaga, consisting of three brigs of war, and two smaller vessels, under orders of a Commodore, all under loose sail. The moment the privateer was discovered, a brig of 22 guns was despatched either to take the privateer or drive him off, lest he might, by his superior sailing, cut off part of the convoy. The brig soon came within gun shot, and discharged a broadside; the privateer stood upon the other tack, and came close to and met the brig with a heavy discharge of grape shot and musketry; the Spanish vessel thus engaged, not being satisfied with such close quarters, fired only two rounds, & then made all possible sail for the squadron. The privateer not being intimidated by superior force, pursued the brig and in an hour afterwards found himself in close action with the Commodore's squadron. He fought the three brigs for two hours, and he states that if part of his crew had not shewn symptoms of cowardice and mutiny, he should have succeeded, after having nearly dismasted the Commodore's vessel, in bringing her a prize into Gibraltar. When he discovered the spirit of his crew he was obliged to extricate himself in the best way he could from such a perilous situation; however, he soon effected his escape, and got back to Gibraltar, with the loss of an arm, which was caused by a splinter, and, with the exception of this misfortune, neither the crew nor vessel suffered the least injury. On the privateer's return to the Bay of Gibraltar, a guarda costa stationed at Algiers, seeing what was going on, and supposing the privateer to be disabled and pursued, by superior force, made an attempt to intercept him. The brave Captain CUNNINGHAM perceiving this, turned round upon the clumsy Spaniards, which threw them into such confusion, that in the anxiety to effect their escape, they actually discharged a gun while two unfortunate fellows were standing before it, who were soon sent into the next world. However had the Spanish vessel not run a ground near the batteries of Algesiras, the privateer would have taken her."

OBITUARY.

Expired at his seat, Mount Pleasant, in this county, on the morning of the 13th February, LLOYD NICOLS, Esq.

He was really a worshipper of the Father in spirit and in truth. Looking to the general resurrection, his heart was suffused with animating hope, at the approach of that day, when God should become "all in all." He was an honorable man—he was a benevolent man—and though the sphere of his beneficence was not extensive, yet those who tasted his bounty, will quickly find, that they have lost a soul, that could administer comfort.

Adieu! Piety, sincerity, and honour deck the turf, that wraps thy clay.

DIED

In Caroline county on Monday evening last, at the residence of his father, William Whiteley, Esq. after a lingering illness.

—— On Friday evening 10th inst. Matthew Driver, Esq. of this county.

Baltimore and Easton Packet.

THE SCHOONER

JANE & MARY.

The subscriber takes this method of informing his friends and the public generally, that he has taken on shares from Mr. Bennett Tomlinson, the schooner Jane & Mary, now in complete order, having been thoroughly overhauled and her cabin made larger for the accommodation of passengers; and intends running her as a REGULAR PACKET AND GRAIN BOAT, between Easton-Point and Baltimore. He intends leaving Easton-Point for Baltimore on SUNDAY the 26th of February, inst. and Baltimore on WEDNESDAY following, for Easton-Point, and continue to run the same days, during the season, leaving each place at NINE o'clock in the morning. He has also taken the Granary and Wharf of Mrs. Vickars, which is in complete order for the reception of Grain: he has employed Mr. PARROTT, who has for many years been in the habit of transacting business for the late Captain Vickars and others, as clerk. He therefore solicits a share of public patronage, and assures the public that nothing on his part shall be wanting to give general satisfaction.

He intends, when necessary, to consign the Grain entrusted to him for sale, to James Barroll, Esq. of Baltimore.

The Public's obedient servant,

SPENCER COBURN.

Easton-Point, Feb. 18, 1826.

N B. The subscriber, or Mr. Parrott will attend at the Drug Store of Messrs. Moore & Kellie, every Saturday Evening, to receive Orders.

Davis' Improved

PLOUGHS.

The subscriber, thankful for the very liberal encouragement he has met with since he commenced the manufacturing of GIDEON DAVIS' IMPROVED PLOUGHS, would inform the public that he has an assortment of them on hand, manufactured in the best manner and of the best materials. Mr. Davis has recently made a great improvement in casting his shares, so as to render them much harder and stronger.

The great advantage which these ploughs possess over all others in use, for easy draft, and cheap repairs, will be readily acknowledged by those who have them in use. The subscriber is also agent for Ryland Rodes, of Va. for disposing of the privilege of manufacturing his improved Patent Hill-Side Plough. This is considered a very valuable improvement for the purpose intended—they will be kept by the subscriber for sale.

ALSO—His improved Cylindrical Straw-Cutters, and Brown's Vertical Spinners, for opening Wool, are as usual kept on hand ready to order, at his Manufactory, No. 36, Pratt near Hanover street, Baltimore.

JONATHAN S EASTMAN,
