Of Land Called Goldsmiths Rest w^ich said poe hickory was then a green flourishing tree, but now down and Dead which said tree stood near the mouth of a Creek Called Gough Creek respecting a point of land to the East known Voulgerly by the name of wood pickes Hall and further saith not the aforesd. poe hickory being down and rotten only some part of the Stump remaining we have pute down a locust Post marked with twelve notches as also marked a standing locust Tree with twelve notches w^ich said tree stands six foot to the Westward of the antient boundrey and seems to be a Decaying tree also this Deponant declares he was also shewed a bounded or marked read Oak tree the second bounded tree of Goldsmiths rest standing by the side of a moist or weat piece of ground in a hollow Descending into a Marsh lying on Spesutie Creek which bounded read Oak was always deemed the second boundrey tree of Goldsmiths rest as aforesaid as also a bounded tree of a tract of land Called Collingham and this Deponant further declares that the aforesaid read oak was a Decaying tree when he first saw it and some time after Died this Depon^t declares that in some few years after the Intermarriage of a Certain George Wells with the aforesaid Mary Marshall this Deponant goeing along with the said George Wells shewed him the aforesaid read oak which was then Down and advised him to a mach a Gum Standing nigh

(where)

Where Stood the aforesaid read oak which Gumm is now a liveing Tree further Saith not according to the Deponants oath to the place where Stood the aforesaid read oak we have pute down a locust post marked to twelve notches the aforesaid bounded Gumm Standing about twenty seven foot to the westward of the aforesaid Post, the aforesaid oaths of John Hall Rq^r taken before us the Subscribers this 8th day of September 1727 —

John Clark
Joseph Johnson

November Court 1727

By Baltemore County Court ordered that this Return and all things relating thereto be accordingly Recorded —
Signed p order J Stokes Clk

Proceedings on Land Commissions returned at March Court 1727 —

Richard Galloways Commission return } To the Worshipfull the Justices of Baltemore County now Sitting The Petition of Richard Galloway Senr & Junr humbly Sheweth That a Certain Solomon Sparrow of Somarsett County died left to Richard Galloway a Tract of land lying in Baltemore County dureing his natural life and after his Decease to Richard Galloway Junr in fee simple and therefore your Pethioners pray a Commission may be ordered to aser-taine the bounds of the said land being known and Called by the name of Sparrows rest and your Pethioners as in Duty bound shall ever pray N, November Court 1727 which Petition Being read and by the Justices of Novem Court aforesaid heard Accordingly Granted And Benjamin Bowden, John Gardener (Clapham)