POETRY.

The Traveller at the Source of the Nile.

In sunset's light, o'er Afric thrown,
A wanderer proudly stood
Beside the well-spring, deep and lone,
Of Egypt's awful flood;
The cradle of that mighty birth,
So long a hidden thing to earth!

He heard its life's first murmuring sound
A low mysterious tone,
A music sought but never found,
By kings and warriors gone;
He listened and his heart beat high—
That was the song of victory!

The rapture of a conqueror's mood
Rush'd burning through his frame,—
The depth of that green solitude
Its torrents could not tame;
Though stillness lay, with eve's last smile—
Round those far fountains of the Nile.

Night came with stars.—across his soul
There swept a sudden change,
E'en at the pilgrim's glorious goal
A shadow dark and strange
Breathed from the thought so swift to fall
O'er triumph's hour—and is this all?

No more than this'—what seem'd it now
First by that spring to stand?
A thousand streams of lovelier flow
Bathed his own mountain land!
Whence far o'er waste and ocean track,
Their wild sweet voices called him back.

They called him back to many a glade,
His childhood's haunt of play,
Where brightly through the beachen shade
Their waters glanced away;
They called him with their sounding waves,
Back to his fathers' hills and graves.

But darkly mingling with the thought
Of each familiar scene,
Rose up a fearful vison, fraught
With all that lay between;
The Arab's lance, the desert's gloom,
The whirling sands, the red simoon!

Where was the glow of power and pride?
The spirit born to roam?
His altered heart within him died
With yearning for his home!
All vainly struggling to repress
That gush of painful tenderness.

He wept—the stars of Afric's heaven
Beheld his bursting tears,
E'en on that spot where fate had given
The meed of toiling years!
—Oh, happiness! how far we flee
Thine own sweet paths in search of thee!

In further pursuance of the order of the Orphans' Court of Talbot county, I will sell the residue of the personal estate of the late Lloyd Nicols, deceased, at Mount Pleasant on the evening of SATURDAY the 9th day of September next, if fair, if not, the next fair day after Sunday, the sale beginning precisely at 2 o'clock, P. M.

This residuum will consist of a great quantity of most valuable plate—a remarkably fine 8 day imported clock, some pieces of valuable household and kitchen furniture—a quantity of nice pork, with a good ox cart, and a variety of articles too tedious to mention, but of great use to the purchasers. Terms of sale same as before. Notes with approved security taken for all sums of five dollars or upwards payable six months after date—below that, the cash will be required.

ROBT H. GOLDSBOROUGH,
Adm'r. of Lloyd Nicols, dec'd.

MARYLAND:
Caroline county Orphans' Court.
August Term, A. D 1826.

On application of Peter Satterfield, surviving administrator of Elijah Satterfield late of Caroline county deceased, it is ordered that the said Peter Satterfield give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased's estate, and that the same be published once in each week for the space of three successive weeks in one of the newspapers printed in Easton.

In testimony that the foregoing is truly and faithfully copied from the minutes of proceedings of the Orphans' Court of Caroline county, I have hereto set my hand and the public seal of my office affixed, this 8th day of August, A. D. 1826.

L. S.

Test, JAS. SANGSTON, Reg'r.
of Wills for Caroline county.

In compliance with the above order,
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

That the subscriber of Caroline county hath obtained from the Orphan's Court, of said county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of Elijah Satterfield, late of Caroline county deceased; all persons having claims against the said deceased's estate are hereby warned to exhibit the same with the proper vouchers thereof to the subscriber on or before the 1st day of March next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this 26th day of August, A. D. 1826.

Boot & Shoe Store.

William White,

OPPOSITE THE COURT HOUSE, (EASTON,)

Has just received from Baltimore a handsome supply of Ladies' and Childrens' boots and shoes, which he will dispose of very low for cash—He has also received from New York a large supply of red and black morocco skins of the first and second quality, which he will either manufacture into boots and shoes or dispose of, low for cash, by the single skin or by the dozen.

W. H. finds he can purchase Boots & Shoes on much lower terms, for cash, in either of the above cities, than even on a short credit—he has therefore determined to sell for cash alone, and invites all those who are in want of articles in his line, and who have the needful, to give him a call, examine for themselves and he has no doubt of their purchasing.

Aug. 26.

Boot and Shoe MAKING.

The subscriber feeling grateful for the very liberal support which he has received since carrying on the above business, most respectfully begs leave to inform his friends and the public generally, that he has lately returned from Baltimore with a good assortment of materials, selected with care and attention by himself, which he is now prepared to manufacture at the shortest notice and sell on the most accommodating terms—From having in his employ the best workmen that can be procured, and by giving the strictest personal attention to business, he feels a confident hope that he will be able to please all those who may honour him with their custom. It is his intention to have work made in the best and most fashionable manner, with a particular regard to stability and neatness.

Easton, July 29. JOHN WRIGHT.

N. B. J. W. has a variety of Ladies' and Gentlemen's work now on hand, which he will sell as low as they can be purchased in this place.

THIS IS TO GIVE NOTICE,

That the subscriber of Worcester county, hath obtained from the Orphans' court of Worcester county in Maryland, letters testamentary on the personal estate of Elisha Bowin late of said county deceased; all persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber on or before the first day of March next—they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this 19th day of August, A. D. 1826.

COACH GIG AND HARNESS

Making.

The subscriber avails himself of the opportunity of informing the citizens of Somerset, that, having opened shop in Princess Anne, he intends carrying on the Coach Gigg, and Harness-making business in all their various branches. Having furnished himself with experienced workmen and a good stock of materials, he flatters himself, he shall be able, by executing his work with neatness and despatch, in the most fashionable manner and on the most accommocating terms, to meet the wishes of the public, and especially those who may favour him with employment. Prompt attention will be given to business; and every effort used to please his customers, and to show himself worthy of public confidence. As heretofore, the citizens of Somerset, have, mostly, been under the disagreeable necessity of sending their work to some distant shop out of the county, he hopes for the future this necessity will be prevented; and that they will avail themselves of the advantages of relief now offered them. He solicits a share of public patronage; pledges his assurances that nothing on his part shall be wanting to render general satisfaction.—Persons wishing work done in his line of business would do well to give him a call. WILLIAM QUINN.
