Taylor brought him to a bounded white oake where now the said Deponent stands and told the said Deponant that it was the first bounded Tree of Walter Smiths land and run from thence to a bounded tree standing at Cub Cabbin branch and further saith not Sworn this 2th day of July 1728 before —— Thomas Tolley

The Deposition of Charles Smith aged Seventy years or thereabouts being sworn on the Holy Evangelist of the Almity God Deposeth as follows that about thirty years ago a Certain Co: Thomas Richardson told him the Deponant that bounded white oake standing on the lower sid of a branch called Cub Cabbin branch was a bounded Tree of a parcell of land called Bear neck belonging to Walter Smith and further saith Co: Richardson told this Deponant that he Surveyed the said land and further saith not Sworn this 2d day of July 1728 before

Thomas Tolley
John Grear

The Deposition of Oliver Hamott of Baltimore County aged fifty one years or thereabouts being Sworn on the holy Evangelist of the Almity God Deposeth as follows viz: that being at a bounded white oake Standing on the South Side of the great Falls of Gunpowder River and near to the said falls and near to a place of the said falls called new Port saith that a Certain John Taylor being with him the said Deponant at the said white oak Informed him that he the said John Taylor was in Company with Co: Thomas Richardson when he bounded two white oaks on the South south side Cub Cabbin branch one thereof for a Track of land called Bear neck for a Certain Walter Smith and the other for a Track of land called Cub hill for one Burgiss this Deponant further saith that the said John Taylor told him he begun at the said White oak

(And)

And reversed the first Course of said Walter Smiths land which brought him to the white oak Standing near Newport aforesaid which tree then said was the begining Tree of the said Walter Smiths land and further saith not Sworn this 4th day of July 1728 before

Thomas Tolley
John Grear

August Court 1728 By Baltimore County Court it is ordered that the foregoing Return and all proceedings thereunto relating be recorded ——

Signed p order J Stokes Clk

Proceedings on Land Commissions returned at November Court Ano Domi 1728

To the Worshipfull Bench of Justices for the County of Baltimore The humble Petition of Nicholas Day planter Showeth That your petitioner having purchased a Certain Tract or parcell of land lying on the North side of Gunpowder River Called the Dock formaly taken up by Samuell Sickelmore and the bounds being Dubious your petitioner humbly desires your Worships to grant him a Commission to ascertain the bounds thereof and your Petitioner shall Ever pray &c: ——

Which Petition being read and by the Justices of Baltimore County aforesaid heard was accordingly Granted And Daniell Scott, Thomas Tolley, Moses Groome, and Archibald Rollo or any three or two of the more appointed Commissioners to Examine Evidences relating to the bounds of the said land and it was ordered that a Commission should Issue returnable at November Court Inst: Directed to the above said Commissioners for that Purpose ——

(Baltimore)