POETRY.

CASABIANCA*—By Mrs. Hemans:

The boy stood on the burning deck
Whence all but him had fled;
The flame that lit the battle's wreck,
Shone round him o'er the dead.

Yet beautiful and bright he stood,
As born to rule the storm;
A creature of heroic blood,
A proud, though child-like form.

The flames rolled on—he would not go,
Without his father's word;
The father, faint in death below,
His voice no longer heard.

He called aloud: 'say, Father say,
If yet my task is done?'
He knew not that the chieftain lay
Unconscious of his son.

'Speak, Father!' once again he cried,
If I may yet begone!
And—but the booming shots replied,
And fast the flame rolled on.

Upon his brow he felt their breath,
And in his waving hair,
And looked from that lone post of death,
In still; yet brave despair.

And shouted but once more aloud,
'My Father! must I stay?'
While o'er him fast, through sail and shroud,
The wreathing fires made way.

They wrapt the ship in splendour wild,
They caught the flag on high,
And streamed above the gallant child,
Like banners in the sky.

There came a burst of thunder sound—
The boy—Oh! where was he?
Ask of the winds, that far around
With fragments strewed the sea!

With mast, and helm, and pennon fair,
That well had borne their part:
But the noblest thing that perished there
Was that young faithful heart?

*Young Casabianca, a boy about thirteen years old, son to the Admiral of the Orient, remained at his post [in the battle of the Nile] after the ship had taken fire and all the guns had been abandoned and perished in the explosion of the vessel, when the flames had reached the powder.

ON A WATCH WITH A BRILLIANT.

While this gay toy attracts thy sight,
Thy reason let it warn;
And seize, my friend, that rapid time
That never must return.

If idly lost, no art or care
The blessing can restore:
And Heaven enacts a strict account
For every misspent hour.

Short is our longest day of life,
And soon its prospects end:
Yet on that day's uncertain date
Eternal years depend.

Yet equal to our Being's aim
The space of virtue giv'n:
And ev'ry minute well improv'd
Secures an age in Heaven.

Touches of terrible sublimity.—The Cahawba Press, of Alabama, says that the mosketoes are so numerous and voracious on Indian Key, an island off the coast of Florida, that they keep the hogs squeaking, the dogs barking, and fowls cackling all night.

Why, really, this description of these "winged members," almost equals that given by Dr. Beustis, in his topography of Louisiana. In his remarks about them, he says, 'blood is their cry; nothing but blood can quench their thirst and satisfy their sanguinary appetites. Compared with them the moschetnes of the northern states are mere gnats. Furnished with a bill like iron, they perforate the toughest hide, and drink the crimson blood of man and beast.

A gentleman who courted a lady of the name of Miss Lloyd, suddenly left her for one whose name was Take. After being married to her he was accosted by an acquaintance with 'So I hear you are married to Miss Lloyd, hey?' 'Indeed,' answered he 'it was a Miss Take, I assure you sir?'

A sad mistake.—A rattlesnake was about a fortnight since discovered in the canal, in Warwasink by an emigrant from the land of St. Patrick, who, supposing it to be an eel, without any ceremony grappled it, exclaiming, "An ale! an ale! by the powers!" Some bystanders soon undeceived him, when it was found that he had been bitten three times by the poisonous reptile. By a timely application, however, the poison was extracted.

NOTICE.

Was committed to the jail of Frederick county Md on the 1st of September inst. a bright mulatto man who calls himself Robert Diggs, says he was free born, and has formerly lived with his father on Mr. Allen Farquhar's farm, about 1½ miles from New-Market, Frederick county He is about 20 years of age, slender made, a tolerable pleasant countenance, a large scar on the left eyebrow and several small ones on each arm—his clothing, a yellow straw hat, a black silk vest very much worn, coarse tow linen shirt, a pair of yellow and white striped pantaloons, a blue coat, calfskin shoes, &c. BY HIS EXCELLENCY,
JOSEPH KENT Governor of Maryland.

A Proclamation.

Whereas, authentic information hath been received by the Executive of this State, that a most cruel and unprovoked murder was committed on the nineteenth day of August last, in Calvert county, on the body of Joseph R. Fowler, by Benjamin Buckmaster, both of the said county, and that the said Buckmaster hath fled from justice. And whereas, it is of the first importance to society, that perpetrators of such heinous offences should be brought to condign punishment. Now, therefore, I have thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do, by and with the advice and consent of the council, offer a reward of 200 Dollars,

To any person or persons, who shall apprehend the said Benjamin Buckmaster, & lodge him in any jail, so that he may be brough to justice.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the said state, this 20th day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty six, & of the Independence of the United States, the fifty first.

JOSEPH KENT.

By order of the Governor,
THOMAS CULBRETH,
Clerk of the Council.
