TO TAVERN KEEPERS.

The subscriber being desirous to devote his attention exclusively to the GROCERY BUSINESS, will rent, for one or more years, his large and extensive Tavern, situate in Chestertown, Md. known by the name of the Exchange Hotel.

Which is supposed, by good judges, to be the best stand in the town for a public house of entertainment, being within a short distance of the Court House and other public places.

The United States mail stages for Wilmington, Centreville, Easton and Rock Hall, leaving the Exchange three times a week, viz: Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, and returning, arrive in Chestertown on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, necessarily ensures to the Tavern a number of passengers and travellers. The beds, bedding and bed steads, which are nearly new, and in good condition, together with a variety of other articles essential to tavern keeping on a large scale, will be sold and disposed of at fair prices.

The Subscriber will also dispose of the residue of his term or contract with the General Government for transporting the United States mail from, and to, the above mentioned places, Rock Hall excepted, together with 4 stages or coaches, and from 12 to 14 stage horses, all in good order and running daily. To a good tenant the terms will be moderate and possession given at any time required.

The subscriber deems it unnecessary to give any further description of the property as it is so well known.

Persons disposed to rent will no doubt call, examine, and judge for themselves. The subscriber also takes this opportunity of tendering the public his warmest thanks and gratitude for the very liberal patronage he has received, and hopes that the same generous encouragement will be extended to his successor at the Exchange Hotel.
