POETRY.

WOMAN.

"Daughter of God and Man."—MILTON.

(From the Charleston City Gazette.)

There is a language of the heart
That mocks all learning's studied art,
There is an utterance of the soul
That laughs at scholarship's control,
Breathes forth in verse a living thought,
With feeling, love, and nature fraught;
Woman's the theme; and who would e'er require
One borrowed string to animate his lyre?

There is a witchery that lies
Within the sunshine of her eyes,
More potent than the magic spell
Of talisman, or fairy dell,
Who has not felt her very name
Inspire his heart and thrill his frame!
Idolatry! the frowning world may cry,
But who has loved nor felt the ecstacy.

O who has ever in that hour
When woman's love and woman's power
Have twined their influence round his heart,
Felt not that woman can impart
By smile, or glance, or smothered sigh,
A world of bliss and constancy.
Priestess of Love! how oft thou'rt left to mourn
Man's perfidy—forsaken and forlorn.

There is a vigil in the sky
That marks the villain's perjury;
How can he hope to be forgiven
Who breaks on earth his vow to Heaven?
He wedded in this world may be,
But hell like his inconstancy,
Will echoing yell the oath that fires his breath,
And brand it in the registry of death.

Pleasure's a poor and gaudy toy,
A forgery on solid joy,
A gilded chain that drags the slave
Helpless and childless to the grave.
The haunted Libertine who lies
Without one hand to close his eyes,
Sighs to the passing breeze his dying groan
Companionless, unwedded and alone.

Man has a wandering heart—his soul
Spurns fetters, slavery, and control:
To day he climbs the snow-clad steep,
To morrow ploughs the foamy deep:
And now he roams by mountain side,
Without a friend, without a guide—
Till woman bids his wayward steps to cease,
And turns his Arab thoughts to home and peace.

Woman! companion of my life,
Less loved when maiden than when wife;
How fondly do I sing to thee,
Of wedded love and constancy!
Dear mother of my child, I trace
Thy emblem in her artless face—
I clasp the lisping babe, receive a kiss,
And feel a father's love, a father's bliss.

'Tis woman's voice, in accents low,
That hushes first the infant's wo;
'Tis woman's fond, maternal arms,
That shields her boy from vain alarms—
Uprears him in a world of cares,
And saves him from its countless snares.
Nurse of mankind! I fondly view in thee,
The watchful guardian of our infancy.

Now would I woman's friendship sing—
O, 'tis a pure undying thing!
The dew that gems the blossom'd thorn
Shines brightest in the sunny morn;
But faithful woman can bestow
A light to gild the night of wo!
Her love, like moonbeam on a stormy sea,
Sheds o'er our cares its own serenity.

I've found the world a faithless thing—
Man's friendship weak and perishing,
Man's friendship! 'Tis the ocean's spray—
The froth that rude winds sweep away!
You ask where constancy can rest?
Go, find it in a woman's breast!
I would not give one fair, lov'd friend, I boast,
For all the wealth of India's golden coast!

When pale disease, with all her train,
Fevers the blood and fires the brain,
'Tis woman's sympathetic art
Quells the wild throbbings of the heart;
The mortal pang, the burning sigh,
In nature's latest agony!
O, fair physician! thou art ever near,
With oil and wine the drooping frame to cheer.

I ask not, on the bed of death,
Proud man to watch my fleeting breath:
Let woman's prayer embalm the hour,
For O, it has a soothing power,
To calm the awful struggle here,
To brighten hope and banish fear—
To raise new prospects of a land on high,
Where death is swallowed up in victory.

FIVE OFFERS.—"Wherefore dinna ye get married," said a Scotchman to an old maid.—"Who shall I have," replied she. "Wha'll ye ha?" returned the Scotchman, "wha but Jamie Jammerson!" "Do you think," said she "that I'll marry that old widower, when I've had five offers before, and all from the ministers?" 'Whew!" rejoined the Scotchman. Ye're worse nor Peter, he only denied his master three times, and ye denied yours five times! hoot awa! woman, ye're worse nor an infidel!"

COACH GIG AND HARNESS

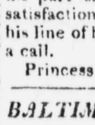

Making.

The subscriber avails himself of the opportunity of informing the citizens of Somerset, that, having opened shop in Princess Anne, he intends carrying on the Coach Gigg, and Harness-making business in all their various branches. Having furnished himself with experienced workmen and a good stock of materials, he flatters himself, he shall be able, by executing his work with neatness and despatch, in the most fashionable manner and on the most accommocating terms, to meet the wishes of the public, and especially those who may favour him with employment. Prompt attention will be given to business; and every effort used to please his customers, and to show himself worthy of public confidence. As heretofore, the citizens of Somerset, have, mostly, been under the disagreeable necessity of sending their work to some distant shop out of the county, he hopes for the future this necessity will be prevented; and that they will avail themselves of the advantages of relief now offered them. He solicits a share of public patronage; pledges his assurances that nothing on his part shall be wanting to render general satisfaction.—Persons wishing work done in his line of business would do well to give him a call. WILLIAM QUINN.

Princess Anne, Aug. 19.

BALTIMORE & EASTON PACKET

THE SCHOONER,

JANE & MARY.

The subscriber takes this method of informing his friends and the public generally, that he has taken on shares from Mr. Bennett Tomlinson, the schooner Jane & Mary, now in complete order, having been thoroughly overhauled and her cabin made larger for the accommodation of passengers; and intends running her as a REGULAR PACKET & GRAIN BOAT, between Easton-Point and Baltimore He intends leaving Easton-Point for Baltimore every SUNDAY and Baltimore every WEDNESDAY, for Easton-Point, and continue to run the same days, during the season, leaving each place at NINE o'clock in the morning He has also taken the Granary and Wharf of Mrs. Vickars, which is in complete order for the reception of Grain: he has employed Capt. THOMAS ROE, who is well acquainted with the business and in whom every confidence can be placed. He therefore solicits a share of public patronage, and assures the public that nothing on his part shall be wanting to give general satisfaction.

He intends when necessary, to consign the Grain entrusted to him for sale to James Barroll, Esq. of Baltimore, and shall devote his own time and attention to receiving freights and settling the business at his office at Easton Point or at the Drug Store of Moore & Kellie, in Easton, every Saturday.

THOMAS PARROTT.

NEWARK Boarding School.

The Young Ladies' Boarding School at Newark, heretofore conducted by Mr. SHERER, will on the first day of November next, be opened and continued under the superintendence of the Rev. SAMUEL BELL.

Instruction will be given by the most accomplished teachers, in all the useful and most of the ornamental branches of female education, such as Reading, Writing, Arithmatic, English Grammar, Composition, Rhetoric, History, Chronology, Geography with the use of Maps and Globes, Natural Philosophy, Astronomy, and Chemistry.—Music, Drawing, Painting, Embroidery, &c. &c.

A strict and uniform attention will be paid to the intellectual improvement, health, manners, and morals of the Young Ladies; they will be constantly under the care of a governess of unexceptionable character and accomplished manners. The healthful and pleasant situation of the Village, and the high character of the gentlemen, who have consented to superintend this Seminary, it is hoped will procure for it a liberal share of public patronage.

Terms of Board & Tuition per quarter $30

Extra charges for Music, Drawing, Painting, Embroidery, &c.

The subscribers, who will attend as a visiting committee, owe it to themselves and children, and the public in general, to patronize an Institution so worthy of support, and cannot forbear to congratulate Parents and Guardians on the prospect of its becoming equal if not superior in character to any other in State.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY,

JOSEPH KENT Governor of Maryland.

A Proclamation.

Whereas, authentic information hath been received by the Executive of this State, that a most cruel and unprovoked murder was committed on the nineteenth day of August last, in Calvert county, on the body of Joseph R. Fowler, by Benjamin Buckmaster, both of the said county, and that the said Buckmaster hath fled from justice. And whereas, it is of the first importance to society, that perpetrators of such heinous offences should be brought to condign punishment. Now, therefore, I have thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do, by, and with the advice and consent of the council, offer a reward of 200 Dollars,

To any person or persons, who shall apprehend the said Benjamin Buckmaster, & lodge him in any jail, so that he may be brought to justice.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the said state, this 20th day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty six, & of the Independence of the United States, the fifty first.

JOSEPH KENT.

By order of the Governor,

THOMAS CULRETH, Clerk of the Council.

Sep. 30 6w

$100 Reward.

Ranaway from the subscriber in the state of Ohio, in 1825, a negro fellow who calls himself NATHAN—about 6 feet high, stout made, yellowish complexion—was employed some time on board the Norfolk steam boat, plying between the city of Baltimore and Norfolk—He was sold to the subscriber by a Mrs. Cleveland, of the Eastern Shore, (Md.) on account of a theft he had committed on board the Norfolk steam boat—Nathan has been seen in Baltimore and no doubt is now in that city or Norfolk—The above reward will be given for apprehending and securing the above described negro in any jail in the United States.

JOHN B. ORY, State of Louisiana, or
JAS. C. WHEELER, Easton, E. S. of Maryland

June 10.

Notice.

Was committed to the jail of Frederick county, Md. on the 31st of August last, a dark mulatto man who calls himself Charles Rustin, and says he belongs to William D. Diggs, living on Capitol Hill, Washington City.
