POETRY.

LINES,

Written by the Messmate of a Seaman. who fell from the yard arm of a Man of War, and was killed on the spot.

Here lies poor Smedly! by a fatal blow
Deprived of life, and sent to shades below.
He was a seaman, and a brave one too,
And oft, Britania, has he fought for you.
But now alas! his fighting is all o'er
And he is steering to a peaceful shore.
The wind is fair, he'll start nor tack, nor sheet,
Until he gain the great celestial fleet,
That lies at anchor in a glorious bay,
Waiting the coming of the eventful day,
When the High Admiral of the world shall call
All hands on deck, the good, the bad, and all
In heav'ns great log book; may it then appear
That this poor sailor kept his reck'ning clear.

THE MARINER'S SONG.

BY ALLEN CUNNINGHAM.

A wet sheet and a flowing sea,
A wind that follows fast,
And fills the white and rustling sail,
And bends the gallant mast;
And bends the gallant mast, my boys,
While like the eagle free,
Away the good ship flies and leaves
Old England on the lee.

O for a soft and gentle wind!
I heard a fair one cry;
But give to me the snoring breeze,
And white waves heaving high;
And white waves heaving high, my boys;
The good ship tight and free—
The world of waters is our home,
And merry men are we.

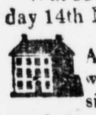

There's tempests in yon horned moon;
And lightning in yon cloud,
And hark! the music, mariners,
The wind is piping loud;
The wind is piping loud, my boys,
The lightning flashes free—
While the hollow oak our palace is,
Our heritage the sea.

COACH GIG AND HARNESS

Making.

The subscriber avails himself of the opportunity of informing the citizens of Somerset, that, having opened shop in Princess Anne, he intends carrying on the Coach Gigg, and Harness-making business in all their various branches. Having furnished himself with experienced workmen and a good stock of materials, he flatters himself, he shall be able, by executing his work with neatness and despatch, in the most fashionable manner and on the most accommocating terms, to meet the wishes of the public, and especially those who may favour him with employment. Prompt attention will be given to business; and every effort used to please his customers, and to show himself worthy of public confidence. As heretofore, the citizens of Somerset, have, mostly, been under the disagreeable necessity of sending their work to some distant shop out of the county, he hopes for the future this necessity will be prevented; and that they will avail themselves of the advantages of relief now offered them. He solicits a share of public patronage; pledges his assurances that nothing on his part shall be wanting to render general satisfaction.—Persons wishing work done in his line of business would do well to give him a call. WILLIAM QUINN.

Princess Anne, Aug. 19.

BALTIMORE & EASTON PACKET

THE SCHOONER,

JANE & MARY.

The subscriber takes this method of informing his friends and the public generally, that he has taken on shares from Mr. Bennett Tomlinson, the schooner Jane & Mary, now in complete order, having been thoroughly overhauled and her cabin made larger for the accommodation of passengers; and intends running her as a REGULAR PACKET & GRAIN BOAT, between Easton-Point and Baltimore. He intends leaving Easton-Point for Baltimore every SUNDAY and Baltimore every WEDNESDAY, for Easton-Point, and continue to run the same days, during the season, leaving each place at NINE o'clock in the morning. He has also taken the Granary and Wharf of Mrs. Vickars, which is in complete order for the reception of Grain; he has employed Capt. THOMAS ROE, who is well acquainted with the business and in whom every confidence can be placed. He therefore solicits a share of public patronage, and assures the public that nothing on his part shall be wanting to give general satisfaction.

He intends when necessary, to consign the Grain entrusted to him for sale to James Barroll, Esq. of Baltimore, and shall devote his own time and attention to receiving freights and settling the business at his office at Easton Point or at the Drug Store of Moore & Kellie, in Easton, every Saturday.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY,

JOSEPH KENT Governor of Maryland.

A Proclamation.

Whereas, authentic information hath been received by the Executive of this State, that a most cruel and unprovoked murder was committed on the nineteenth day of August last, in Calvert county, on the body of Joseph R. Fowler, by Benjamin Buckmaster, both of the said county, and that the said Buckmaster hath fled from justice. And whereas, it is of the first importance to society, that perpetrators of such heinous offences should be brought to condign punishment. Now, therefore, I have thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do, by, and with the advice and consent of the council, offer a reward of 200 Dollars,

To any person or persons, who shall apprehend the said Benjamin Buckmaster, & lodge him in any jail, so that he may be brought to justice.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the said state, this 20th day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty six, & of the Independence of the United States, the fifty first.

JOSEPH KENT.

By order of the Governor,
THOMAS CULBRETH,
Clerk of the Council.
