POETRY.

For the Easton Gazette.

"Why should we despond."

Oh how can we gaze at the starry sky,
In its glory bending o'er us,
Then turn from the view with a saddened eye
To weep that a grave is before us.

There is mirth in the wild wood and joy on the hill,
And music floats on the air,
There is sportive play in the gushing rill,
And beauty is every where.

And the tall old mountain lifts his crest,
Aloft in his peaceful pride,
And the sun-lit clouds form a gorgeous vest,
As they cling to his shaggy side.

The stirring sea in its majesty,
Feels joy in its ceaseless surge,
And roars a song, as it rolls along,
To the green earth's farthest verge.

There is peace besid e the rivulets brim,
There's repose 'neath the forest's awning,
There's a calm delight in the twilight dim,
And gladness comes with the morning.

Aye there's gladness where ever the sunbeams fall,
For they cheer e'en the desert's scene;
And the moss clad towers, and the ivied wall,
Look gay in their mantle of green.

Behold, how o'er the lowliest grave,
The tint of beauty is shed,
There the wildflowers bloom, & the willows wave,
Oh fair is the home of the dead.

Yes e'en—to the broken and with'ring heart
A healing balm is poured in,
And when the dear joys of the present depart
The hopes of the future begin.

STATE OF MARYLAND,

Worcester County, sc.

Upon application made to me the subscriber, in the recess of Worcester county court, as one of the Justices of the Orphans' Court of the county aforesaid, by petition in writing of John Brewington of the said county, who is under execution for debts which he is unable to pay praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said act, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the said petitioner having satisfied me that he has resided in the State of Maryland immediately preceding his application, and the said petitioner having given sufficient security for his personal appearance in Worcester county court, before the Judges thereof, on the first Saturday after the second Monday of May next, to answer such allegations as may be made against him by his creditors---I do therefore order and adjudge that the said John Brewington be discharged from his imprisonment, and that he, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the newspapers printed at Easton, for four successive weeks, at least three months before the time appointed for his appearance aforesaid and also by causing a copy of this order to be set up at the Court House door of the county aforesaid, and also a copy of the same to be set up at one of the taverns in Snow Hill, three months before the time appointed for his appearance as aforesaid, thereby to give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, at the time and place aforesaid, to shew cause if any they have, why the said John Brewington should not have the benefit of the act and supplement so prayed. Given under my hand this 18th day of March, 1825.
