COTTON SEED.

The subscriber offers for sale several hundred bushels of Cotton Seed of prime quality, which has not, in the slighest manner, been touched with the rot, a disease incident to this plant highly communicable from the seed and fatal to the crop.

The stock of this seed has grown at least two years, in a part of Virginia, of nearly our latitude and climate, and one year, in Dorchester; and therefore is well acclimated to Maryland a point of known importance to the planter.

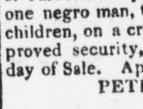

The requisite quantity of seed per acre is about two bushels

By the way of Baltimore where the subscriber will, if required, deliver it, it may be received at almost any part of the state in a few days after order.
