That the said White oake was the second bounded tree of the land he held called Leafs Chance & further this Deponant saith not; taken before us the subscribers three of the Commissioners appointed for the purpose aforementioned this 28th day of aprile 1738 ..... Richd Caswell
Walter Tolley
Edwd Day

John Hutchins aged forty years or thereabouts being sworn on the holly Evangilist of Almighty God deposeth & saith that he was informed by his father Thomas Hutchins that the white oak tree where this Deponant now stands (being on a Ridge near a drean runing into the third branch of the great falls of Gunpowder Priver and on the west side of said John Hutchins now dwelling plantation was the second bounded tree of a tract of Land called Leafs Chance and that he this deponant hath oftentimes seen the said tree and it appeared to him to be a fair bounded tree, and that the same was always deem'd and taken by the neighbours to be the second boundary of the said leafs Chance, and further this deponant saith not; taken before us the subscribers Commissioners, appointed for the purpose aforementioned this 28th day of April 1738 ..... Richd Caswell
Walter Tolley
Edwd Day

John Roberts als Camble, aged fifty years or thereabouts being sworn on the holly Evangilist of almighty God deposeth & saith that the white oake tree where this Deponant now stands (being on a Ridge near a Drean runing into the third branch of the main falls of Gunpowder River and on the South West side of John Hutchins now Dwelling plantation) was generally Deem'd and taken by the Nighbours to be a bounded tree of leafs Chance and that he hath often times seen the said tree and it appeared to him to be a fair bounded tree with Twelve Notches and this Deponant hath particularly heard his father in Law John Camile say that the said White oake was a bounded tree of Leafs Chance & further this Deponant saith not; taken before us the subscribers Commissioners appointed for the purpose aforementioned this 28th day of April 1738 } Richd Caswell, Walter Tolley, Edward Day

John Grear he is aged fifty years or thereabouts being sworn on the holly Evangilist of Almighty God deposeth and saith that at the place where this Deponant stands being on a ride on the south East side of John Hutchins's plantation he this Deponant was informed (about fifteen years since) by a certain John Taylor (who some years agoe was Deputy Surveyer of Baltimore County) there formerly stood a hickory which was the begining tree of a tract of Land called leafs Chance and in as much as the said Hickory was fallen down and decayed, he the said Taylor told this deponant that he marked a Chestnut Tree standing about six feet Distance from the said hickory for a Memorandum of the said bounded Hickory tree and further this Deponant saith not — Taken before us the subscribers Commissioners appointed for the purpose aforementioned this 28th day of April 1738 } Richd Caswell, Walter Tolley, Edward Day

April 28th 1738 We whose names are under written three of the persons appointed to Execute the foregoing Commission do certifie to the justices within Mentioned that pursuant to the Directions thereof by Giveing Notice accordingly and taking the within & above Depositions Given under our hands & seals the day and year last Mentioned ..... Richd Caswell, Walter Tolley, Edward Day

Wem: Court 1738 By Baltimore County Court it is therefore Ordered that the foregoing petition Land Commission & return & all the proceedings thereto relating be Recorded & Sign'd By Order Wells Stokes Clk. Coun

Proceedings on Land Commissions Returned at March Court Anno Domini 1738 .....

John Stoddarts and ... Leonard Holly days pet. and Commission & Ret. } To the Worshipfull Justices of Baltimore County the Petition of John Stoddert & Leonard Holloday of Prince Georges County

Humbly Sheweth. That your Petitioners are Seized in fee of a tract of Land Lying in Baltimore County in the fork of Gunpowder River Called Turnans Requaintance the bounds where of are Decayed Your Petitioners therefore Humbly pray

(Your