POETRY.

BEHAVE YOURSEL' BEFORE FOLK.
AIR—"Good morrow to your night cap."

Behave yoursel' before folk,
Behave yoursel' before folk,
And dinna be sae rude to me,
As kiss me sae before folk.

It wadna gi'e me meikle pain,
Gin we were seen and heard by nane,
To tak' a kiss, or grant you ane;
But, gudesake! no before folk,
Behave yoursel' before folk,
Behave yoursel' before folk,
Whate'er you do, when out o' view,
Be cautious ay before folk.

Consider, lad, how folk will crack,
And what a great affair they'll mak'
O' naething but a simple smack,
That's gien or taen before folk;
Behave yoursel' before folk,
Behave yoursel' before folk,
Nor gi'e the tongue o' auld and young
Occasion to come o'er folk.

It's no through hatred o' a kiss,
That I sae plainly tell you this;
But, losh! I tak' it sair amiss,
To be sae teaz'd before folk,
Behave yoursel' before folk,
Behave yoursel' before folk,
When we're alane ye may tak' ane,
But fient a ane before folk.

I'm sure wi' you I've been as free
As ony modest lass should be;
But yet, it doesna do to see
Sic freedom used before folk,
Behave yoursel' before folk,
Behave yoursel' before folk,
I'll ne'er submit again to it—
So mind you that—before folk.

Ye tell me that my face is fair;
It may be sae—I dinna care—
But ne'er again gan't blush sae sair
As ye hae done before folk,
Behave yoursel' before folk,
Behave yoursel' before folk,
Nor heat my cheeks wi your mad freaks,
But ay be douce before folk.

Ye tell me that my lips are sweet;
Sic tales I doubt are a deceit;
At ony rate its hardly meet
To prie their sweets before folk,
Behave yoursel' before folk,
Behave yoursel' before folk,
Gin that's the case there's time and place.
But surely no before folk.

But, gin ye really do insist
That I should suffer to be kiss'd,
Gae, get a license frae the priest,
And mak' me yours before folk,
Behave yoursel' before folk,
Behave yoursel' before folk,
And when we're ane, bath flesh and bane,
Ye may tak' ten—before folk.

Steam-Boat Notice.

At a meeting of the board of Trustees of the Maryland Steam Boat Company held at Easton on Wednesday the 30th of May in the year 1827, were present,

NICHOLAS HAMMOND, Presit.
Henry Hollyday, John Goldsborough, Samuel Groome, William Clark.

ON the complaint of Captain Levin Jones, and at his particular instance and request, the Board of Trustees have taken into consideration the terms of the contract heretofore made and executed by and between him and them.

It is thereby perfectly plain that they have treated with him as the owner and proprietor of the lands and plantation called Castle Haven, and of the road leading from the shores of the River through his farm to the public highway; as his own private road; and have endeavoured to secure a right of way in and over the same for the benefit and advantage of the Steam Boat Company; and have obliged him to provide carriages and teams for the conveyance of passengers, and made stipulations with him for compensating him for the privilege of using the said private road by those who might travel from and to the wharf in their own proper carriages. And the Trustees having thus from these motives rendered the passage from and to the steam boat certain and convenient to the inhabitants of Cambridge and the adjacent country—Do now acknowledge and declare that having foreseen no necessity for the use of hired carriages or stages, did not consider them as carriages or means that would probably be ever employed, and therefore were not intended to be included in their said contract: And they are satisfied by the just complaints of Capt. Jones, that such hired carriages or stages essentially interfere with the obligation under which he has placed himself to furnish the necessary means and teams, and do him material injury. To relieve him therefore from the grievances which he suffers by such interference, and to enable him to redress them by any legal measure which he may think it expedient to employ, the Trustees do hereby release him from so much of the said contract as appears, though unintentionally, to oblige him to admit over the said private road such hired carriages or stages; and they only claim the privilege of the said road for the use of such passengers, baggage and effects, as shall be brought or offered to be brought in carriages or by means provided by himself, or in carriages properly or truly belonging to such passengers, or for persons travelling on horseback or on foot—and that with regard to hired carriages or stages or to passengers travelling therein, the right is restored or reserved to the said Levin Jones to admit them or not to admit them, to a passage or conveyance through his plantation at his pleasure; provided only that in admitting to them such passage or conveyance, he shall not exceed the terms heretofore agreed upon between him & the said Trustees: And provided also that with respect to the wharf erected and established by the said Trustees, they claim the exclusive ownership thereof, and allow to the said Levin Jones, the charge and possession thereof, for the accommodation of passengers, baggage and effects coming thereto or going therefrom according to the tenor and meaning of the said contract as now explained and modified.
