bounded trees of Martain Depasts land and the Deponant further saith that he hath seen the surveyord run from the said tree & further saith not

The Deposition of Edward Garretson aged thirty three Years or thereabouts being sworn on the Holy Evangalist of Almighty God declares as follows Viz.t that about eleven Years ago he the Deponant was with John Jackson senior at the place where he now stands being by a red oak tree the aforesaid John Jackson s.d told him that the said tree was the begining tree of the land now held and the possession of Richard Garretson and further saith not

The Deposition of James Garretson aged fifty years or thereabouts being sworn on the Holy Evangalist of Almighty God declares as follows Viz.t that about eleven Years ago he comming here on the place where he now stands with the Petitioner and John Jackson sen.r it being by the aforesaid red oak tree and that John Jackson sen.r told him the Deponant that the aforesaid red oak was a boundary of the aforesaid land and further saith not

We Certify that there was set up mour posome along square stone bounded with twelve Notches close by the side of the aforesaid Oak As Witness our Hands and Seals this 23.d day of July 1760

James Born
Luke Griffith
Greenberry Dorsey Jun.r

The Deposition of John Jackson aged forty seven Years or thereabouts being sworn on the Holy Evangalist of Almighty God declares as follows Viz.t That the tree claimed by Mr. Stokes Heirs & Mr. Pacas held by them as a bounded tree it being a white Oak tree and is cut down and is about two perches from the main road and near Delph Bridge he was told by his father John Jackson was not a bounded tree of any persons whatsoever but was bounded by one Hugh Drammican out of a Frolick as they were repairing the road the Deponant further saith that a white oak tree where he now stands it being at the head of a little Swamp leading into Delph Creek and standing between a blazed Maple and a blazed white Oak he saith his father John Jackson told him he believed to be a Boundary of Stokes Land and further saith not

(Persons)

The Deposition of Edward Garretson aged thirty three or thereabouts being sworn on the Holy Evangalist of Almighty God declares as follows Viz.t That the Deponant was along with John Jackson senior on the place where he now stands it being by a white Oak tree which is cut down and lies about two perches off from the main road and near Delph Bridge and the aforesaid John Jackson told him that was not a bounded Tree belonging to any body but was bounded by one Hugh Drammican out of a frolick when they were clearing the roads and the said Jackson farther told this Deponant that he saw Stokes & some others looking for a bounded Tree farther down Delph Creek but could not find it and then came and run from the tree by the road which he said did not belong to him nor Paca neither and the said Jackson farther told the said Deponant that some time after as he was a hunting saw a bounded tree which he believed must be the tree they look't for and the boundary of the said land and the notches was clear to be seen it is a white Oak tree standing farther down delph Creek at the head of a little swamp decending into Delph Creek standing between a blazed Maple and a blazed white Oak

(and)